A FORTIFIED VILLAGE TAKEN.

Philippines Had an Advantage and Poured in a Heavy Fire—Two of Our Men Killed and Some Wounded—Man Killed Near Caloocan.

MANILA, March 17.—The strongly fortified village of Cuitai, northwest of Pasig, was captured Thursday after a desperate fight by the Twentieth infantry.

The Americans lost 17 wounded, while the rebels' loss was heavy.

The insurgents at the outposts and in the trenches beyond Caloocan fired several volleys Wednesday night upon the Kansas volunteers and a part of the Fourth regulars, desiring, it is supposed, to discover if the American line had been thinned by the movement of General Wheaton's command. The Americans in the trenches replied warmly to the fire.

H. Y. Beecher of Company A of the Montana regiment was killed in the engagement.

A battalion of the Twentieth regular infantry routed a small band of Filipinos on the Laguna road and some sharpshooters who were firing from a house over which a French flag was flying were dislodged.

A gunboat entered the lake and silenced a small battery in the foothills.

The First battalion of the Twentieth infantry regiment advanced from Pasig Thursday, clearing the country to Cainta, a well defended village of 700 inhabitants five miles northwest of the foothills.

The troops first encountered the rebel outposts in the dense jungle on the banks of the river. The enemy was dislodged after about a half an hour's fighting. The Americans advanced in splendid order under a heavy fire until it was necessary to volley the rebels from the trenches. The latter had a great advantage and dropped a number of our men. The Americans charged across the rice fields, making four charges on the enemy, who numbered 1,000 men, 500 of whom were entrenched, and in the face of a crossfire. Our troops, however, carried the town after four hours' fighting and burned the outposts. The rebels firing from the the windows and keeping up a running fire in the streets. The Americans then withdrew in order to obtain more ammunition. The rebels lost about 100 men.

The following Americans were killed: Corporal Johnson of Co. C. Private McAvoy of Co. L. In addition the following Americans were wounded: Sergeant Check, Co. L. Corporal Households, Co. M. EDITOR MEDILL DEAD.

Once Practiced Law and Ran Newspapers in Ohio—Founded Cleveland Leader—Brought Out Lincoln.

SAN ANTONIO, March 17.—Joseph Medill, editor of the Chicago Tribune, died here of heart failure. He was conscious up to the moment of his death, which he met with calm placidity. He said to his physician, ten minutes before he died: "My last words shall be 'what is the news?'" He was born April 6, 1823.

In 1855 he opened a law office in New Philadelphia, O., having as a partner George W. McIlvane, who afterward became chief justice of the Ohio supreme court. In 1849 he gave up his practice and established the Coshocton Republican, which he conducted for three years as a Free Soil Whig paper. In 1852 he moved to Cleveland, where he founded The Daily Forest City. Later, he merged his paper with The True Democrat and thus became the founder of the Cleveland Leader of today.

In 1854 Mr. Medill sold the Cleveland Leader and went to Chicago with his associate, J. C. Vaughn. With Dr. C. H. Fay of Galena they bought the Chicago Tribune. Through the personal and editorial influence of Mr. Medill the name of Abraham Lincoln was brought before the people as a presidential possibility in the dark days foreshadowing the Civil war.

The Cruiser Chicago Ordered to Bring the Sick Statesman Home.

WASHINGTON, March 17.—A cablegram received by General Miles from Martinique announced that the condition of ex-Secretary of State Sherman was better.

WASHINGTON, March 17.—Secretary Long ordered the warship Chicago to bring ex-Secretary Sherman back to Washington.

MGR. STEPHAN HIGHLY HONORED.

The Pope Recognizes His Great Work Among the Indians.

WASHINGTON, March 17.—By papal brief received by the apostolic delegate, Mgr. Joseph Stephan has been raised to the dignity of protonotary apostolic. This is the highest honor which is ever conferred on Catholic clergymen outside the city of Rome.

He becomes fully a prelate with all prelatical privilege. This distinguished honor has been conferred by the pope on Mgr. Stephan in recognition of his zealous services in promoting Catholic interests among the Indians of the United States. Mgr. Stephan has for many years been the head of the Catholic Indian bureau in this city, and is himself a practical Indian missionary, having labored among the Indian tribes for a long period. He was a chaplain in the civil war.

REGULARS WILL BE CARED FOR.

Volunteers Will Be Out of Cuba Likely Before Dangerous Season.

WASHINGTON, March 17.—Replying to an inquiry whether there was any apprehension for the health of the troops in Cuba on account of a possible outbreak of yellow fever, Surgeon General Sternberg said that the yellow fever season was some distance off. Most, if not all, of the volunteers would be brought from the island.

The utmost care had been taken of the troops and sanitation of the camps. For the regulars who would remain on the island there would be the same vigilance.

WAGES TO BE INCREASED.

In Consequence the Prices of Stoves Will Be Advanced.

CHICAGO, March 17.—Representatives of the Stove Founders' National Defense association and delegates from the Iron Molders' Union of North America held a conference here, and voted a raise of 10 per cent in wages, which directly benefits 15,000 stove molders and increases the salary rolls of the big stove firms $43,000 per week.

A further increase of 10 per cent in the prices of stoves will follow the paying of higher wages, which takes effect on April 1.

Weather Forecast For Today.

Western Pennsylvania, Ohio and West Virginia—Fair; fresh north to east winds.

AGREED TO THE SCALE.

Ohio Operators Accepted Pittsburgh Agreement.

THEY SIGNED UNDER PROTEST.

Threatened Strike Was Thus Averted.

Operators Intimated They Might Participate in the Next Interstate National Mining Convention.

COLUMBUS, March 17.—The Ohio operators signed the Pittsburgh agreement under protest and the threatened strike has been averted. An all-day conference was held, at which the miners were represented by National President Mitchell, National Secretary Pearce and State President Harkins. The operators were represented by J. S. Morton, Thomas Johnson, C. L. Poston, S. A. McManigal, T. W. Gathrie and F. S. Brooks.

The miners held out firmly for the Pittsburgh agreement, and the operators were unable to gain the slightest concession. The prices fixed for the next year in Ohio are 65 cents per ton for screened coal and 47 1/2 cents for run of mine. The fact that all local differences are, under the agreement, to be referred to the districts for settlement does not avert the possibility of local strikes, which are threatened in some sections of the state.

The Ohio operators intimated at the close of the conference that they would probably participate in the next interstate convention at Indianapolis.

MIGHT MAKE DISCLOSURES.

Secretary Squire's Reason For Not Producing Standard's Books.

COLUMBUS, March 17.—An answer was filed in the supreme court in the contempt case against F. B. Squire, secretary of the Standard Oil company. He declined to produce the books of the company, and the contempt proceedings are in that connection.

"TO ALL PEOPLE!"

Read the article on our fifth page carefully. Be careful, Republicans, how you vote at the primaries of Saturday, March 18. Councilmen who voted for the "Dollar" clause of the gas company are the enemies of the people—the workingmen and the working women.

In his answer he says that it is an unreasonable search and seizure to demand the books; that they may disclose facts which may be used against the Standard Oil company and because they disclose facts which may render him personally liable.

The whole answer is based on his constitutional rights.

HARRISBURG, March 17.—A resolution was offered in the house by Mr. McWhinney, Allegheny, and adopted, that Governor Stone be requested to name Monday, May 1, 1899, as Dewey day and designate the same as a legal holiday.

The preamble to the resolution recites that the victory of Admiral Dewey and his brave marines in the harbor of Manila on May 1 last was one of the greatest achievements in naval warfare the world has ever known and that it is proper that the great state of Pennsylvania should in a fitting manner commemorate the battle of Manila on the first anniversary of that glorious day by showing the appreciation of her people for the hero of that engagement and his brave men.

The house resolution making May 1 a legal holiday to be known as Dewey day was concurred in by the senate.

EIGHT COFFINS EXPOSED.

The Face of the Cliff at the Old Cemetery is Again Slipping Away.

The recent slips at the west end of the old cemetery have exposed eight coffins. The slips during the next few weeks will probably be numerous, and before long double the number of boxes will be out.

This morning a reporter went to the scene, and upon careful investigation saw parts of seven coffins exposed, some to the extent of two feet. One box, a small one, is lying on the side of the hill and several small bones were seen on the slip a few feet below. The other coffins are rotting and small pieces of wood were seen falling from them.

At the foot of the hill an old man is sifting sand, and within a few days a lot of ground will fall, and not less than ten bodies will be exposed. They are said to be the remains of drowned men who were caught floating in the river at this place years ago and buried in the old cemetery.

GERMAN OBSTREPEROUS.

Consul Was Encouraging Some Samoans in Their Opposition to American and English Desires.

APIA, Samoa, March 10.—(via Auckland, N. Z.)—March 17.—The British and American consuls issued proclamations denying the rumors in circulation to the effect that Mataafa had been recognized and threatening strong action if the provisional government interfered with the loyalists.

The German consul refused to join with the British and American representatives and issued a proclamation upholding the provisional government, and denying that there had been any interference by the Mataafa party. He added to this document an extraordinary paragraph expressing the hope that the provisional government "would be able to encounter the danger caused anew to the peace of the country and the safety of the inhabitants by the English and American proclamation."

This has put more heart into the rebels, and, therefore, numbers of armed warriors are gathering.

The United States cruiser Philadelphia, Admiral Kautz commanding, has arrived here, and the admiral has had extended consultations with the various consuls, Chief Justice Chambers and Captain Sturdee of the Porpoise.

The greater portion of his address was an argument against imperialism.

When the constable arrived in Akron he went at once to the jail and secured Farrish, who was willing to return. They missed a train which caused the delay in reaching here. Miss Beatty, who was in Akron, came home with Constable Miller and his prisoner. A large crowd gathered at the 8 o'clock train in order to get a glimpse of the party, but they were disappointed, as they got off at Wellsville and took a street car to the office of Squire Rose.

FORTIFIED VILLAGE TAKEN.

Philippines Had an Advantage and Poured in a Heavy Fire—Two of Our Men Killed and Some Wounded—Man Killed Near Caloocan.

MANILA, March 17.—The strongly fortified village of Cunitai, northwest of Pasig, was captured Thursday after a desperate fight by the Twentieth infantry.

The Americans lost 17 wounded, while the rebels' loss was heavy.

The insurgents at the outposts and in the trenches beyond Caloocan fired several volleys Wednesday night upon the Kansas volunteers and a part of the Fourth regulars, desiring, it is supposed, to discover if the American line had been thinned by the movement of General Wheaton's command. The Americans in the trenches replied warmly to the fire.

H. Y. Beecher of Company A of the Montana regiment was killed in the engagement.

A battalion of the Twentieth regular infantry routed a small band of Filipinos on the Laguna road and some sharpshooters who were firing from a house over which a French flag was flying were dislodged.

A gunboat entered the lake and silenced a small battery in the foothills.

The First battalion of the Twentieth infantry regiment advanced from Pasig Thursday, clearing the country to Cainta, a well defended village of 700 inhabitants five miles northwest of the foothills.

The troops first encountered the rebel outposts in the dense jungle on the banks of the river. The enemy was dislodged after about a half an hour's fighting. The Americans advanced in splendid order under a heavy fire until it was necessary to volley the rebels from the trenches. The latter had a great advantage and dropped a number of our men. The Americans charged across the rice fields, making four charges on the enemy, who numbered 1,000 men, 500 of whom were entrenched, and in the face of a crossfire. Our troops, however, carried the town after four hours' fighting and burned the outskirts. The rebels firing from the windows and keeping up a running fire in the streets. The Americans then withdrew in order to obtain more ammunition. The rebels lost about 100 men.

The following Americans were killed: Corporal Johnson of Co. C. Private McAvoy of Co. L. In addition the following Americans were wounded: Sergeant Check, Co. L. Corporal Households, Co. M. Private Kelly, Co. C. Private Kinney, Co. C. Private Tinkler, Co. C. Private Varley, Co. G. Private Gilley, Co. G. Private Galey, Co. F. Private Mahan, Co. L. Private Griffiths, Co. L. EDITOR MEDILL DEAD.

Once Practiced Law and Ran Newspapers in Ohio—Founded Cleveland Leader—Brought Out Lincoln.

SAN ANTONIO, March 17.—Joseph Medill, editor of the Chicago Tribune, died here of heart failure. He was conscious up to the moment of his death, which he met with calm placidity. He said to his physician, ten minutes before he died: "My last words shall be 'what is the news?'" He was born April 6, 1823.

In 1855 he opened a law office in New Philadelphia, O., having as a partner George W. McIlvane, who afterward became chief justice of the Ohio supreme court. In 1849 he gave up his practice and established the Coshocton Republican, which he conducted for three years as a Free Soil Whig paper. In 1852 he moved to Cleveland, where he founded The Daily Forest City. Later, he merged his paper with The True Democrat and thus became the founder of the Cleveland Leader of today.

In 1854 Mr. Medill sold the Cleveland Leader and went to Chicago with his associate, J. C. Vaughn. With Dr. C. H. Fay of Galena they bought the Chicago Tribune. Through the personal and editorial influence of Mr. Medill the name of Abraham Lincoln was brought before the people as a presidential possibility in the dark days foreshadowing the Civil war.

MGR. STEPHAN HIGHLY HONORED.

The Pope Recognizes His Great Work Among the Indians.

WASHINGTON, March 17.—By papal brief received by the apostolic delegate, Mgr. Joseph Stephan has been raised to the dignity of protonotary apostolic. This is the highest honor which is ever conferred on Catholic clergymen outside the city of Rome.

He becomes fully a prelate with all prelatical privilege. This distinguished honor has been conferred by the pope on Mgr. Stephan in recognition of his zealous services in promoting Catholic interests among the Indians of the United States. Mgr. Stephan has for many years been the head of the Catholic Indian bureau in this city, and is himself a practical Indian missionary, having labored among the Indian tribes for a long period. He was a chaplain in the civil war.

REGULARS WILL BE CARED FOR.

Volunteers Will Be Out of Cuba Likely Before Dangerous Season.

WASHINGTON, March 17.—Replying to an inquiry whether there was any apprehension for the health of the troops in Cuba on account of a possible outbreak of yellow fever, Surgeon General Sternberg said that the yellow fever season was some distance off. Most, if not all, of the volunteers would be brought from the island.

The utmost care had been taken of the troops and sanitation of the camps. For the regulars who would remain on the island there would be the same vigilance.

WAGES TO BE INCREASED.

In Consequence the Prices of Stoves Will Be Advanced.

CHICAGO, March 17.—Representatives of the Stove Founders' National Defense association and delegates from the Iron Molders' Union of North America held a conference here, and voted a raise of 10 per cent in wages, which directly benefits 15,000 stove molders and increases the salary rolls of the big stove firms $43,000 per week.

A further increase of 10 per cent in the prices of stoves will follow the paying of higher wages, which takes effect on April 1.

Weather Forecast for Today.

Western Pennsylvania, Ohio and West Virginia—Fair; fresh north to east winds.

AGREED TO THE SCALE

Ohio Operators Accepted Pittsburgh Agreement.

THEY SIGNED UNDER PROTEST.

Threatened Strike Was Thus Averted. Operators Intimated They Might Participate in the Next Interstate National Mining Convention.

COLUMBUS, March 17.—The Ohio operators signed the Pittsburgh agreement under protest and the threatened strike has been averted. An all-day conference was held, at which the miners were represented by National President Mitchell, National Secretary Pearce and State President Harkins. The operators were represented by J. S. Morton, Thomas Johnson, C. L. Poston, S. A. McMinn, T. W. Guthrie and F. S. Brooks.

The miners held out firmly for the Pittsburgh agreement, and the operators were unable to gain the slightest concession.

The prices fixed for the next year in Ohio are 66 cents per ton for screened coal and 47 1/4 cents for run of mine. The fact that all local differences are, under the agreement, to be referred to the districts for settlement does not avert the possibility of local strikes, which are threatened in some sections of the state.

The Ohio operators intimated at the close of the conference that they would probably participate in the next interstate convention at Indianapolis.

MIGHT MAKE DISCLOSURES.

Secretary Squire's Reason For Not Producing Standard's Books.

COLUMBUS, March 17.—An answer was filed in the supreme court in the contempt case against F. B. Squire, secretary of the Standard Oil company. He declined to produce the books of the company, and the contempt proceedings are in that connection.

"TO ALL PEOPLE!"

Read the article on our fifth page carefully. Be careful, Republicans, how you vote at the primaries of Saturday, March 18. Councilmen who voted for the "Dollar" clause of the gas company are the enemies of the people—the working-men and the working women.

In his answer he says that it is an unreasonable search and seizure to demand the books; that they may disclose facts which may be used against the Standard Oil company and because they disclose facts which may render him personally liable.

A DEWEY HOLIDAY.

The Pennsylvania Legislature Passed a Law For the Legal Observance of May 1.

HARRISBURG, March 17.—A resolution was offered in the house by Mr. McWhinney, Allegheny, and adopted, that Governor Stone be requested to name Monday, May 1, 1899, as Dewey day and designate the same as a legal holiday.

The preamble to the resolution recites that the victory of Admiral Dewey and his brave marines in the harbor of Manila on May 1 last was one of the greatest achievements in naval warfare the world has ever known and that it is proper that the great state of Pennsylvania should in a fitting manner commemorate the battle of Manila on the first anniversary of that glorious day by showing the appreciation of her people for the hero of that engagement and his brave men.

The house resolution making May 1 a legal holiday to be known as Dewey day was concurred in by the senate.

EIGHT COFFINS EXPOSED.

The Face of the Cliff at the Old Cemetery is Again Slipping Away.

The recent slips at the west end of the old cemetery have exposed eight coffins. The slips during the next few weeks will probably be numerous, and before long double the number of boxes will be out.

This morning a reporter went to the scene, and upon careful investigation saw parts of seven coffins exposed, some to the extent of two feet. One box, a small one, is lying on the side of the hill and several small bones were seen on the slip a few feet below. The other coffins are rotting and small pieces of wood were seen falling from them.

At the foot of the hill an old man is sifting sand, and within a few days a lot of ground will fall, and not less than ten bodies will be exposed. They are said to be the remains of drowned men who were caught floating in the river at this place years ago and buried in the old cemetery.

GERMAN OBSTREPEROUS.

Consul Was Encouraging Some Samoans in Their Opposition to American and English Desires.

APIA, Samoa, March 10.—(via Auckland, N. Z.)—March 17.—The British and American consuls issued proclamations denying the rumors in circulation to the effect that Mataafa had been recognized and threatening strong action if the provisional government interfered with the loyalists.

The German consul refused to join with the British and American representatives and issued a proclamation upholding the provisional government, and denying that there had been any interference by the Mataafa party. He added to this document an extraordinary paragraph expressing the hope that the provisional government "would be able to encounter the danger caused anew to the peace of the country and the safety of the inhabitants by the English and American proclamation."

This has put more heart into the rebels, and, therefore, numbers of armed warriors are gathering.

The United States cruiser Philadelphia, Admiral Kautz commanding, has arrived here, and the admiral has had extended consultations with the various consuls, Chief Justice Chambers and Captain Sturdee of the Porpoise.

A COMPLIMENT TO BRYAN.

Stevenson Introduced Him as the Foremost Statesman of His Time.

BLOOMINGTON, Ills., March 17.—William J. Bryan addressed a large audience at the Coliseum. He had been invited to take part in the St. Patrick's day exercises under the auspices of the Ancient Order of Hibernians, but could not be here today, so the celebration was held last night. Bryan was introduced by ex-Vice President Stevenson as "the foremost statesman of the time."

"You've heard of him before, you will hear of him again," said Mr. Stevenson. This expression was received with great applause, which was redoubled as Mr. Bryan arose.

The greater portion of his address was an argument against imperialism.

Constable Miller arrived last evening from Akron bringing with him James Farrish, who was wanted in the city on a charge preferred by Miss Eliza Beatty.

When the constable arrived in Akron he went at once to the jail and secured Farrish, who was willing to return. They missed a train which caused the delay in reaching here. Miss Beatty, who was in Akron, came home with Constable Miller and his prisoner. SPATZ MEANT NO HARM.

Innocently Offered Patronage Instead of Cash—Legislative Bribery Investigation, at Harrisburg.

HARRISBURG, March 16.—The legislative bribery committee met in the house chamber last night to hear testimony on the charges of alleged bribery in connection with the consideration in the house of the McCarrell jury bill, which bill the anti-Quay members declared was introduced to aid Senator Quay in his trial at Philadelphia on the charges of conspiracy.

Representative Sylvester S. Smith of Cameron was the first witness called. He said he had been spoken to by a certain person, who told him there was "2 1/2" in it if he voted for the McCarrell bill. (It was understood at a previous meeting of the committee that "2 1/2" meant $250.)

Mr. Smith asked to be excused for the present from stating in public the name of the person who approached him. This request was granted him, after he had given the name privately to the committee.

Representative Charles B. Spatz, Democrat, of Berks county, whom members of the house last week testified had invited them to a hotel room to talk over the McCarrell bill, took the stand and made an explanatory statement. He said that he learned that a petition was being circulated for a fusion between the Democrats and Independent Republicans on the senatorship and he prepared a petition of his own, pledging the Democrats to stand by their caucus nominee. He thought that he saw an inclination on the part of Representatives Miller and Johnston of Northampton and he invited them to go with him to Martin Lawler's room, where there was pen and ink. On the way there Mr. Spatz may have said there was something in it for them, but he did not mean money. He thought a Democrat would be elected senator and if such was the case, the signers of the paper would be the "chosen few," and they would be favored with patronage. At no time did he offer anyone any money to sign the paper, because he had no reason to offer any. He never offered any money to anyone for any legislation or for the senatorship.

He specifically denied having offered money to Representatives Heil or Miller to sign the paper.

THOMASVILLE, Ga., March 16.—Senator Hanna took his guests on a carriage drive about five miles from town, to the country home of Wynman Jones, the senator's brother-in-law. The weather was mild, a good breeze was stirring

MR. HANNA'S HOUSE IN THOMASVILLE. through the pines and the gathering clouds, which in the afternoon resulted in a shower of rain, shielded the party from the sun.

The president enjoyed the drive, and his brightness on his return showed it had done him good. The party was home for lunch and soon afterward the president went to bed for the afternoon. After dinner, Senator Hanna and his guests chatted a while and the president retired early.

The Best Way to Sample Whisky.

One of the best judges of whisky in Chicago is a man who never drinks it. He is Captain Joseph E. G. Ryan, formerly of the Seventh.

Captain Ryan is a whisky expert. He can tell almost to a day the age of any sample submitted to him. "I give him a few drops of whisky, and he can tell you the brand, the distiller, where it was made, when, and detect adulteration if there is any. Blend two or three kinds of whisky, and he can tell the blend."

And he never tastes it, being strictly temperate in all his habits.

It is all told by the smell. Captain Ryan's nose is a very sensitive organ, and he has trained it with the utmost care.

"Smelling is by far the most satisfactory method of testing," he says. "If a man has a great deal to sample, and tastes each kind, he soon gets so that he cannot distinguish one from the other. The sense of taste becomes blunted, and he loses all the fine distinctions. "On the other hand, the more a man uses his nose, the more acute the sense of smell becomes, and he is able to detect the slightest difference between samples."—Chicago Journal.

A Boy's Notion of Perjury.

Milton Lawson of San Antonio was recently convicted of murder in the first degree and his punishment assessed at confinement in the penitentiary for a term of 50 years. In the trial of the case Orange Lake, a 14-year-old boy brother of the man appellant killed was put on the witness stand. On being asked if he understood the nature of an oath he made the startling reply that if he told one lie he would go to the legislature and if he told two lies he would be sent to congress. The upper court declared Lake an incompetent witness.—Dallas News.

A Long Task.

If one island a day were to follow the example of Negroes and accept American rule, 3 years and 13 weeks would be required merely to accept the proffers of friendship of the remaining 1,198 Philippines. With many of them hostile, a much longer time, apparently, will be required to place the starry emblem above their shores.—New York Press.

Kipling Much Improved.

NEW YORK, March 16.—Mr. Kipling was able to sit up in bed last night and partake of a course dinner. He ate heartily of several dishes of a more substantial nature than any yet given to him. Statesmen to Take a Jaunt.

The Truce of the Czar.

The czar, when he had read the trip made by our Oregon. He wanted ships built like it, too, and said: "Please put me on! A ship that travels round the world and never gets aged. Some thirteen thousand miles of run, it's good enough for me."

And so he sent an envoy here to see how it was made. This ship called Oregon, that puts all others in the shade.

Of mighty depth and noble shape and wondrous iron knit frame! The envoy looked it over well—"The czar must have the same!"

The czar he straightway sent for him who built the floating fort. And asked him for his price list, too, and fed him cakes and port.

His eye imperial ran o'er the little figured card. And he stared and stared and stared and stared and stared at it quite hard.

He slept on it, he ate on it, and with a tremulous sigh. He gave it back unto the man whose fame stood up so high.

"Alas, your price is too much!" All tall at once did cease. But next day all the wide world heard the "universal peace!"

Switch For the New Pottery Is In Sight.

LINE WAS SURVEYED YESTERDAY

New Company For Investment Purposes—Missionary Lecture—More Building—Secured a Contract—Brick Plant In Operation.

Yesterday afternoon surveyors of the Cleveland and Pittsburg railway company, with several officials and representatives of the Laughlin China company, staked out the switch to be laid after the new pottery is contracted. The switch will be laid out north from the main line, and just east of the lane dividing the Knowles, Taylor & Anderson property and that of the pottery company. When approached none of the gentlemen would talk, but from other sources it was learned work on the construction would begin early next week, and would be completed within three days after the commencement. Work on the pottery will be commenced soon, as stated in this paper last week.

A Stock Company.

A stock company is being formed in the East End for manufacturing purposes, but those who know of the matter and those who own stock in the new concern refuse, when questioned, to talk. It was first reported the company was after a bonus of $10,000 but one stockholder ventured to say this morning there was absolutely no truth in the statement as far as the bonus was concerned. It has been learned from good authority a meeting of the present stockholders will be held next week and officers selected.

The capital stock is to be $10,000, and most of it has been subscribed. The new company will erect a factory, for which land has already been donated, and enter the manufacturing field.

A New Mission.

Some time during the summer, the officials of St. Stephen's Episcopal church will commence the erection of a chapel in this part of the city. Rev. Edwin Weary, when asked about the matter, said that the mission was growing rapidly, and within a short time a new building would be needed, and it would be erected by the church officials. So far no ground has been selected but the matter has been reported favorably by the church members, and within a short time definite action will be taken.

Some of the Sick.

A small child of Alfred Marsh, of Elm street, is seriously ill. Last night it suffered several spasms, and its condition is thought to be critical.

The condition of Frederick Dotts continues encouraging, and, it is thought, his recovery is but a matter of a few weeks.

The child of Mr. and Mrs. Andrews, who has been ill for several weeks, is recovering rapidly, and will be out within a few weeks.

More Building.

Doctor Toot has commenced the erection of a residence near the Sebring pottery. Work was commenced Wednesday, and it is thought it will be completed in May.

Ground was broken this morning for the erection of a five room frame dwelling in St. George street by William Oulbertson. Work on another house on the lot adjoining this will be started next week.

Gathering Ice.

Considerable ice is being hauled through this section and taken to the city where it is being stored. Each wagon is pulled by four horses, and as the roads are quite bad the teamsters are having troubles of their own. The ice is secured from a storage house near Smith's Ferry.

Salem Pottery Pay.

The Salem News says: "The frames were set today in the third story of the clay and slip rooms of the white ware pottery. The new plant when completed will employ about 200 hands, and have a pay roll of about $3,000 or $4,000 every two weeks."

Another Report.

It is said the Knowles, Taylor & Anderson plant will resume operations next Monday. At the office of the company nothing will be said, although the works is now being put in order.

Secured a Contract.

John Bell yesterday received the con-

SPECIAL FEATURES

OF

LEWIS BROS.' SLEEPING COACH.

1---The Adjustable or Swinging Back.

Which can be instantly adjusted to any angle desired for reclining or sleeping, and forms, in connection with the seat or cushion, a complete bed, on which the baby can sleep as comfortably as in a cradle, and without the use of a pillow.

2---As a Sleeping Coach.

The "Excelsior" is unrivaled, and no Child's Carriage can be perfectly adapted to the various purposes it should serve, which cannot be readily converted into a "Sleeper." How often do we see children trundled along with heads nodding and pitching from one side to the other of the carriage, or sleeping in a most uncomfortable position? The "Excelsior" obviates all this. Whenever the child is inclined to sleep, the back can be let down in a moment, and the child at once placed in an easy position.

3---As an Invalid Carriage.

For sick or invalid children, nothing can be more complete than the "Excelsior Sleeping Coach."

4---As a Substitute for a Crib or Cradle.

For use in the house, the "Excelsior" will be found very satisfactory, and render the expense of such an article of furniture wholly unnecessary. The easy verticle motion which is given to the body of the carriage, mounted on our patent Star Gear, by a touch of the hand, will quiet the baby and put it to sleep.

5---The Adjustable Parasol or Canopy Holder.

By the use of which the child can be readily and perfectly protected from the sun or wind, in whatever position it may be. The holder has joints, so that the parasol may be carried upward or downward, or to either side, as may be required to suit any position desired.

CLEANING THE TOWN.

Work is Already Started, and Progress is Being Made.

The work of cleaning the streets and alleys of the city is already started, and progress is being made. The accumulated garbage of the winter is being hauled to the river bank, and in such quantities as to show that many persons are renovating their back yards. There are always a number of persons who must be stirred up by the authorities before they obey the order.

There is no truth in the story that J. H. Smith, of East End, does not reside in the city limits. Mr. Smith is a candidate for the board of education.

New Horse Feed.
The German government is making an experiment in the feeding of artillery horses by dieting them on a patent food. This is composed of fresh blood from the slaughter houses, mixed with sugar refuse and the screenings of barley, wheat and the like. It is claimed that the albumen in the blood, aided by the other two ingredients, makes the new forage very strengthening. As the new production is comparatively cheap, the cost of maintenance will be sensibly decreased.

SPATZ MEANT NO HARM.

Innocently Offered Patronage Instead of Cash—Legislative Bribery Investigation, at Harrisburg.

HARRISBURG, March 16.—The legislative bribery committee met in the house chamber last night to hear testimony on the charges of alleged bribery in connection with the consideration in the house of the McCarrell jury bill, which bill the anti-Quay members declared was introduced to aid Senator Quay in his trial at Philadelphia on the charges of conspiracy.

Representative Sylvester S. Smith of Cameron was the first witness called. He said he had been spoken to by a certain person, who told him there was "2½" in it if he voted for the McCarrell bill. (It was understood at a previous meeting of the committee that "2½" meant $250.)

Mr. Smith asked to be excused for the present from stating in public the name of the person who approached him. This request was granted him, after he had given the name privately to the committee.

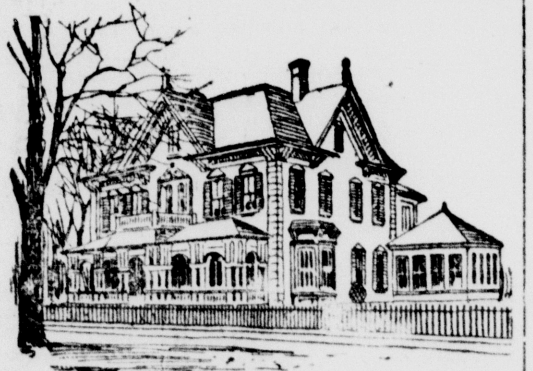

Representative Charles B. Spatz, Democrat, of Berks county, whom members of the house last week testified had invited them to a hotel room to talk over the McCarrell bill, took the stand and made an explanatory statement. He said that he learned that a petition was being circulated for a fusion between the Democrats and Independent Republicans on the senatorship and he prepared a petition of his own, pledging the Democrats to stand by their caucus nominee. He thought that he saw an inclination on the part of Representatives Miller and Johnston of Northampton and he invited them to go with him to Martin Lawler's room, where there was pen and ink. On the way there Mr. Spatz may have said there was something in it for them, but he did not mean money. He thought a Democrat would be elected senator and if such was the case, the signers of the paper would be the "chosen few," and they would be favored with patronage. At no time did he offer anyone any money to sign the paper, because he had no reason to offer any. He never offered any money to anyone for any legislation or for the senatorship.

He specifically denied having offered money to Representatives Heil or Miller to sign the paper.

PRESIDENT TOOK A DRIVE.

MR. HANNA'S HOUSE IN THOMASVILLE, through the pines and the gathering clouds, which in the afternoon resulted in a shower of rain, shielded the party from the sun.

The president enjoyed the drive, and his brightness on his return showed it had done him good. The party was home for lunch and soon afterward the president went to bed for the afternoon. After dinner, Senator Hanna and his guests chatted a while and the president retired early.

The Best Way to Sample Whisky.

One of the best judges of whisky in Chicago is a man who never drinks it. He is Captain Joseph E. G. Ryan, formerly of the Seventh.

Captain Ryan is a whisky expert. He can tell almost to a day the age of any sample submitted to him. Give him a few drops of whisky, and he can tell you the brand, the distiller, where it was made, when, and detect adulteration if there is any. Blend two or three kinds of whisky, and he can tell the blend.

And he never tastes it, being strictly temperate in all his habits.

It is all told by the smell. Captain Ryan's nose is a very sensitive organ, and he has trained it with the utmost care.

"Smelling is by far the most satisfactory method of testing," he says. "If a man has a great deal to sample, and tastes each kind, he soon gets so that he cannot distinguish one from the other. The sense of taste becomes blunted, and he loses all the fine distinctions."

"On the other hand, the more a man uses his nose, the more acute the sense of smell becomes, and he is able to detect the slightest difference between samples."—Chicago Journal.

A Boy's Notion of Perjury.

Milton Lawson of San Antonio was recently convicted of murder in the first degree and his punishment assessed at confinement in the penitentiary for a term of 50 years. In the trial of the case Orange Lake, a 14-year-old boy brother of the man appellant killed was put on the witness stand. On being asked if he understood the nature of an oath he made the startling reply that if he told one lie he would go to the legislature and if he told two lies he would be sent to congress. The upper court declared Lake an incompetent witness.—Dallas News.

A Long Task.

If one island a day were to follow the example of Negroes and accept American rule, 3 years and 13 weeks would be required merely to accept the proffers of friendship of the remaining 1,198 Philippines. With many of them hostile, a much longer time, apparently, will be required to place the starry emblem above their shores.—New York Press.

Kipling Much Improved.

NEW YORK, March 16.—Mr. Kipling was able to sit up in bed last night and partake of a course dinner. He ate heartily of several dishes of a more substantial nature than any yet given to him. The improvement continues from hour to hour, and Dr. Dunham thinks his patient will be able to leave his bed before Sunday.

Statesmen to Take a Jaunt.

WASHINGTON, March 16.—About 60 senators and representatives have accepted invitations for a trip that has been planned to inspect the routes of the proposed Nicaragua and Panama canals, coming home by way of Santiago and other points of interest in the West Indies. They will go as the guests of the Panama Canal company.

The Truce of the Czar.

The czar, when he had read the trip made by our Oregon. He wanted ships built like it, too, and said: "Please put me on!" A ship that travels round the world and never gets aged. Some thirteen thousand miles of run, it's good enough for me!

And so he sent an envoy here to see how it was made. This ship called Oregon, that puts all others in the shade. Of mighty depth and noble shape and wondrous iron knit frame! The envoy looked it over well—"The czar must have the same!"

The czar he straightway sent for him who built the floating fort. And asked him for his price list, too, and fed him cakes and port. His eye imperial ran o'er the little figured card. And he stared and stared and stared and stared at it quite hard.

He slept on it, he ate on it, and with a tremulous sigh. He gave it back unto the man whose fame stood up so high. "Alas, your price is too much!" All tall at once did cease. But next day all the wide world heard the "universal peace!"—Barold MacGrath in Syracuse Herald.

The work of cleaning the streets and alleys of the city is already started, and progress is being made. The accumulated garbage of the winter is being hauled to the river bank, and in such quantities as to show that many persons are renovating their back yards. There are always a number of persons who must be stirred up by the authorities before they obey the order.

There is no truth in the story that J. H. Smith, of East End, does not reside in the city limits. Mr. Smith is a candidate for the board of education.

Few Dollars Have Been Placed on the Primaries.

Although much interest is manifested in the outcome of the primaries tomorrow, particularly in regard to council, the men who usually put a few dollars on contests of that kind are not betting this year.

A dollar performance at popular prices is the announcement made by Miss Courtenay Morgan and her company who come to the Grand Opera House on Monday, March 20, and week. # LEWIS BROS.' SLEEPING COACH.

1---The Adjustable or Swinging Back,

Which can be instantly adjusted to any angle desired for reclining or sleeping, and forms, in connection with the seat or cushion, a complete bed, on which the baby can sleep as comfortably as in a cradle, and without the use of a pillow.

2---As a Sleeping Coach.

The "Excelsior" is unrivaled, and no Child's Carriage can be perfectly adapted to the various purposes it should serve, which cannot be readily converted into a "Sleeper." How often do we see children trundled along with heads nodding and pitching from one side to the other of the carriage, or sleeping in a most uncomfortable position? The "Excelsior" obviates all this. Whenever the child is inclined to sleep, the back can be let down in a moment, and the child at once placed in an easy position.

3---As an Invalid Carriage.

4---As a Substitute for a Crib or Cradle.

For use in the house, the "Excelsior" will be found very satisfactory, and render the expense of such an article of furniture wholly unnecessary. The easy verticle motion which is given to the body of the carriage, mounted on our patent Star Gear, by a touch of the hand, will quiet the baby and put it to sleep.

5---The Adjustable Parasol or Canopy Holder,

By the use of which the child can be readily and perfectly protected from the sun or wind, in whatever position it may be. The holder has joints, so that the parasol may be carried upward or downward, or to either side, as may be required to suit any position desired.

The German government is making an experiment in the feeding of artillery horses by dieting them on a patent food. This is composed of fresh blood from the slaughter houses, mixed with sugar refuse and the screenings of barley, wheat and the like. new forage very strengthening. As the new production is comparatively cheap, the cost of maintenance will be sensibly decreased.

AS UNLUCKY AS USUAL

Thirteen Democrats at Last Night's Caucus.

CANDIDATES FOR TWO OFFICES

Were Not Named, but the Remainder of the Ticket Was Filled--M. W. Elliott Announced That He Would Vote For a Republican, but He Was Nominated.

The Democrats last evening in city hall nominated a ticket.

Despite the fact that the unlucky number of 13 members were all that were at the meeting, the Democrats present had braved the storms of adversity on many occasions, and the unlucky combination did not strike terror to their hearts, and they proceeded with much difficulty to nominate a ticket.

Some time was spent in informal talks of how Bryan would carry the country in 1900, and some of the members thought they might elect a portion of the city ticket if certain Republicans were nominated.

After waiting in vain for James H. Tracy to put in an appearance, City Chairman R. J. Meakin called the 13 members to order and he was at once elected chairman of the meeting, and C. A. Leiter, secretary.

Chairman Meakin stated that the object of the convention was to elect a ticket to represent the Democrats at the coming municipal election, and the first office on the list was board of education. John Moore proceeded to state how it required a man of exceptional ability to fill the office and placed in nomination the name of R. J. Meakin, who at once declined the honor thrust upon him, but his protests fell by the wayside, and his name was put on the ticket. M. W. Elliott was the next man to be nominated, and he also did not care to have the chance of being defeated, but Chairman Meakin said kicks were of no avail in a Democratic meeting. Mr. Elliott then said that J. H. Smith was a candidate on the Republican ticket, and he would be compelled to vote for him even if he was placed on the Democratic ticket. He thought Mr. Smith would win with what votes he would get in East End, and was in favor of leaving the matter go over. Mr. Moore said there was no assurance Smith would win and Mr. Elliott was placed on the ticket. John Kerr, Jr., was not present at the session so he was selected without a dissenting voice.

For justice of the peace Martin McCune was decided upon as a splendid candidate, and he accepted the trust imposed upon him without a murmur.

Township treasurer came next and Mr. Moore stated that Mr. Herbert, the Republican candidate, had served but one term, and he moved the office be passed and it carried unanimously.

J. N. Willeson was nominated for constable very much against his will, and Mr. Moore said he was happy to place in nomination the name of George D. Culbertson for township trustee, a man who had been tried in the faith and never found wanting. Mr. Culbertson was very unwilling to serve but it was necessary that he become a martyr to the cause in order to fill out the ticket.

For the office of water works trustee the name of John Kerr was suggested, but it was finally decided to leave the office vacant as there were no reservoirs to build this year.

The convention then commenced to nominate councilman, and Harvey McHenry won the prize in the First ward, while J. M. McDole will attempt to run in the Second ward. G. S. Huston has a hard fight before him in the Third ward. None of the gentlemen were present and of course could not decline, but when an attempt was made to nominate F. L. Fisher, in the Fourth ward, Mr. Moore said he had been authorized to decline the office in behalf of Mr. Fisher and Isaac Jones was substituted.

The assessors came next, and much trouble was experienced in thinking of enough Democrats to fill the offices. J. P. Maley was chosen in the First ward, C. A. Leiter in the Second and Patrick McCullough in the Third. An attempt was made to nominate David O'Handlon in the Fourth ward, but it was discovered that he had moved to the country and the name of Edward O'Handlon was substituted.

This completed the ticket, and C. A. Leiter, George Culbertson, J. J. Weisend, R. J. Meakin and Colin McLane were selected to fill vacancies on the ticket.

Mr. Elliott said a meeting should be held after the Republican primaries were over, and the committee will assemble at city hall Saturday evening at 10 o'clock, and fix the ticket so that they think they can win at least some offices.

"One Who Is Interested" Speaks On His Mind.
(Communicated.)

EDITOR NEWS REVIEW: I have been interested to notice by some of the News REVIEW reports (which we must receive as correct because not contradicted) of the acts of our council. By these reports we see that this council is becoming notorious for their illegal way of doing business, that even the city solicitor has had to call them down in their meetings and threaten them with injunctions. That's a nice council! No wonder we have $1.00 gas business and such like! Why not give Mr. Peach a life job, instead of the fourth term for which he is now running? Why not give Mr. Challs a life job instead of the third term for which he is now running? We who are in favor of clean rule and LEGAL WAYS of doing business, will surely say at the polls, "There must be something in it for these men, and if we re-elect them this time, it is likely that every other member of this peculiar council will run for the third or fourth or fifth terms." Look out for the "third and fourth terms." We could not be worse than we are now if we try anywhere else with our eyes shut. Let us have a clean, businesslike council.

The Brunt Trial Will Begin March 28.

CORNELIUS CASE WAS POSTPONED

Which Caused the Other Matter to Be Set For One Week From Next Tuesday. Liverpool Cases Also Given Another Day.

LISBON, March 17.--[Special]--Another day has been set for the trial of Geo. F. Brunt, of East Liverpool. The trial will begin one week from next Tuesday, and will probably occupy two days.

The change was brought about by the postponement of the trial of William Cornelius, of Wellsville, who is charged with shooting with intent to kill. That was listed as the first of the week, and when it was set aside the others were advanced by Clerk McNutt.

This also makes a change in the remainder of the assignment. William Morrow and Samuel Conkle will be tried on Thursday as will William Franks and Arthur Stanway, all East Liverpool men.

ANSWERING CHALLIS.

Why Does He Want a Third Term If He Has No Axe to Grind?
(Communicated.)

EDITOR NEWS REVIEW--I am pleased to see the noble stand you have taken in favor of a clean council. I, and many others, are also very much pleased to see in your paper of last night the clear straight forward statement of Mr. Morris. That is business of the right kind. I happen to know who are back of Mr. Morris and can say that those little articles in another paper have entirely missed the mark. I know to an absolute certainty that the writer of the article of last Saturday in your paper about Mr. Challis and the $1 gas, never heard before that of the 10c and 20c business charged to him in another paper as he did not then live here. In that they have missed it again, and they will miss it at the polls too. We don't want a man in council who has to be forced to change his vote and who admits in that way that he was wrong at first, or is doing this for policy and for votes. The articles in another paper about the election of councilman from the First ward seem to have lots of gas about them. I think they will almost burn if you touch a lighted match to them. Mr. Challis has not answered the question of "A Voter." Why does he want a third term if he has no axe to grind. Let us remember when we go the polls that Mr. Challis is a third term man and a $1 gas man. Moral: Vote for Morris. ONE WHO CAN'T AFFORD TO PAY FOR $1 GAS.

FORTIFIED VILLAGE TAKEN.

Philippines Had an Advantage and Poured in a Heavy Fire—Two of Our Men Killed and Some Wounded—Man Killed Near Calocan.

MANILA, March 17.—The strongly fortified village of Cuitai, northwest of Pasig, was captured Thursday after a desperate fight by the Twentieth infantry.

The Americans lost 17 wounded, while the rebels' loss was heavy.

The insurgents at the outposts and in the trenches beyond Calocan fired several volleys Wednesday night upon the Kansas volunteers and a part of the Fourth regulars, desiring, it is supposed, to discover if the American line had been thinned by the movement of General Wheaton's command. The Americans in the trenches replied warmly to the fire.

H. Y. Beecher of Company A of the Montana regiment was killed in the engagement.

A battalion of the Twentieth regular infantry routed a small band of Filipinos on the Laguna road and some sharpshooters who were firing from a house over which a French flag was flying were dislodged.

A gunboat entered the lake and silenced a small battery in the foothills. The first battalion of the Twentieth infantry regiment advanced from Pasig Thursday, clearing the country to Cainta, a well defended village of 700 inhabitants five miles northwest of the foothills.

The troops first encountered the rebel outposts in the dense jungle on the banks of the river. The enemy was dislodged after about a half an hour's fighting. The Americans advanced in splendid order under a heavy fire until it was necessary to volley the rebels from the trenches. The latter had a great advantage and dropped a number of our men. The Americans charged across the rice fields, making four charges on the enemy, who numbered 1,000 men, 500 of whom were entrenched, and in the face of a crossfire. Our troops, however, carried the town after four hours' fighting and burned the outskirts. The rebels firing from the windows and keeping up a running fire in the streets. The Americans then withdrew in order to obtain more ammunition. The rebels lost about 100 men.

The following Americans were killed: Corporal Johnson of Co. C. Private McAvoy of Co. L. In addition the following Americans were wounded: Sergeant Cheek, Co. L. Corporal Households, Co. M. Private Kelly, Co. C. Private Kinney, Co. C. Private Tinkler, Co. C. Private Varley, Co. G. Private Gilley, Co. G. Private Gale, Co. F. Private Mahan, Co. L. Private Griffiths, Co. L. WASHINGTON, March 17.—The following from General Otis reached the war department:

"MANILA, March 16. "Reports from Iloilo indicate improvement; less activity on the part of insurgents of island; reports from Negros most encouraging; inhabitants enthusiastic; quiet prevails throughout island and Colonel Smith directing affairs in framing internal government. Cebu quiet; business progressing under United States protection; reports from Samar and Lyte indicate desire of inhabitants for United States troops; these islands occupied; insurgents' control confined to Luzon and the occupation of the Pasig river line with control of Laguna de Bay has cut the country equal parts. OTIS."

General Otis reported the following casualties:

"MANILA, March 16. Adjutant General, Washington: "Casualties March 13—Near Guadalupe—Wounded, Twelfth infantry, Co. M, Sergeant William Barkley, shoulder, slight; near San Pedro Macati, Sixth artillery, Battery B, Private Fred J. Kelly, shoulder, slight. ## EDITOR MEDILL DEAD.

Once Practiced Law and Ran Newspapers in Ohio—Founded Cleveland Leader—Brought Out Lincoln.

SAN ANTONIO, March 17.—Joseph Medill, editor of the Chicago Tribune, died here of heart failure. He was conscious up to the moment of his death, which he met with calm placidity. He said to his physician, ten minutes before he died: "My last words shall be 'what is the news?'" He was born April 6, 1823.

In 1855 he opened a law office in New Philadelphia, O., having as a partner George W. McIlvane, who afterward became chief justice of the Ohio supreme court. In 1849 he gave up his practice and established the Coshocton Republican, which he conducted for three years as a Free Soil Whig paper. In 1852 he moved to Cleveland, where he founded The Daily Forest City. Later, he merged his paper with The True Democrat and thus became the founder of the Cleveland Leader of today.

In 1854 Mr. Medill sold the Cleveland Leader and went to Chicago with his associate, J. C. Vaughn. With Dr. C. H. Fay of Galena they bought the Chicago Tribune. Through the personal and editorial influence of Mr. Medill the name of Abraham Lincoln was brought before the people as a presidential possibility in the dark days foreshadowing the Civil war.

MGR. STEPHAN HIGHLY HONORED.

The Pope Recognizes His Great Work Among the Indians.

WASHINGTON, March 17.—By papal brief received by the apostolic delegate, Mgr. Joseph Stephan has been raised to the dignity of protonotary apostolic. This is the highest honor which is ever conferred on Catholic clergymen outside the city of Rome.

He becomes fully a prelate with all prelatical privilege. This distinguished honor has been conferred by the pope on Mgr. Stephan in recognition of his zealous services in promoting Catholic interests among the Indians of the United States. Mgr. Stephan has for many years been the head of the Catholic Indian bureau in this city, and is himself a practical Indian missionary, having labored among the Indian tribes for a long period. He was a chaplain in the civil war.

REGULARS WILL BE CARED FOR.

Volunteers Will Be Out of Cuba Likely Before Dangerous Season.

WASHINGTON, March 17.—Replying to an inquiry whether there was any apprehension for the health of the troops in Cuba on account of a possible outbreak of yellow fever, Surgeon General Sternberg said that the yellow fever season was some distance off. Most, if not all, of the volunteers would be brought from the island.

The utmost care had been taken of the troops and sanitation of the camps. For the regulars who would remain on the island there would be the same vigilance.

WAGES TO BE INCREASED.

In Consequence the Prices of Stoves Will Be Advanced.

CHICAGO, March 17.—Representatives of the Stove Founders' National Defense association and delegates from the Iron Molders' Union of North America held a conference here and voted a raise of 10 per cent in wages, which directly benefits 15,000 stove molders and increases the salary rolls of the big stove firms $43,000 per week.

A further increase of 10 per cent in the prices of stoves will follow the paying of higher wages, which takes effect on April 1.

AGREED TO THE SCALE.

Ohio Operators Accepted Pittsburgh Agreement.

THEY SIGNED UNDER PROTEST.

Threatened Strike Was Thus Averted. Operators Intimated They Might Participate in the Next Interstate National Mining Convention.

COLUMBUS, March 17.—The Ohio operators signed the Pittsburgh agreement under protest and the threatened strike has been averted. An all-day conference was held, at which the miners were represented by National President Mitchell, National Secretary Pearce and State President Harkins. The operators were represented by J. S. Morton, Thomas Johnson, C. L. Poston, S. A. McMamgal, T. W. Guthrie and F. S. Brooks.

The miners held out firmly for the Pittsburgh agreement, and the operators were unable to gain the slightest concession.

The prices fixed for the next year in Ohio are 66 cents per ton for screened coal and 47 1/2 cents for run of mine. The fact that all local differences are, under the agreement, to be referred to the districts for settlement does not avert the possibility of local strikes, which are threatened in some sections of the state.

The Ohio operators intimated at the close of the conference that they would probably participate in the next interstate convention at Indianapolis.

MIGHT MAKE DISCLOSURES.

Secretary Squire's Reason For Not Producing Standard's Books.

COLUMBUS, March 17.—An answer was filed in the supreme court in the contempt case against F. B. Squire, secretary of the Standard Oil company. He declined to produce the books of the company, and the contempt proceedings are in that connection.

"TO ALL PEOPLE!"

Read the article on our fifth page carefully. Be careful, Republicans, how you vote at the primaries of Saturday, March 18. Councilmen who voted for the "Dollar" clause of the gas company are the enemies of the people—the workingmen and the working women.

In his answer he says that it is an unreasonable search and seizure to demand the books; that they may disclose facts which may be used against the Standard Oil company and because they disclose facts which may render him personally liable.

The whole answer is based on his constitutional rights.

A DEWEY HOLIDAY.

The Pennsylvania Legislature Passed a Law For the Legal Observance of May 1.

HARRISBURG, March 17.—A resolution was offered in the house by Mr. McWhinney, Allegheny, and adopted, that Governor Stone be requested to name Monday, May 1, 1899, as Dewey day and designate the same as a legal holiday.

The preamble to the resolution recites that the victory of Admiral Dewey and his brave marines in the harbor of Manila on May 1 last was one of the greatest achievements in naval warfare the world has ever known and that it is proper that the great state of Pennsylvania should in a fitting manner commemorate the battle of Manila on the first anniversary of that glorious day by showing the appreciation of her people for the hero of that engagement and his brave men.

The house resolution making May 1 a legal holiday to be known as Dewey day was concurred in by the senate.

Balloted For U. S. Senator.

HARRISBURG, March 17.—The fiftieth joint ballot for United States senator taken was as follows: Quay, 86; Jenks, 71; Dalzell, 14; Stewart, 7; Stone, 4; Widener, 3; Rice, 2; Grow, 1; Ritter, 1; Tubbs, 2; Smith, 4; Markle, 1; Irvin, 3; Huff, 4. Total, 203; necessary to a choice, 102; paired not voting, 48; absent and not voting, Haddon, Dem., W. D. Wilson, anti-Quay Rep.

Cuba Must Pay For Supplies.

HAVANA, March 17.—An order was issued by the United States military authorities to the effect that all rations distributed to the Cuban poor, after the supply now on hand is exhausted, shall be charged against the customs receipts of the province in which they are distributed.

EIGHT COFFINS EXPOSED.

The Face of the Cliff at the Old Cemetery is Again Slipping Away.

The recent slips at the west end of the old cemetery have exposed eight coffins. The slips during the next few weeks will probably be numerous, and before long double the number of boxes will be out.

This morning a reporter went to the scene, and upon careful investigation saw parts of seven coffins exposed, some to the extent of two feet. One box, a small one, is lying on the side of the hill and several small bones were seen on the slip a few feet below. The other coffins are rotting and small pieces of wood were seen falling from them.

At the foot of the hill an old man is sifting sand, and within a few days a lot of ground will fall, and not less than ten bodies will be exposed. They are said to be the remains of drowned men who were caught floating in the river at this place years ago and buried in the old cemetery.

GERMAN OBSTREPEROUS.

Consul Was Encouraging Some Samoans in Their Opposition to American and English Desires.

APIA, Samoa, March 10.—(via Auckland, N. Z.)—March 17.—The British and American consuls issued proclamations denying the rumors in circulation to the effect that Mataafa had been recognized and threatening strong action if the provisional government interfered with the loyalists.

The German consul refused to join with the British and American representatives and issued a proclamation upholding the provisional government, and denying that there had been any interference by the Mataafa party. He added to this document an extraordinary paragraph expressing the hope that the provisional government "would be able to encounter the danger caused anew to the peace of the country and the safety of the inhabitants by the English and American proclamation."

This has put more heart into the rebels, and, therefore, numbers of armed warriors are gathering.

The United States cruiser Philadelphia, Admiral Kautz commanding, has arrived here, and the admiral has had extended consultations with the various consuls, Chief Justice Chambers and Captain Sturdee of the Porpoise.

A COMPLIMENT TO BRYAN.

Stevenson Introduced Him as the Foremost Statesman of His Time.

BLOOMINGTON, Ill., March 17.—William J. Bryan addressed a large audience at the Coliseum. He had been invited to take part in the St. Patrick's day exercises under the auspices of the Ancient Order of Hibernians, but could not be here today, so the celebration was held last night. Bryan was introduced by ex-Vice President Stevenson as "the foremost statesman of the time."

"You've heard of him before, you will hear of him again," said Mr. Stevenson. This expression was received with great applause, which was redoubled as Mr. Bryan arose.

The greater portion of his address was an argument against imperialism.

THEY WERE MARRIED.

Squire Rose Performed the Ceremony Last Night.

Constable Miller arrived last evening from Akron bringing with him James Farrish, who was wanted in the city on a charge preferred by Miss Eliza Beatty.

When the constable arrived in Akron he went at once to the jail and secured Farrish, who was willing to return. They missed a train which caused the delay in reaching here. Miss Beatty, who was in Akron, came home with Constable Miller and his prisoner. A large crowd gathered at the 8 o'clock train in order to get a glimpse of the party, but they were disappointed, as they got off at Wellsville and took a street car to the office of Squire Rose.

Squire Rose at once telephoned to Lisbon and secured a license, and the couple were married in the presence of her mother and a brother of the groom.

Carried Supplies For Cubans.

WASHINGTON, March 17.—The Comal sailed from Neuvas for New York. She had been discharging a cargo of supplies for destitute Cubans. She will again be loaded with commissary stores at New York and return to Cuba, going to such points as the military authorities of the island may direct.

To Discharge Some Regulars.

WASHINGTON, March 17.—General Brooke has been cabled to proceed to the execution of the order providing for the discharge of all soldiers who enlisted in the regular army at the outbreak of hostilities upon the cessation of the war, should they apply for such discharge.

The police were on hand and took him home in safety, and this afternoon a case is being argued before Mayor Dennis to which Johnston gave a bond to keep the peace.

COLD WATER CLANS

Assembled Last Night and Nominated a Ticket.

The Prohibitionists met last evening at the court room of the mayor's office and nominated a full ticket.

There was not a large attendance at the meeting when Chairman Faulk called it to order. The coming election was thoroughly discussed, and a committee composed of Mayor Bough, John Horton and J. M. Aten was selected to make up a ticket. They retired for some time and returned and submitted the following list:

Township Trustee—Thomas Croft.

Township Assessor—Sanford O. Fisher.

Township Treasurer—Wilfred A. Hill.

Constable—Cohn Kinsey.

Justice of the Peace—James McCormick.

Water Works Trustees—Archie Seagrigh, Mark Morlan.

Cemetery Trustee—James B. Elliott.

The report of the committee was unanimously adopted and the convention adjourned.

AS UNLUCKY AS USUAL

Thirteen Democrats at Last Night's Caucus.

CANDIDATES FOR TWO OFFICES

Were Not Named, but the Remainder of the Ticket Was Filled--M. W. Elliott Announced That He Would Vote For a Republican, but He Was Nominated.

The Democrats last evening in city hall nominated a ticket.

Despite the fact that the unlucky number of 13 members were all that were at the meeting, the Democrats present had braved the storms of adversity on many occasions, and the unlucky combination did not strike terror to their hearts, and they proceeded with much difficulty to nominate a ticket.

Some time was spent in informal talks of how Bryan would carry the country in 1900, and some of the members thought they might elect a portion of the city ticket if certain Republicans were nominated.

After waiting in vain for James H. Tracy to put in an appearance, City Chairman R. J. Meakin called the 13 members to order and he was at once elected chairman of the meeting, and C. A. Leiter, secretary.

Chairman Meakin stated that the object of the convention was to elect a ticket to represent the Democrats at the coming municipal election, and the first office on the list was board of education. John Moore proceeded to state how it required a man of exceptional ability to fill the office and placed in nomination the name of R. J. Meakin, who at once declined the honor thrust upon him, but his protests fell by the wayside, and his name was put on the ticket. M. W. Elliott was the next man to be nominated, and he also did not care to have the chance of being defeated, but Chairman Meakin said kicks were of no avail in a Democratic meeting. Mr. Elliott then said that J. H. Smith was a candidate on the Republican ticket, and he would be compelled to vote for him even if he was placed on the Democratic ticket. He thought Mr. Smith would win with what votes he would get in East End, and was in favor of leaving the matter go over. Mr. Moore said there was no assurance Smith would win and Mr. Elliott was placed on the ticket. John Kerr, Jr., was not present at the session so he was selected without a dissenting voice.

For justice of the peace Martin McCune was decided upon as a splendid candidate, and he accepted the trust imposed upon him without a murmur.

Township treasurer came next and Mr. Moore stated that Mr. Herbert, the Republican candidate, had served but one term, and he moved the office be passed and it carried unanimously.

J. N. Willeson was nominated for constable very much against his will, and Mr. Moore said he was happy to place in nomination the name of George D. Culbertson for township trustee, a man who had been tried in the faith and never found wanting. Mr. Culbertson was very unwilling to serve but it was necessary that he become a martyr to the cause in order to fill out the ticket.

For the office of water works trustee the name of John Kerr was suggested, but it was finally decided to leave the office vacant as there were no reservoirs to build this year.

The convention then commenced to nominate councilman, and Harvey McHenry won the prize in the First ward, while J. M. McDole will attempt to run in the Second ward. G. S. Huston has a hard fight before him in the Third ward. None of the gentlemen were present and of course could not decline, but when an attempt was made to nominate F. L. Fisher, in the Fourth ward, Mr. Moore said he had been authorized to decline the office in behalf of Mr. Fisher and Isaac Jones was substituted.

The assessors came next, and much trouble was experienced in thinking of enough Democrats to fill the offices. J. P. Maley was chosen in the First ward, C. A. Leiter in the Second and Patrick McCullough in the Third. An attempt was made to nominate David O'Handlon in the Fourth ward, but it was discovered that he had moved to the country and the name of Edward O'Handlon was substituted.

This completed the ticket, and C. A. Leiter, George Culbertson, J. J. Weisend, R. J. Meakin and Colin McLane were selected to fill vacancies on the ticket.

Mr. Elliott said a meeting should be held after the Republican primaries were over, and the committee will assemble at city hall Saturday evening at 10 o'clock, and fix the ticket so that they think they can win at least some offices.

NO LONG TIMERS.

"One Who Is Interested" Speaks On His Mind.

(Communicated.)

EDITOR NEWS REVIEW: I have been interested to notice by some of the NEWS REVIEW reports (which we must receive as correct because not contradicted) of the acts of our council. By these reports we see that this council is becoming notorious for their illegal way of doing business, that even the city solicitor has had to call them down in their meetings and threaten them with injunctions. That's a nice council! No wonder we have $1.00 gas business and such like! Why not give Mr. Peach a life job, instead of the fourth term for which he is now running? Why not give Mr. Challis a life job instead of the third term for which he is now running? We who are in favor of clean rule and LEGAL WAYS of doing business, will surely say at the polls, "There must be something in it for these men, and if we re-elect them this time, it is likely that every other member of this peculiar council will run for the third or fourth or fifth terms." Look out for the "third and fourth terms." We could not be worse than we are now if we try anywhere else with our eyes shut. Let us have a clean, businesslike council.

CHANGED DATE AGAIN

CORNELIUS CASE WAS POSTPONED

Which Caused the Other Matter to Be Set For One Week From Next Tuesday. Liverpool Cases Also Given Another Day.

LISBON, March 17.--[Special]--Another day has been set for the trial of Geo. F. Brunt, of East Liverpool. The trial will begin one week from next Tuesday, and will probably occupy two days.

The change was brought about by the postponement of the trial of William Cornelius, of Wellsville, who is charged with shooting with intent to kill. That was listed as the first of the week, and when it was set aside the others were advanced by Clerk McNutt.

This also makes a change in the remainder of the assignment. William Morrow and Samuel Conkle will be tried on Thursday as will William Franks and Arthur Stanway, all East Liverpool men.

ANSWERING CHALLIS.

Why Does He Want a Third Term If He Has No Axe to Grind?

(Communicated.)

EDITOR NEWS REVIEW--I am pleased to see the noble stand you have taken in favor of a clean council. I, and many others, are also very much pleased to see in your paper of last night the clear straight forward statement of Mr. Morris. That is business of the right kind. I happen to know who are back of Mr. Morris and can say that those little articles in another paper have entirely missed the mark. I know to an absolute certainty that the writer of the article of last Saturday in your paper about Mr. Challis and the $1 gas, never heard before that of the 10c and 20c business charged to him in another paper as he did not then live here. In that they have missed it again, and they will miss it at the polls too. We don't want a man in council who has to be forced to change his vote and who admits in that way that he was wrong at first, or is doing this for policy and for votes. The articles in another paper about the election of councilman from the First ward seem to have lots of gas about them, I think they will almost burn if you touch a lighted match to them. Mr. Challis has not answered the question of "A Voter." Why does he want a third term if he has no axe to grind. Let us remember when we go the polls that Mr. Challis is a third term man and a $1 gas man. Moral: Vote for Morris. ONE WHO CAN'T AFFORD TO PAY FOR $1 GAS.

All Union papers of East Liverpool are known to the various craft and unions of the city by the printing of the above
 Union Labels at the head of their columns

Don't forget the Republican primaries tomorrow afternoon. It is the duty of every Republican to vote.

THERE seems to be some truth in the story that Tom Johnson will be a Democratic candidate for governor. He will take part in the Cleveland municipal campaign.

THE Republican who will neglect to go to the polls tomorrow will miss the opportunity of aiding in selecting the ticket he expects to vote at the April election. He will be doing his duty to neither his party nor himself.

If some of the boss ridden cities of Ohio can but relieve themselves of the thieving gangs who control all municipal action, the fierce campaigns now being fought will go down in history as events of unusual importance.

THE conduct of the American troops in Luzon are praiseworthy in the extreme. Fighting and marching day after day they continue to press back the enemy with great loss. The campaign has been nothing but a continuous line
 of victories.

MARK THEM!

We have some cases in East Liverpool that require MARKING. It is for the good of the community and society at large that they should be MARKED and OSTRACISED. We have reference to both sexes—vile men and vile women. They are notorious—the topic of common conversation. Some are in the humble and poorer class. This class get the MARKING all right, as a rule. Money and influence are lacking with them.
 But the wealthier class carry on the nefarious practices with apparent impunity, the right hand of friendship being given them on account of the money and influence back of them. Wealth is desirable when accumulated by and through honorable channels. The wealthy have grand opportunities for the accomplishment of good. Capital is necessary to the development of grand and glorious enterprises. But when wealth attempts to force licentiousness, sin and shame into society, and the possessor of wealth, confident in the power of riches and the influence attached thereto, dares to indulge, almost openly, in abominable practices and measures, 'tis high time that such personages, men and women, should be taught a lasting lesson, and be MARKED and OSTRACISED, with the same abhor-rence and avoidance as one would shun and avoid a leper, fresh from Honolulu or the Philippine islands. Sin is sin and shame is shame, and the leprosy of a foul life should be as abhorrent to the man and woman of clean and pure life, as is the leprosy of the person. Mark such characters, no matter in what class or grade of society they exist, and keep them at a distance until they show true proof of repentance and reform.

THE EAST END.

TO START ON MONDAY

Switch For the New Pottery Is In Sight.

LINE WAS SURVEYED YESTERDAY

New Company For Investment Purposes—Missionary Lecture—More Building—Secured a Contract—Brick Plant In Operation.

Yesterday afternoon surveyors of the Cleveland and Pittsburg railway company, with several officials and representatives of the Laughlin China company, staked out the switch to be laid after the new pottery is contracted. The switch will be laid out north from the main line, and just east of the lane dividing the Knowles, Taylor & Anderson property and that of the pottery company. When approached none of the gentlemen would talk, but from other sources it was learned work on the construction would begin early next week, and would be completed within three days after the commencement. Work on the pottery will be commenced soon, as stated in this paper last week.

A Stock Company.

A stock company is being formed in the East End for manufacturing purposes, but those who know of the matter and those who own stock in the new concern refuse, when questioned, to talk. It was first reported the company was after a bonus of $10,000 but one stockholder ventured to say this morning there was absolutely no truth in the statement as far as the bonus was concerned. It has been learned from good authority a meeting of the present stockholders will be held next week and officers selected.

The capital stock is to be $10,000, and most of it has been subscribed. The new company will erect a factory, for which land has already been donated, and enter the manufacturing field.

A New Mission.

Some time during the summer, the officials of St. Stephen's Episcopal church will commence the erection of a chapel in this part of the city. Rev. Edwin Weary, when asked about the matter, said that the mission was growing rapidly, and within a short time a new building would be needed, and it would be erected by the church officials. So far no ground has been selected but the matter has been reported favorably by the church members, and within a short time definite action will be taken.

Some of the Sick.

A small child of Alfred Marsh, of Elm street, is seriously ill. Last night it suffered several spasms, and its condition is thought to be critical.

The condition of Frederick Dotts continues encouraging, and, it is thought, his recovery is but a matter of a few weeks.

The child of Mr. and Mrs. Andrews, who has been ill for several weeks, is recovering rapidly, and will be out within a few weeks.

More Building.

Doctor Toot has commenced the erection of a residence near the Sebring pottery. Work was commenced Wednesday, and it is thought it will be completed in May.

Ground was broken this morning for the erection of a five room frame dwelling in St. George street by William Culbertson. Work on another house on the lot adjoining this will be started next week.

Gathering Ice.

Considerable ice is being hauled through this section and taken to the city where it is being stored. Each wagon is pulled by four horses, and as the roads are quite bad the teamsters are having troubles of their own. The ice is secured from a storage house near Smith's ferry.

Salem Pottery Pav.

The Salem News says: "The frames were set today in the third story of the clay and slip rooms of the white ware pottery. The new plant when completed will employ about 200 hands, and have a pay roll of about $3,000 or $4,000 every two weeks."

Another Report.

It is said the Knowles, Taylor & Anderson plant will resume operations next Monday. At the office of the company nothing will be said, although the works is now being put in order.

Secured a Contract.

John Bell yesterday received the contract for hauling brick for the Ohio company's yards. He will give employment to six men.

Missionary Will Lecture.

George W. Chalfant, recently returned from the missionary field of China will give a lecture in the Second Presbyterian next Thursday evening. The lecture will be given under the auspices of the Ladies' Foreign Missionary society of that church.

Brick Works Resumed.

The brick works resumed operations this morning, giving employment to 10 men. It has been idle since December. Fires under the dry floor were started Wednesday night and all the machinery was put in condition yesterday.

Now They Can Talk.

Manager Swaney yesterday afternoon placed a telephone in the office of the Ohio Fire Clay company works. The telephone list in this part of the city is rapidly increasing.

CLEANING THE TOWN.

Work Is Already Started, and Progress Is Being Made.

The work of cleaning the streets and alleys of the city is already started, and progress is being made. The accumulated garbage of the winter is being hauled to the river bank, and in such quantities as to show that many persons are renovating their back yards. There are always a number of persons who must be stirred up by the authorities before they obey the order.

There is no truth in the story that J. H. Smith, of East End, does not reside in the city limits. Mr. Smith is a candidate for the board of education.

Ready to wear suits. Low prices induce many to buy these spring suits at Joseph Bros.' Any alteration free of charge to make the suit to please the customer.

A vote for Willard Morris for council means a vote for clean government. Remember this, First ward voters, and go to the primaries.

NO BETTING THIS YEAR.

Few Dollars Have Been Placed on the Primaries.

Although much interest is manifested in the outcome of the primaries tomorrow, particularly in regard to council, the men who usually put a few dollars on contests of that kind are not betting this year.

One of the very best authorities on campaign wagers in the city said last night that he had been keeping his eyes open, and beyond a few dollar bets knew of no money that had been wagered.

At the Grand Next Week.

A dollar performance at popular prices is the announcement made by Miss Courtenay Morgan and her company who come to the Grand Opera House on Monday, March 20, and week. When any one reads the list of plays presented by the company, for many of which a high royalty is paid, their statement of a dollar show at popular prices is no doubt true.

Perfection in Baby Carriages.

SPECIAL FEATURES

~~~~~OF~~~~~

LEWIS BROS.' SLEEPING COACH.

1---The Adjustable or Swinging Back,

Which can be instantly adjusted to any angle desired for reclining or sleeping, and forms, in connection with the seat or cushion, a complete bed, on which the baby can sleep as comfortably as in a cradle, and without the use of a pillow.

2---As a Sleeping Coach.

The "Excelsior" is unrivaled, and no Child's Carriage can be perfectly adapted to the various purposes it should serve, which cannot be readily converted into a "Sleeper." How often do we see children trundled along with heads nodding and pitching from one side to the other of the carriage, or sleeping in a most uncomfortable position? The "Excelsior" obviates all this. Whenever the child is inclined to sleep, the back can be let down in a moment, and the child at once placed in an easy position.

3---As an Invalid Carriage.

For sick or invalid children, nothing can be more complete than the "Excelsior Sleeping Coach."

4---As a Substitute for a Crib or Cradle.

For use in the house, the "Excelsior" will be found very satisfactory, and render the expense of such an article of furniture wholly unnecessary. The easy verticle motion which is given to the body of the carriage, mounted on our patent Star Gear, by a touch of the hand, will quiet the baby and put it to sleep.

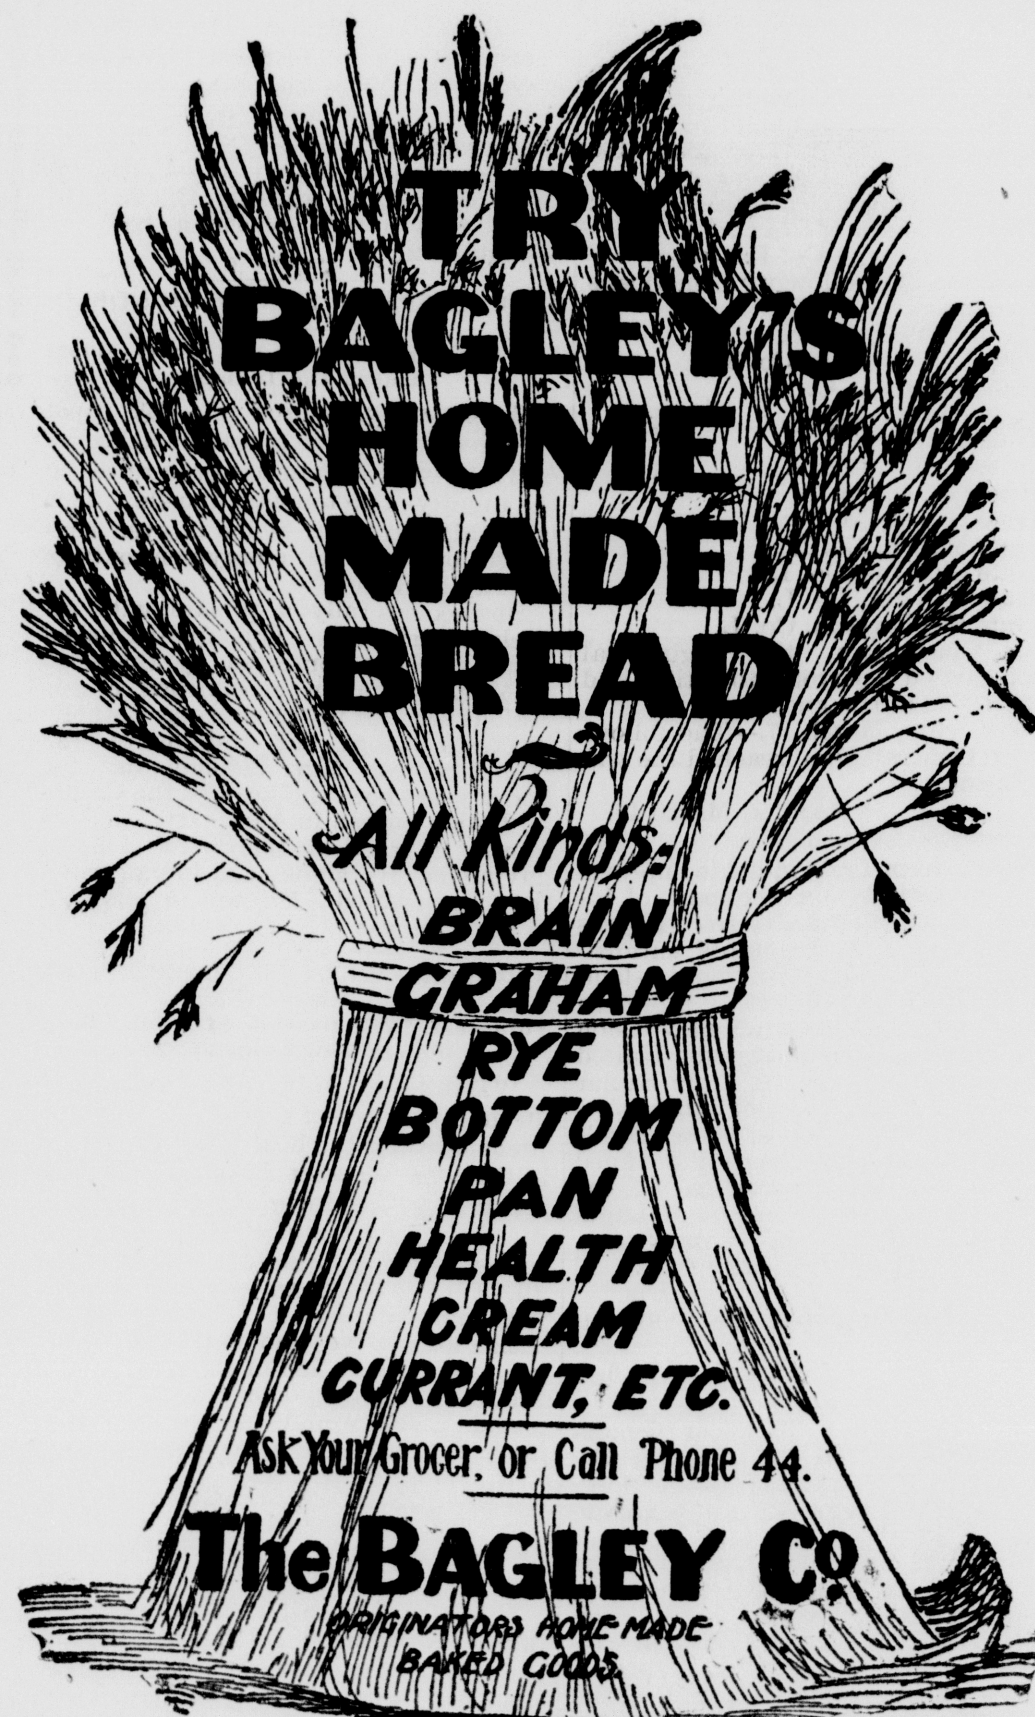

5---The Adjustable Parasol or Canopy Holder.

By the use of which the child can be readily and perfectly protected from the sun or wind, in whatever position it may be. The holder has joints, so that the parasol may be carried upward or downward, or to either side, as may be required to suit any position desired.

New Horse Feed.

The German government is making an experiment in the feeding of milchery horses by dieting them on a patent food. This is composed of fresh blood from the slaughter houses, mixed with sugar refuse and the screenings of barley, wheat and the like. It is claimed that the albumen in the blood, aided by the other two ingredients, makes the new forage very strengthening. As the new production is comparatively cheap, the cost of maintenance will be sensibly decreased.

All Union papers of East Liverpool are known to the various craft and unions of the city by the printing of the above
 Union Labels at the head of their columns

Don't forget the Republican primaries tomorrow afternoon. It is the duty of every Republican to vote.

THERE seems to be some truth in the story that Tom Johnson will be a Democratic candidate for governor. He will take part in the Cleveland municipal campaign.

THE Republican who will neglect to go to the polls tomorrow will miss the opportunity of aiding in selecting the ticket he expects to vote at the April election. He will be doing his duty to neither his party nor himself.

If some of the boss ridden cities of Ohio can but relieve themselves of the thieving gangs who control all municipal action, the fierce campaigns now being fought will go down in history as events of unusual importance.

THE conduct of the American troops
 in Luzon are praiseworthy in the extreme. Fighting and marching day after day they continue to press back the enemy with great loss. The campaign has been nothing but a continuous line
 of victories.

MARK THEM!

We have some cases in East Liverpool that require MARKING. It is for the good of the community and society at large that they should be MARKED and OSTRACISED. We have reference to both sexes—vile men and vile women. They are notorious—the topic of common conversation. Some are in the humble and poorer class. This class get the MARKING all right, as a rule. Money
 and influence are lacking with them.
 But the wealthier class carry on the nefarious practices with apparent im-punty, the right hand of friendship being given them on account of the money and influence back of them. Wealth is desirable when accumulated by and through honorable channels. The wealthy have grand opportunities for the accomplishment of good. Capital is necessary to the development of grand and glorious enterprises. But when wealth attempts to force licentiousness, sin and shame into society, and the possessor of wealth, confident in the power of riches and the influence attached thereto, dares to indulge, almost openly, in abominable practices and measures, 'tis high time that such personages, men and women, should be taught a lasting lesson, and be MARKED and OSTRACISED, with the same abhor-rence and avoidance as one would shun
 and avoid a leper, fresh from Honolulu or the Philippine islands. Sin is sin and shame is shame, and the leprosy of a foul life should be as abhorrent to the man and woman of clean and pure life,
 as is the leprosy of the person. Mark
 such characters, no matter in what class or grade of society they exist, and keep them at a distance until they show true
 proof of repentance and reform.

TO ALL PEOPLE

Do You Desire Clean Municipal Government?

YOU HAVE IT IN YOUR POWER

True Republicans Dread Disaster to Their Party by and Through the Nomination of Inefficient and Incompetent Candidates at the Primaries--Some Councilmen Now in Power Are Seeking Re-Election From Selfish Motives--Be Careful--The Position of the News Review.

The NEWS REVIEW is Republican. It has been a life-long member of the party. We are good citizens, backed by a multitude of good citizens. We love clean government. We love East Liverpool. We love law and order. We believe in the enforcement of existing laws and ordinances. We believe in placing men in council who cannot be bought and sold. We believe in placing men in council who will legislate for the people and not AGAINST them. As business men, we believe that a man or woman should have "value received" following all outlay of money or labor. We believe in councilmen who vote honestly and intelligently. We cannot be deceived by cheap clap-trap plays and changing of votes, in order that this certain councilman can, backed by councilmen like unto him, effect their bad work against the people, win out with the infamous "dollar" clause of the gas company, and at the same time draw votes to Mr. Challis and make his election possible. The WOLF under the SHEEP'S woolly coat is plain to the eyes of every honest and clear visioned voter. No thinking man, loving his party and loving clean government, will be deceived by such trickery and such change of vote. Mr. Challis voted in favor of the measure which enables the gas company to take MONEY out of the poor man's pocket and give NOTHING in return. Then, when he knew the company had affairs their own way, without the use of HIS vote, he enacted the part of the "wolf in sheep's clothing."

True Republicans will agree with the statement of the so-called leaders of local politics that at the primaries is the proper place to enter protest against the nomination of bad or unfit candidates; and right here, before the primaries, we warn the so-called leaders to be wise, and not aid in putting bad men in the front.

Every TRUE Republican in the First ward knows that Mr. Challis has no right to be in our city council. His vote AGAINST the working man, and in FAVOR of the gas company, is proof positive that he is an enemy of the masses--of the poor man and the poor woman, those who have a struggle to meet just demands made against them without being compelled, by Mr. Challis' vote, to pay a dollar each month for something which they did not receive--a clear case of robbery; "hands up;" "stand and deliver;" "might makes right, and Messrs. Challis, Seckerson, Cain, Olinhausen and Stewart, OUR councilmen, have given us the right to rob the people."

Will the people stand such nonsense, such injustice, such robbery, and such conduct on the part of these five councilmen? We think not.

The Ohio Valley Gas company has given East Liverpool splendid fuel, especially during the terribly cold weather which controlled a few weeks since, and the Ohio Valley Gas company has the right to expect and ought to have a liberal percentage upon their heavy investment. The officers of the Ohio Valley Gas company have always been courteous and clever in the extreme to the writer and to the NEWS REVIEW company, which pays full rates for fuel furnished and asks no special favors, as this company gets value received in the shape of plenty of good gas. But the "dollar" clause, in our judgment, is one of absolute injustice, and our only wonder is that a gas company, officered as is the Ohio Valley Gas company, would attempt to enforce the "dollar" clause. But a still greater wonder is that FIVE COUNCILMEN, Challis, Olinhausen, Seckerson, Cain and Stewart, could be PERSUADED to cast their votes for such a measure--DIRECTLY AGAINST THE PEOPLE.

The councilman who works for Challis, or for any member of council who voted in favor of the "dollar" clause, is an enemy of the people and should be marked and defeated when the proper time arrives. Such councilmen have an "axe to grind," and they want to do the grinding at the expense of the people, and the people should see to it that such men, when they want axes ground, should do so at their own expense, as the masses desire no further burden of useless taxation, and further desire, and will carry the desire into effect at the proper time, that such selfish councilmen shall step down and out of office.

The NEWS REVIEW is Republican from center to circumference. But it is clean Republicanism we advocate and rejoice in. Not that class of Republicans who are in the party simply for the "spoils of office," and who have not, at heart, the lasting good of the grand old party, a party which has such a magnificent record in the past, is a mighty power in the present, and will continue to be a power just as long as it advocates and enforces pure principles of honest government, free as possible from trickery and chicanery.

And lastly. See to it that good men and true are placed in nomination tomorrow, Saturday, March 18, for positions in our local offices. A vote against the men who favored the "dollar" clause of the gas company, is a vote against the men who are the enemies of the people.

Mr. Peach is an Indefatigable Worker as a Councilman.

EDITOR NEWS REVIEW--The question has been asked me several times in the last few days, what I thought of Mr. Geo. Peach as a councilman, and I desire to say that, in my five years' experience as a councilman, I have never been associated with a councilman who is as indefatigable a worker and one who has devoted as much time to the interest of the city as has Mr. Peach.

A HOSPITAL

Has Been Opened In Wucherer Addition by the Trustees.

To the township trustees belong the credit of starting the first hospital.

When it became known that they would have to care for Joseph Heintz, who was ill with pneumonia, they rented a house in Wucherer's addition, had a couple of cots placed in it and employed George Buchheit to nurse him.

Last evening Heintz was removed to the temporary hospital and will be well cared for. It was deemed cheaper to rent a house than to secure a room. The infirmity directors were notified, and it is probable they will ratify the action taken by the trustees.

George Peach defies any living man to show that he ever voted in council for any measure which was against the interests of the people at large. He is a business man, and looks carefully after the business interests of this city.

GOOD MORNING!

Have You Seen Our Spring Stock?

You certainly must admit that this is a progressive house, and keeping pace with the town.

Stock not completed yet, to be sure; much still in the hands of the tailors, but enough already displayed, to entitle us to your favors.

You never hear of selling goods below cost here, do you?

Somewhat people sooner deal with a store claiming to take fair profits.

And yet our new goods cost you less by 25 to 33 per cent, than some of the old stocks said to be sold so much below price.

We are not going to give you reasons for this; we will let you do the reasoning. When may we have the pleasure of showing you through the lines?

SPRING SUITS AND TOP COATS FOR MEN

From the cheapest that will stand recommending, to the best which the world produces.

Which means from $7.00 to $15.00.

THE LINES OF MEN'S SPRING TROUSERS are replete with rich novelties, of home and of foreign weaves. With plain or with fancy designs. With ultra fashionable cut, or with medium styles, to suit every inclination or fancy.

Prices range from $1.50 to $5.50.

HEADQUARTERS FOR BOYS' CLOTHING, CONFIRMATION AND FIRST COMMUNION SUITS.

Quality is a most important factor in Boy's Clothing. Some stores would call pure cotton all wool--if the statement would effect a sale. No misstatements here. No matter how low priced, goods must be of good, substantial quality, if offered by us.

SPRING FASHIONS for the little folks are abundantly displayed here. Better lines, finer makes, lower prices than ever before.

We are agents for the Dunlap Hats, $4 Derbys. Other lines, ranging from $1 to $5.

AS UNLUCKY AS USUAL

Thirteen Democrats at Last Night's Caucus.

CANDIDATES FOR TWO OFFICES

Were Not Named, but the Remainder of the Ticket Was Filled—M. W. Elliott Announced That He Would Vote For a Republican, but He Was Nominated.

The Democrats last evening in city hall nominated a ticket.

Despite the fact that the unlucky number of 13 members were all that were at the meeting, the Democrats present had braved the storms of adversity on many occasions, and the unlucky combination did not strike terror to their hearts, and they proceeded with much difficulty to nominate a ticket.

Some time was spent in informal talks of how Bryan would carry the country in 1900, and some of the members thought they might elect a portion of the city ticket if certain Republicans were nominated.

After waiting in vain for James H. Tracy to put in an appearance, City Chairman R. J. Meakin called the 13 members to order and he was at once elected chairman of the meeting, and C. A. Leiter, secretary.

Chairman Meakin stated that the object of the convention was to elect a ticket to represent the Democrats at the coming municipal election, and the first office on the list was board of education. John Moore proceeded to state how it required a man of exceptional ability to fill the office and placed in nomination the name of R. J. Meakin, who at once declined the honor thrust upon him, but his protests fell by the wayside, and his name was put on the ticket. M. W. Elliott was the next man to be nominated, and he also did not care to have the chance of being defeated, but Chairman Meakin said kicks were of no avail in a Democratic meeting. Mr. Elliott then said that J. H. Smith was a candidate on the Republican ticket, and he would be compelled to vote for him even if he was placed on the Democratic ticket. He thought Mr. Smith would win with what votes he would get in East End, and was in favor of leaving the matter go over. Mr. Moore said there was no assurance Smith would win and Mr. Elliott was placed on the ticket. John Kerr, Jr., was not present at the session so he was selected without a dissenting voice.

For justice of the peace Martin McCune was decided upon as a splendid candidate, and he accepted the trust imposed upon him without a murmur.

Township treasurer came next and Mr. Moore stated that Mr. Herbert, the Republican candidate, had served but one term, and he moved the office be passed and it carried unanimously.

J. N. Willeson was nominated for constable very much against his will, and Mr. Moore said he was happy to place in nomination the name of George D. Culbertson for township trustee, a man who had been tried in the faith and never found wanting. Mr. Culbertson was very unwilling to serve but it was necessary that he become a martyr to the cause in order to fill out the ticket.

For the office of water works trustee the name of John Kerr was suggested, but it was finally decided to leave the office vacant as there were no reservoirs to build this year.

The convention then commenced to nominate councilman, and Harvey McHenry won the prize in the First ward, while J. M. McDole will attempt to run in the Second ward. G. S. Huston has a hard fight before him in the Third ward. None of the gentlemen were present and of course could not decline, but when an attempt was made to nominate F. L. Fisher, in the Fourth ward, Mr. Moore said he had been authorized to decline the office in behalf of Mr. Fisher and Isaac Jones was substituted.

The assessors came next, and much trouble was experienced in thinking of enough Democrats to fill the offices. J. P. Maley was chosen in the First ward, C. A. Leiter in the Second and Patrick McCullough in the Third. An attempt was made to nominate David O'Handlon in the Fourth ward, but it was discovered that he had moved to the country and the name of Edward O'Handlon was substituted.

This completed the ticket, and C. A. Leiter, George Culbertson, J. J. Weisend, R. J. Meakin and Colin McLane were selected to fill vacancies on the ticket.

Mr. Elliott said a meeting should be held after the Republican primaries were over, and the committee will assemble at city hall Saturday evening at 10 o'clock, and fix the ticket so that they think they can win at least some offices.

NO LONG TIMERS.

"One Who Is Interested" Speaks On His Mind.
[Communicated.]

EDITOR NEWS REVIEW: I have been interested to notice by some of the NEWS REVIEW reports (which we must receive as correct because not contradicted) of the acts of our council. By these reports we see that this council is becoming notorious for their illegal way of doing business, that even the city solicitor has had to call them down in their meetings and threaten them with injunctions. That's a nice council! No wonder we have $1.00 gas business and such like! Why not give Mr. Peach a life job, instead of the fourth term for which he is now running? Why not give Mr. Challis a life job instead of the third term for which he is now running? We who are in favor of clean rule and LEGAL WAYS of doing business, will surely say at the polls. "There must be something in it for these men, and if we re-elect them this time, it is likely that every other member of this peculiar council will run for the third or fourth or fifth terms." Look out for the "third and fourth terms." We could not be worse than we are now if we try anywhere else with our eyes shut. Let us have a clean, businesslike council.

CHANGED DATE AGAIN

The Brunt Trial Will Begin March 28.

CORNELIUS CASE WAS POSTPONED

Which Caused the Other Matter to Be Set For One Week From Next Tuesday. Liverpool Cases Also Given Another Day.

LISBON, March 17.—[Special]—Another day has been set for the trial of Geo. F. Brunt, of East Liverpool. The trial will begin one week from next Tuesday, and will probably occupy two days.

The change was brought about by the postponement of the trial of William Cornelius, of Wellsville, who is charged with shooting with intent to kill. That was listed as the first of the week, and when it was set aside the others were advanced by Clerk McNutt.

This also makes a change in the remainder of the assignment. William Morrow and Samuel Conkle will be tried on Thursday as will William Franks and Arthur Stanway, all East Liverpool men.

ANSWERING CHALLIS.

Why Does He Want a Third Term If He Has No Axe to Grind?
[Communicated.]

EDITOR NEWS REVIEW—I am pleased to see the noble stand you have taken in favor of a clean council. I, and many others, are also very much pleased to see in your paper of last night the clear straight forward statement of Mr. Morris. That is business of the right kind. I happen to know who are back of Mr. Morris and can say that those little articles in another paper have entirely missed the mark. I know to an absolute certainty that the writer of the article of last Saturday in your paper about Mr. Challis and the $1 gas, never heard before that of the 10c and 20c business charged to him in another paper as he did not then live here. In that they have missed it again, and they will miss it at the polls too. We don't want a man in council who has to be forced to change his vote and who admits in that way that he was wrong at first, or is doing this for policy and for votes. The articles in another paper about the election of councilman from the First ward seem to have lots of gas about them. I think they will almost burn if you touch a lighted match to them. Mr. Challis has not answered the question of "A Voter." Why does he want a third term if he has no axe to grind. Let us remember when we go the polls that Mr. Challis is a third term man and a $1 gas man. Moral: Vote for Morris. ONE WHO CAN'T AFFORD TO PAY FOR $1 GAS.

der is that a gas company, officered as is the Ohio Valley Gas company, would attempt to enforce the "dollar" clause. But a still greater wonder is that FIVE COUNCILMEN, Challis, Olnhausen, Seckerson, Cain and Stewart, could be PERSAUDED to cast their votes for such a measure--DIRECTLY AGAINST THE PEOPLE.

The councilman who works for Challis, or for any member of council who voted in favor of the "dollar" clause, is an enemy of the people and should be marked and defeated when the proper time arrives. Such councilmen have an "axe to grind," and they want to do the grating at the expense of the people, and the people should see to it that such men, when they want axes ground, should do so at their own expense, as the masses desire no further burden of useless taxation, and further desire, and will carry the desire into effect at the proper time, that such selfish councilmen shall step down and out of office.

The NEWS REVIEW is Republican from center to circumference. But it is clean Republicanism we advocate and rejoice in. Not that class of Republicans who are in the party simply for the "spoils of office," and who have not, at heart, the lasting good of the grand old party, a party which has such a magnificent record in the past, is a mighty power in the present, and will continue to be a power just as long as it advocates and enforces pure principles of honest government, free as possible from trickery and chicanery.

And lastly. See to it that good men and true are placed in nomination tomorrow, Saturday, March 18, for positions in our local offices. A vote against the men who favored the "dollar" clause of the gas company, is a vote against the men who are the enemies of the people.

DR. MARSHALL'S TESTIMONY.

Mr. Peach is an Indefatigable Worker as a Councilman.

EDITOR NEWS REVIEW--The question has been asked me several times in the last few days, what I thought of Mr. Geo. Peach as a councilman, and I desire to say that, in my five years' experience as a councilman, I have never been associated with a councilman who is as indefatigable a worker and one who has devoted as much time to the interest of the city as has Mr. Peach.

R. J. MARSHALL.

Willard Morris has no "irons in the fire." He has no selfish end to gain in council. He is a candidate for good government. He will cast no vote for "dollar" clauses, as did and will Mr. Challis.

There is no truth in the story that J. H. Smith, of East End, does not reside in the city limits. Mr. Smith is a candidate for the board of education.

A HOSPITAL

Has Been Opened In Wucherer Addition by the Trustees.

To the township trustees belong the credit of starting the first hospital.

When it became known that they would have to care for Joseph Heintz, who was ill with pneumonia, they rented a house in Wucherer's addition, had a couple of cots placed in it and employed George Buchheit to nurse him.

Last evening Heintz was removed to the temporary hospital and will be well cared for. It was deemed cheaper to rent a house than to secure a room. The infirmary directors were notified, and it is probable they will ratify the action taken by the trustees.

George Peach defies any living man to show that he ever voted in council for any measure which was against the interests of the people at large. He is a business man, and looks carefully after the business interests of this city.

GOOD MORNING!

Have You Seen Our Spring Stock?

You certainly must admit that this is a progressive house, and keeping pace with the town.

Stock not completed yet, to be sure; much still in the hands of the tailors, but enough already displayed, to entitle us to your favors.

You never hear of selling goods below cost here, do you?

Somehow people sooner deal with a store claiming to take fair profits.

And yet our new goods cost you less by 25 to 33 per cent, than some of the old stocks said to be sold so much below price.

We are not going to give you reasons for this; we will let you do the reasoning.

When may we have the pleasure of showing you through the lines?

SPRING SUITS AND TOP COATS FOR MEN

From the cheapest that will stand recommending, to the best which the world produces.

Which means from $7.00 to $15.00.

SPRING FASHIONS

for the little folks are abundantly displayed here. Better lines, finer makes, lower prices than ever before.

FATAL ELECTION ROWS.

Five Men Killed and One Wounded at Hot Springs, Ark.—Two Killed in Missouri.

HOT SPRINGS, Ark., March 17.—A shooting occurred here which resulted in the death of five men and the serious wounding of one man. The killed are: Thomas Toler, chief of police; J. E. Hart, city detective; Thomas F. Goslee, police sergeant; John Williams, son of sheriff Williams.

Louis Hinkle, driver of a brewery wagon. Ed Spears was shot in the neck and may die.

The shooting grew out of the mayor's campaign under way here. The sheriff was a warm supporter of the regular Democratic nominee, while Toler, Hart and Goslee were supporting an opposition candidate.

Early in the day shots were exchanged between Sheriff Williams and his son John on the one side and Sergeant Goslee on the other, but no one was injured. Toler, Hart and Goslee were walking south on Central avenue when they met Sheriff Williams' two sons, John and Coffey, and Ed Spears. There was soon a general fusillade in which 40 or 50 shots were exchanged. When it was over Toler, Hart, Goslee and Hinkle, a noncombatant, were dead and John Williams was mortally wounded. Williams died about an hour later. Louis Hinkle attempted to separate the combatants when the fight opened and was killed.

Order was easily restored. Saloons were closed. The sheriff and his son Coffey are under arrest, and no further trouble is anticipated.

Sheriff Williams said a policeman previously attempted to assassinate him. A bystander disarmed the policeman. The sheriff said he was not present when the fight occurred. He claimed he did not reach the scene until the shooting was over and that the policeman who had previously attempted to assassinate him began the trouble by shooting the sheriff's son, John.

About 20 minutes after the main battle another affray occurred nearby in which four or five shots were fired. In this fusillade Detective Jim Hart went down with the whole top of his skull blown off.

All of the dead men left large families.

ST. LOUIS, March 17.—In the fight over candidates at Grand avenue and Natural bridge road "Bud" Price, a negro, and Edward Osterhide were shot and almost instantly killed. It is alleged that ex-Detective Jack Williams did the shooting.

PRESIDENT GRATIFIED.

News That the Queen Would Sign the Peace Treaty Was Pleasing.

MADRID, March 17.—The queen regent will sign the ratification of the peace treaty to-day.

THOMASVILLE, Ga., March 17.—The news that the queen regent of Spain would sign the peace treaty ratification was telegraphed to President McKinley. The president was much gratified at the fact that this last step necessary to the end of hostile relations with Spain was assured, though never doubting such would be the outcome. Arrangements for exchange of ratifications and payment of the $20,000,000 are yet to be made, but no action by the president will be needed before he returns to Washington.

ROBERTS LIVING WITH THREE WIVES.

Minister in Philadelphia M. E. Conference Said Evidence Was Obtained.

PHILADELPHIA, March 17.—At the meeting of the M. E. conference in session at Zion church, Manayunk, a resolution was offered by Rev. Dr. Benjamin String of Manayunk, condemning the polygamous practices of Congressman Brigham H. Roberts of Utah, and asking for his expulsion from the halls of congress.

The resolution was referred to a committee for modification. Before this action was taken Rev. Dr. T. C. Iliif, presiding elder of the Utah district, and one of the committee of three appointed by the Evangelical Ministerial union of that state to prepare a formal protest to be presented to the Fifty-sixth congress against Roberts' admission, stated that the committee had secured satisfactory evidence that Roberts was at present living in polygamy with three wives.

Conference Acted Against Roberts.

HARRISBURG, March 17.—The Central Pennsylvania conference, composed of 273 ministers and having a constituency of over 60,000 members, adopted resolutions protesting against Congressman-elect B. H. Roberts of Utah being seated in the Fifty-sixth congress because of his views on the polygamy question. A copy of the resolution will be sent to Congressman Mahon of Chambersburg, to be presented by him at the opening of the next session of congress.

To Buy Bethlehem Works.

PHILADELPHIA, March 17.—There was being formed in this city a syndicate of prominent Philadelphia bankers who will furnish the capital for a corporation to be known as the Bethlehem Steel company, the purpose of the incorporators being to acquire the property and business of the famous Bethlehem Iron company, which was founded in 1857, at South Bethlehem, Pa.

Roosevelt's Electrocuting Directions.

ALBANY, March 17.—Governor Roosevelt sent to Warden Sage of the Sing Sing prison a letter giving directions as to details for the execution of Mrs. Place to make it as unsensational as possible. He suggested that one woman attendant be provided and that one of the physicians be a woman.

BOARD SAW FLUID INJECTED.

But Omaha Packers Claimed It Was Salt Put In Hams.

OMAHA, March 17.—The army board of inquiry arrived in this city and started to work by looking through the packing plants at South Omaha. Particular attention was paid to the point brought in the testimony of the Philadelphia physician to the effect that he had seen meat chemically treated in the Swift plant here.

That company maintained that the operation the doctor saw was simply the injection of salt into the interior of hams for the purpose of producing an even cure. Some army officers examined said soldiers complained of the meat. Later the board left for Kansas City.

Smallpox In a Legislature.

LITTLE ROCK, March 17.—Members of the legislature were panicstricken when it was announced that physicians had diagnosed the illness of Senator Lankford as smallpox. After an half hour's debate the house voted to vaccinate all its members.

Bribery Investigation Postponed.

HARRISBURG, March 17.—The meeting of the bribery investigation committee, which was to have been held last evening, was postponed until next Monday evening.

Murder Committed by a Boy.

CINCINNATI, March 17.—The murderer of Mrs. Anthony Stiegler of Mount Lookout, whose dead body was found in her home by her son, has been found in Albert Luken, a boy of 16, living with his widowed mother in Clifton. Luken was arrested and made a full confession, saying his motive was robbery. He got about $70.

Resignation of Talmage Accepted.

WASHINGTON, March 17.—The resignation of Rev. Dr. T. DeWitt Talmage as pastor of the First Presbyterian church was accepted at a sparsely attended meeting of the congregation. No action was taken toward determining his successor.

NEW YORK, March 17.—Rudyard Kipling is steadily improving. He was moved from his rooms on the second floor to a suite on the floor above.

Minister Hart Returned.

NEW YORK, March 17.—Among the passengers who arrived from Colon was C. B. Hart, United States minister to Colombia. Mr. Hart is from Wheeling.

EAST LIVERPOOL, O., FRIDAY, MARCH 17.

All Union papers of East Liverpool are known to the various craft and unions of the city by the printing of the above
 Union Labels at the head of their columns

Don't forget the Republican primaries tomorrow afternoon. It is the duty of every Republican to vote.

THERE seems to be some truth in the story that Tom Johnson will be a Democratic candidate for governor. He will take part in the Cleveland municipal campaign.

THE Republican who will neglect to go to the polls tomorrow will miss the opportunity of aiding in selecting the ticket he expects to vote at the April election. He will be doing his duty to neither his party nor himself.

If some of the boss ridden cities of Ohio can but relieve themselves of the thieving gangs who control all municipal action, the fierce campaigns now being fought will go down in history as events of unusual importance.

THE conduct of the American troops
 in Luzon are praiseworthy in the extreme. Fighting and marching day after day they continue to press back the enemy with great loss. The campaign has been nothing but a continuous line
 of victories.

MARK THEM!

We have some cases in East Liverpool that require MARKING. It is for the good of the community and society at large that they should be MARKED and OSTRACISED. We have reference to both sexes—vile men and vile women. They are notorious—the topic of common conversation. Some are in the humble and poorer class. This class get the MARKING all right, as a rule. Money
 and influence are lacking with them.
 But the wealthier class carry on the nefarious practices with apparent impunity, the right hand of friendship being given them on account of the money and influence back of them. Wealth is desirable when accumulated by and through honorable channels. The wealthy have grand opportunities for the accomplishment of good. Capital is necessary to the development of grand and glorious enterprises. But when wealth attempts to force licentiousness, sin and shame into society, and the possessor of wealth, confident in the power of riches and the influence attached thereto, dares to indulge, almost openly, in abominable practices and measures, 'tis high time that such personages, men and women, should be taught a lasting lesson, and be MARKED and OSTRACISED, with the same abhor-rence and avoidance as one would shun
 and avoid a leper, fresh from Honolulu or the Philippine islands. Sin is sin and shame is shame, and the leprosy of a foul life should be as abhorrent to the man and woman of clean and pure life,
 as is the leprosy of the person. Mark

FATAL ELECTION ROWS.

Five Men Killed and One Wounded at Hot Springs, Ark.—Two Killed in Missouri.

HOT SPRINGS, Ark., March 17.—A shooting occurred here which resulted in the death of five men and the serious wounding of one man. The killed are: Thomas Toler, chief of police. J. E. Hart, city detective. Thomas F. Goslee, police sergeant. John Williams, son of sheriff Williams.

Louis Hinkle, driver of a brewery wagon. Ed Spears was shot in the neck and may die.

The shooting grew out of the mayoralty campaign under way here. The sheriff was a warm supporter of the regular Democratic nominee, while Toler, Hart and Goslee were supporting an opposition candidate.

Early in the day shots were exchanged between Sheriff Williams and his son John on the one side and Sergeant Goslee on the other, but no one was injured. Toler, Hart and Goslee were walking south on Central avenue when they met Sheriff Williams' two sons, John and Coffey, and Ed Spears. There was soon a general fusillade in which 40 or 50 shots were exchanged. When it was over Toler, Hart, Goslee and Hinkle, a noncombatant, were dead and John Williams was mortally wounded. Williams died about an hour later. Louis Hinkle attempted to separate the combatants when the fight opened and was killed.

Order was easily restored. Saloons were closed. The sheriff and his son Coffey are under arrest, and no further trouble is anticipated.

Sheriff Williams said a policeman previously attempted to assassinate him. A bystander disarmed the policeman. The sheriff said he was not present when the fight occurred. He claimed he did not reach the scene until the shooting was over and that the policeman who had previously attempted to assassinate him began the trouble by shooting the sheriff's son, John.

About 20 minutes after the main battle another affray occurred nearby in which four or five shots were fired. In this fusillade Detective Jim Hart went down with the whole top of his skull blown off.

All of the dead men left large families.

ST. LOUIS, March 17.—In the fight over candidates at Grand avenue and Natural bridge road "Bud" Price, a negro, and Edward Osterhide were shot and almost instantly killed. It is alleged that ex-Detective Jack Williams did the shooting.

News That the Queen Would Sign the Peace Treaty Was Pleasing.

MADRID, March 17.—The queen regent will sign the ratification of the peace treaty to-day.

THOMASVILLE, Ga., March 17.—The news that the queen regent of Spain would sign the peace treaty ratification was telegraphed to President McKinley. The president was much gratified at the fact that this last step necessary to the end of hostile relations with Spain was assured, though never doubting such would be the outcome. Arrangements for exchange of ratifications and payment of the $20,000,000 are yet to be made, but no action by the president will be needed before he returns to Washington.

ROBERTS LIVING WITH THREE WIVES.

Minister in Philadelphia M. E. Conference Said Evidence Was Obtained.

PHILADELPHIA, March 17.—At the meeting of the M. E. conference in session at Zion church, Manayunk, a resolution was offered by Rev. Dr. Benjamin String of Manayunk, condemning the polygamous practices of Congressman Brigham H. Roberts of Utah, and asking for his expulsion from the halls of congress.

The resolution was referred to a committee for modification. Before this action was taken Rev. Dr. T. C. Liff, presiding elder of the Utah district, and one of the committee of three appointed by the Evangelical Ministerial union of that state to prepare a formal protest to be presented to the Fifty-sixth congress against Roberts' admission, stated that the committee had secured satisfactory evidence that Roberts was at present living in polygamy with three wives.

Conference Acted Against Roberts.

HARRISBURG, March 17.—The Central Pennsylvania conference, composed of 273 ministers and having a constituency of over 60,000 members, adopted resolutions protesting against Congressman-elect B. H. Roberts of Utah being seated in the Fifty-sixth congress because of his views on the polygamy question. A copy of the resolution will be sent to Congressman Mahon of Chambersburg, to be presented by him at the opening of the next session of congress.

BOARD SAW FLUID INJECTED.

But Omaha Packers Claimed It Was Salt Put In Hams.

OMAHA, March 17.—The army board of inquiry arrived in this city and started to work by looking through the packing plants at South Omaha. Particular attention was paid to the point brought in the testimony of the Philadelphia physician to the effect that he had seen meat chemically treated in the Swift plant here.

That company maintained that the operation the doctor saw was simply the injection of salt into the interior of hams for the purpose of producing an even cure. Some army officers examined said soldiers complained of the meat. Later the board left for Kansas City.

Smallpox In a Legislature.

LITTLE ROCK, March 17.—Members of the legislature were panic-stricken when it was announced that physicians had diagnosed the illness of Senator Lankford as smallpox. After an hour's debate the house voted to vaccinate all its members.

OPERA BY MANCINELLI.

First Performance In America of
"Ero e Leandro."

HISTORY OF THE GREEK OPERA.

First sung as a Cantata at the Norwegian Festival of 1896 and as an opera the next year—Libretto is by the poet Arrigo Boito—Score is of the Modern Italian School.

"Ero e Leandro," opera seria in three acts, words by Tobio Gorrio, music by Luigi Mancinelli, was performed at the Metropolitan Opera House in New York the other night for the first time in America.

Signor Mancinelli's opera was first sung as a cantata at the Norwegian festival of 1896 and as an opera the following year. It may be noted here in passing that there is or was another opera of the same name, text by Arrigo Boito and music by Giovanni Bottesini, produced at Turin on Jan. 11, 1879. For the sake of the record it may be added that Signor Mancinelli conducted and that the cast was as follows:

Prologo.....Mme. Mantelli
Ero.....Mme. Eames
Leandro.....M. Saleza
Ariopharnes.....M. Plancon
Una Voce dal Mare.....Mr. Pringle

The first act takes place in the temple of Venus at Abydos. The chorus worships the goddess, and Ariopharnes, the high priest, arrives, accompanied by Hero, Leander and others. Leander has just achieved a triumph in the Aphrodisia, and Ariopharnes commands Hero to crown him. Leander, like a true poet, announces that he will respond in song. He strikes the lyre and declaims the first ode of Anacreon. Whether Signor Gorrio intended to identify Leander with Anacreon or only to take advantage of the fact that many of the poems attributed to Anacreon are of doubtful origin makes little difference. The period of the story of Hero and Leander is sufficiently uncertain to make the librettist's license as wide as he chooses to take. It may as well be said now that the first lyric of Leander, which immediately follows the declamatory passage just referred to, is the third ode of Anacreon—that which Moore begins thus in his translation:

Twat noon of night, when round the pole
The sullen Bear is seen to roll,
And mortals, wearied with the day,
Are slumbering all their cares away.

It will be remembered by lovers of Anacreon that Cupid came to call on the amatory old poet and sent a dart into his heart. Leander sings these words to the assembly, thereby letting the audience into the secret of his love for Hero. After the stage has been cleared of all the persons of the drama except Ariopharnes and Hero the priest proceeds to expose the plot of the opera by asking Hero if she has made her choice between his love and lifelong devotion to the goddess. Hero declares for the goddess, and Ariopharnes vows vengeance. Hero, left alone, communes with a seashell and hears in its murmurings a prophecy of the fate which is in store for her lover. Leander shortly afterward comes to visit Hero in the temple at a forbidden hour and is surprised by Ariopharnes, who dissembles and pretends to overlook the transgression. He leaves the two lovers alone, and they promptly sing a love duet. At the end of it Hero, becoming distrustful of the situation, appeals to the statue of Apollo to reveal her fate, and Ariopharnes, who has hidden himself behind the statue, says, "Death!"

In the second act Ariopharnes, in the Aphrodisium, announces that he has revived an old custom. A virgin, who has renounced all earthly love, is to watch at a lonely tower near the sea and to calm its fury by her smile or her sigh. Hero is to be that virgin. She must first, however, swear to renounce all earthly love. Leander, enraged at this proposition, attacks Ariopharnes and is overpowered by the guards. There is a good deal of confusion of a sort not unfamiliar in second acts of operas, but Hero swears the fatal oath, and Leander is dragged off by the faithful guards.

The third act takes place in the tower of the Virgin, in which Hero is keeping her vigil. Not unlike Isolde, she sets a torch in the window, and in a short time young Leander enters, having swum the Hellespont in accordance with the old story. The act is short and to the point. The lovers have a brief duet, which is interrupted by a storm. To this they unfortunately pay too little attention. Hero forgets her duty of stilling the waves, and the crafty Ariopharnes comes to find out what she is doing. To save her Leander leaps into the still raging sea, and presently the back of the tower conveniently falls out and shows the unhappy man lying drowned upon a rock.

The models which have been most congenial to the talent of Signor Mancinelli are those to be found in the modern Italian school. One has no great difficulty in recognizing the influence of both Verdi and Boito in various parts of the score. In some of the harmonic sequences and in the love duet of Act I, there are also evidences of the influence of Mascagni, though it must be said that the melodic qualities of the music do not show any traces of the control of this composer or of Leoncavallo, who might easily make himself dominant in the mind of any contemporary composer not gifted with marked individuality. The influence of the clever Meyerbeer, who has held his own in the traditions of operatic construction in both France and Italy up to the present time, is noticeable only in the ground plan of the second act, in which there are some of the spectacular features originally designed by that genius of theatrical effect for the delectation of the volatile Parisians.

If, however, any one composer is to be pointed out as Signor Mancinelli's model, it is Boito, for whom in his music he evinces a special partiality. This is to be found in the color of most of the solo parts, in the treatment of the harp and in the writing of the ensembles. To this, however, one exception must be made. The fugue in chorus at the close of the second act is the result undoubtedly of the composer's admiration for the splendid mastery shown in the score of Verdi's "Falstaff," which the music lover will remember ends with a piece of strict polyphonic composition. But, as already said, the voice of Boito has sung most woefully in the ear of Signor Mancinelli. Probably the experienced opera goer will most readily recognize it in the trumpet fanfare used to announce the approach of Ariopharnes, a passage which will easily call to mind the trumpet phrase heard in the prologue of "Mefistofele." These strictures must not be construed as meaning that there is nothing in the score of the new work but thoughts taken from the operas of other men. The similarity is in the style only; the melodies are Signor Mancinelli's own, and most of them are graceful and poetic.

The choral parts and the ensembles are well made, and the orchestration is always rich in eloquent combinations of color, in which the harp provides the most uncommon tints, chiefly through its skillful employment as the foundation of the harmony in unexpected places. The vocal parts are written with the judgment of an experienced conductor, who might be expected to know what would sing well, and there are therefore numerous opportunities for the soloists to win that applause without which existence on the operatic stage would be but an idle waste of life. On the whole, the music, while not remarkable for invention, is pleasing, well made and creditable to the composer, and it has the singular merit of being always in keeping with the general character of the scene and the action.—New York Times.

HOW THE FILIPINOS FIGHT.

Their Treacherous Methods in Dealing With Our Sentries.

In a letter to friends in Wheeling, Private W. J. McKee of Company C, First Montana Volunteer Infantry, now in service in the Philippines, writes of the methods of the insurgents. In course of his description he says:

"We are posted in the ricefields among the brush, and when night darkens the rebels put on citizen's clothing and approach our lines. When we challenge them, they shout 'Amigo!' and as they look like inoffensive civilians they are sometimes permitted to pass. In passing the sentry they watch their chance and jump on him with the long blades they carry beneath their white outer garments and attempt to slash him across the throat. Our outposts have been attacked every night, but the troopers have managed to escape without being killed, although many of them have been disfigured for life by the ugly knives carried by the insurgents. Orders have been issued to kill every native who attempts to pass the lines at night."

Private McKee relates the story of the brave fight of Private Fred Schmidt of Company E, South Dakota volunteers. The trooper was on outpost duty and was attacked by two Filipino warriors in citizen's clothing. One made a dash at Schmidt's throat, cutting away the muscles of one side of his jaw. Although bleeding and terribly slashed over the face the outpost loaded his rifle and shot one of his assailants. The other one ran, but a long distance shot by the wounded soldier brought him down, and his body was found in the rice grass the next morning pierced through. Schmidt will likely receive the military reward his brave conduct deserves.—New York Sun.

Weird Scene in a Trial.

The dramatic moment of the trial came when Mrs. Zerelda Samuels, grandmother of Jesse James, took the stand and was asked to take the oath at Kansas City recently. She could not put up her right hand, for that had been blown off years ago, when detectives surrounded her house and demanded the surrender of her son, Jesse James, Sr., and, on her refusal, blew up the house with dynamite. When she took the oath, the old woman—she is 74—held up what remained of her right arm. She made a weird, almost uncanny, picture in the courtroom, and profound silence prevailed while the oath was administered.—St. Louis Republic.

NEW POSTAGE STAMPS.

Designs of a Special Set Prepared For Cuba.

TO BE USED UNTIL ISLAND IS FREED

The Issue Will Consist of One, Two, Three, Five and Ten Cent Stamps. Cost of Plates and Printing the Stamps to Be Charged Against Cuban Revenues.

The postoffice department at Washington is preparing to issue a special set of stamps for Cuba, and the designs have been approved by the postmaster general. The issue will consist of 1, 2, 3, 5 and 10 cent stamps. Director Rathbone of the Cuban mail service wishes to have a few stamps of larger denominations, and the matter is held up pending further information from him.

The designs were prepared at the bureau of printing and engraving from pictures furnished by the postoffice department. The 1 cent, or 1 centavo, stamp has the word Cuba across the top, with a "1" in each of the lower corners. In the center is a picture of the statue of Columbus in the courtyard of the palace of the captain general in Havana. It will be printed in green. There are two designs for the 2 centavo stamp. The first has Cuba across the top, with a plantation scene in the center and "2 centavos" at the bottom. The other has the plantation scene in the upper left hand corner, with the word Cuba across the center, the figure 2 underneath and centavos at the bottom. The first gives more prominence to the plantation. This stamp will be in red.

The 3 cent stamp has the word Cuba across the top, and in the center is a representation of the allegorical figure of Cuba which stands in the plaza of Havana, a woman seated on a throne. It is called "La Cubana." On either side of the figure is the figure 3 and at the bottom the word centavos. The 5 cent stamp has the picture of a merchant steamer at full speed, typifying commerce. On the side is a wealth of palms and tropical foliage and at the top the word Cuba. Across the bottom is "5 centavos." On the 10 cent stamp is depicted a farming scene in Cuba. A Cuban is driving two oxen harnessed to the primitive plow in use in the island with the long upright stick by which it is guided. The word Cuba appears at the top, with the figures 10 on either side and centavos in a semicircle above the picture.

The plates will be prepared and the stamps printed at the bureau of engraving and printing, Washington, and their cost charged against the Cuban revenues. They will be used on the island until Cuba is declared free, when the Cuban government will be at liberty to continue their use or not as it sees fit. The use of the stamps will be another evidence of the intention of the government to free Cuba.

It is the first time in the history of the postoffice department that it has been called upon to prepare stamps for another country. At present two kinds of stamps are in use in Cuba, the regulation United States stamp and the same stamp with the word Cuba and the denomination in Spanish imprinted across the face in red, similar to the imprinted revenue stamps issued when the war act went into effect. The department prepared the imprinted stamps for the Cuba mail service, but finally consented to permit the use of the regular ordinary United States stamps to accommodate the soldiers, who had taken quantities of stamps with them to Cuba.

In Porto Rico the stamps now in use are the ordinary United States stamps, with the words "Porto Rico" and the value printed across the face in Spanish. The department does not contemplate at present making any issue of stamps for Porto Rico similar to the Cuban issue. Later stamps may be prepared for the island, but they will be the United States stamps, with simply the denominations in Spanish and possibly the words Porto Rico on them.

In the Philippines the United States stamp is used exclusively at present and without any imprint. A series of stamps may be prepared for them. No stamps except those for Cuba, however, will be prepared for the colonies until after the ratification of the treaty of peace is exchanged.—New York Sun.

TESTING A WIRE WOUND GUN

First of Fifty Under the Brown Patent Proves a Success.

The first of 50 of the Brown segmental tube wire guns was tested successfully at Birdsboro the other day under official auspices for the government. The shots attained a velocity of 2,800 feet a second, 100 feet better than requirements, and the shot was light. These tests will continue for several days until at least 500 shots are fired.

The gun tested is 5 inch caliber and weighs 3½ tons. Its length is 19 feet. The company has a contract for 25 of the 5 inch and 25 of the 6 inch. The 6 inch weigh 19 tons and are 20 feet long. They are to cost $10,000 each, or $500,000 for the 50. The 10 inch gun of the same kind that is now being built at the Scott works in Reading weighs more than 30 tons and is nearly 40 feet long. It is expected that this gun will be tested in about four months.

The tests are under the supervision of Captain Ira MacNutt of the ordnance department. Edward M. Gage, government inspector, has been overlooking the work of building and firing. The highest pressure reached was more than 30,000 pounds.—New York Press.

BATHTUB STIRS BAD LANDS.

Cowboys Will Take No Action, as Its Buyer Is Popular.

C. K. Howard of Sioux Falls, S. D., president of the Western South Dakota Stock Growers' association, who owns a mammoth cattle ranch on the Cheyenne river, in the western part of the state, evidently aspires to be the Ward McAllister of South Dakota cattlemen. He has recently let a contract for the construction of a ranch house which when completed will be the finest of the kind in the state.

The structure will have all modern improvements and will contain seven rooms, among them a bathroom, with hot and cold water fixtures. This feature of the new dwelling will be scoffed at by the "cow punchers" in that locality who are themselves content to take their "dips" in the waters of the swift flowing Cheyenne.

Were it not for the fact that Howard is very popular with them they would show violent resentment to these evidences of effete eastern civilization. As it is, their feelings are deeply wounded at the invasion of their territory by a bathtub, which they pronounce the invention of a dude "tenderfoot."—Chicago Times-Herald.

American Locomotives For China.

The Baldwin locomotive works at Philadelphia recently closed a contract for the building of 81 locomotives, the largest single order ever received by that company. The locomotives are for use on new railroads now under construction in China. The contract was under consideration about a year ago, but the breaking out of the war with Spain opened up such an element of doubt regarding the safe delivery of the engines that the matter was dropped for the time. The negotiations were recently renewed and have just been brought to a conclusion and the contract signed. Over $800,000 is involved in the work, and the Baldwin company will rapidly push the construction of the engines. Shipment to China will begin probably in the course of a few weeks.—Baltimore American.

Dewey's Puzzling Request.

The navy department has received from Admiral Dewey a request for 3,000 steel coal baskets. The request has mystified the navy department officials. No such thing as steel coal baskets are used in the navy. It was said at the navy department the other night that Admiral Dewey had probably seen some steel coal baskets, which he thought would be of utility to his fleet, yet why he should need them at all, and especially why he should want such a great number of them, could not be conjectured. However, whatever Admiral Dewey wants "goes," and if any such thing as steel coal baskets can be found on the market or be manufactured in the United States, they will be sent to him.—Washington Cor. St. Louis Globe-Democrat.

Sam Sloan's Recipe For Success.

Samuel Sloan, who recently retired from the presidency of the Delaware, Lackawanna and Western railroad at the ripe old age of 82, began his remarkable career without a penny, and he retires with many millions. He explains his success in accumulating a fortune by saying that when he first went to work, no matter what his salary was, he saved some of it. The first $1,000 was the hardest to get, but it grew to $5,000, and then to higher figures. "Economy is one of the most important roads to wealth. When I say economy, I do not mean sordidness, but I do mean a proper appreciation of the value of money. Given proper economy, integrity, earnestness, application to detail, and you will win every time."—Kansas City Journal.

Rudyard Kipling.

[The newspapers reported that during the progress of the late blizzard on the Atlantic coast Mr. Kipling made anxious inquiries about the overdue steamships.]

The winds of the north had joined their force,
And a tempest swept the main,
And the ships were fighting their way to port
Through the wintry hurricane.

The air was white with the whirling snow,
And the sea was white with foam,
And the masts and the decks were sheeted in ice
As the ships were battling home.

"Are the ships all in?" said the poet of the sea
As he lay on his fever bed;
"Are the ships all in?" 'Twas his deepest heart
That spoke in the words he said.

"Are the ships all in?" said the man who loved

All the seven seas he had sung,
The laureate poet of the worldwide race
Who speak his English tongue.

You can always measure race of men
And tell are they truly brave,
If they master not only the solid shore,
But also the rolling wave.

The land is only one-half of the world,
And the other half is the sea,
And a nation must care for sailors and ships
If it would be great and free.

"Are the ships all in?" Let the winds blow high—
Let the angry billows roar!
Yet the ships are safe when a love like this
Waits and watches upon the shore.

TO ALL PEOPLE

Do You Desire Clean Municipal Government?

YOU HAVE IT IN YOUR POWER

True Republicans Dread Disaster to Their party by and Through the Nomination of inefficient and incompetent Candidates at the Primaries--Some Councilmen Now in Power Are Seeking Re-election From Selfish Motives--Be careful--The Position of the News Review.

The NEWS REVIEW is Republican. It has been a life-long member of the party. We are good citizens, backed by a multitude of good citizens. We love clean government. We love East Liverpool. We love law and order. We believe in the enforcement of existing laws and ordinances. We believe in placing men in council who cannot be bought and sold. We believe in placing men in council who will legislate for the people and not against them. As business men, we believe that a man or woman should have "value received" following all outlay of money or labor. We believe in councilmen who vote honestly and intelligently. We cannot be deceived by cheap clap-trap plays and changing of votes, in order that this certain councilman can, backed by councilmen like unto him, effect their bad work against the people, win out with the infamous "dollar" clause of the gas company, and at the same time draw votes to Mr. Challis and make his election possible. The wolf under the SHEEP'S woolly coat is plain to the eyes of every honest and clear visioned voter. No thinking man, loving his party and loving clean government, will be deceived by such trickery and such change of vote. Mr. Challis voted in favor of the measure which enables the gas company to take MONEY out of the poor man's pocket and give NOTHING in return. Then, when he knew the company had affairs their own way, without the use of his vote, he enacted the part of the "wolf in sheep's clothing."

True Republicans will agree with the statement of the so-called leaders of local politics that at the primaries is the proper place to enter protest against the nomination of bad or unfit candidates; and right here, before the primaries, we warn the so-called leaders to be wise, and not aid in putting bad men in the front.

Every TRUE Republican in the First ward knows that Mr. Challis has no right to be in our city council. His vote AGAINST the working man, and in FAVOR of the gas company, is proof positive that he is an enemy of the masses--of the poor man and the poor woman, those who have a struggle to meet JUST demands made against them without being compelled, by Mr. Challis' vote, to pay a dollar each month for something which they did not receive--a clear case of robbery; "hands up;" "stand and deliver;" "might makes right, and Messrs. Challis, Seckerson, Cain, Olnhausen and Stewart, OUR councilmen, have given us the right to rob the people."

Will the people stand such nonsense, such injustice, such robbery, and such conduct on the part of these five councilmen? We think not.

The Ohio Valley Gas company has given East Liverpool splendid fuel, especially during the terribly cold weather which controlled a few weeks since, and the Ohio Valley Gas company has the right to expect and ought to have a liberal percentage upon their heavy investment. The officers of the Ohio Valley Gas company have always been courteous and clever in the extreme to the writer and to the NEWS REVIEW company, which pays full rates for fuel furnished and asks no special favors, as this company gets value received in the shape of plenty of good gas. But the "dollar" clause, in our judgment, is one of absolute injustice, and our only wonder is that a gas company, officered as is the Ohio Valley Gas company, would attempt to enforce the "dollar" clause. But a still greater wonder is that FIVE COUNCILMEN, Challis, Olnhausen, Seckerson, Cain and Stewart, could be PERSAUDED to cast their votes for such a measure--DIRECTLY AGAINST THE PEOPLE.

The councilman who works for Challis, or for any member of council who voted in favor of the "dollar" clause, is an enemy of the people and should be marked and defeated when the proper time arrives. Such councilmen have an "axe to grind," and they want to do the grinding at the expense of the people, and the people should see to it that such men, when they want axes ground, should do so at their own expense, as the masses desire no further burden of useless taxation, and further desire, and will carry the desire into effect at the proper time, that such selfish councilmen shall step down and out of office.

The NEWS REVIEW is Republican from center to circumference. But it is clean Republicanism we advocate and rejoice in. Not that class of Republicans who are in the party simply for the "spoils of office," and who have not, at heart, the lasting good of the grand old party, a party which has such a magnificent record in the past, is a mighty power in the present, and will continue to be a power just as long as it advocates and enforces pure principles of honest government, free as possible from trickery and chicanery.

And lastly. See to it that good men and true are placed in nomination tomorrow, Saturday, March 18, for positions in our local offices. A vote against the men who favored the "dollar" clause of the gas company, is a vote against the men who are the enemies of the people.

A HOSPITAL

Has Been Opened In Wucherer Addition by the Trustees.

To the township trustees belong the credit of starting the first hospital.

When it became known that they would have to care for Joseph Heintz, who was ill with pneumonia, they rented a house in Wucherer's addition, had a couple of cots placed in it and employed George Buchheit to nurse him.

Last evening Heintz was removed to the temporary hospital and will be well cared for. It was deemed cheaper to rent a house than to secure a room. The infirmity directors were notified, and it is probable they will ratify the action taken by the trustees.

George Peach defies any living man to show that he ever voted in council for any measure which was against the interests of the people at large. He is a business man, and looks carefully after the business interests of this city.

"Ero e Leandro."

HISTORY OF THE GREEK OPERA.

First sung as a Cantata at the Norwich Festival of 1896 and as an opera the next year—Libretto is by the poet Arrigo Boito—Score is of the Modern Italian School.

"Ero e Leandro," opera seria in three acts, words by Tobio Gorrio, music by Luigi Mancinelli, was performed at the Metropolitan Opera House in New York the other night for the first time in America.

Signor Mancinelli's opera was first sung as a cantata at the Norwich festival of 1896 and as an opera the following year. It may be noted here in passing that there is or was another opera of the same name, text by Arrigo Boito and music by Giovanni Bottesini, produced at Turin on Jan. 11, 1879. For the sake of the record it may be added that Signor Mancinelli conducted and that the cast was as follows:

Prologo.....Mme. Mantelli
Ero.....Mme. Eames
Leandro.....M. Saleza
Ariopharnes.....M. Plancon
Una Voce dal Mare.....Mr. Pringle

The first act takes place in the temple of Venus at Abydos. The chorus worships the goddess, and Ariopharnes, the high priest, arrives, accompanied by Hero, Leander and others. Leander has just achieved a triumph in the Aphrodisia, and Ariopharnes commands Hero to crown him. Leander, like a true poet, announces that he will respond in song. He strikes the lyre and declaims the first ode of Anacreon. Whether Signor Gorrio intended to identify Leander with Anacreon or only to take advantage of the fact that many of the poems attributed to Anacreon are of doubtful origin makes little difference. The period of the story of Hero and Leander is sufficiently uncertain to make the librettist's license as wide as he chooses to take. It may as well be said now that the first lyric of Leander, which immediately follows the declamatory passage just referred to, is the third ode of Anacreon—that which Moore begins thus in his translation:

Twain noon of night, when round the pole
The sullen Bear is seen to roll,
And mortals, wearied with the day,
Are slumbering all their cares away.

It will be remembered by lovers of Anacreon that Cupid came to call on the amatory old poet and sent a dart into his heart. Leander sings these words to the assembly, thereby letting the audience into the secret of his love for Hero. After the stage has been cleared of all the persons of the drama except Ariopharnes and Hero the priest proceeds to expose the plot of the opera by asking Hero if she has made her choice between his love and lifelong devotion to the goddess. Hero declares for the goddess, and Ariopharnes vows vengeance. Hero, left alone, communes with a seashell and hears in its murmurings a prophecy of the fate which is in store for her lover. Leander shortly afterward comes to visit Hero in the temple at a forbidden hour and is surprised by Ariopharnes, who dissembles and pretends to overlook the transgression. He leaves the two lovers alone, and they promptly sing a love duet. At the end of it Hero, becoming distrustful of the situation, appeals to the statue of Apollo to reveal her fate, and Ariopharnes, who has hidden himself behind the statue, says, "Death!"

In the second act Ariopharnes, in the Aphrodisium, announces that he has revived an old custom. A virgin, who has renounced all earthly love, is to watch at a lonely tower near the sea and to calm its fury by her smile or her sigh. Hero is to be that virgin. She must first, however, swear to renounce all earthly love. Leander, enraged at this proposition, attacks Ariopharnes and is overpowered by the guards. There is a good deal of confusion of a sort not unfamiliar in second acts of operas, but Hero swears the fatal oath, and Leander is dragged off by the faithful guards.

The third act takes place in the tower of the Virgin, in which Hero is keeping her vigil. Not unlike Isolde, she sets a torch in the window, and in a short time young Leander enters, having swum the Hellespont in accordance with the old story. The act is short and to the point. The lovers have a brief duet, which is interrupted by a storm. To this they unfortunately pay too little attention. Hero forgets her duty of stilling the waves, and the crafty Ariopharnes comes to find out what she is doing. To save her Leander leaps into the still raging sea, and presently the back of the tower conveniently falls out and shows the unhappy man lying drowned upon a rock.

The models which have been most congenial to the talent of Signor Mancinelli are those to be found in the modern Italian school. One has no great difficulty in recognizing the influence of both Verdi and Boito in various parts of the score. In some of the harmonic sequences and in the love duet of Act I, there are also evidences of the influence of Mascagni, though it must be said that the melodic qualities of the music do not show any traces of the control of this composer or of Leoncavallo, who might easily make himself dominant in the mind of any contemporaneous composer not gifted with marked individuality. The influence of the clever Meyerbeer, who has held his own in the traditions of operatic construction in both France and Italy up to the present time, is noticeable only in the ground plan of the second act, in which there are some of the spectacular features originally designed by that genius of theatrical effect for the delectation of the volatile Parisians.

If, however, any one composer is to be pointed out as Signor Mancinelli's model, it is Boito, for whom in his music he avines a special partiality. This is to be found in the color of most of the solo parts, in the treatment of the harp and in the writing of the ensembles. To this, however, one exception must be made. The fugue in chorons at the close of the second act is the result undoubtedly of the composer's admiration for the splendid mastery shown in the score of Verdi's "Falstaff," which the music lover will remember ends with a piece of strict polyphonic composition. But, as already said, the voice of Boito has sung most woefully in the ear of Signor Mancinelli. Probably the experienced opera goer will most readily recognize it in the trumpet fanfare used to announce the approach of Ariopharnes, a passage which will easily call to mind the trumpet phrase heard in the prologue of "Medistofele." These strictures must not be construed as meaning that there is nothing in the score of the new work but thoughts taken from the operas of other men. The similarity is in the style only, the melodies are Signor Mancinelli's own, and most of them are graceful and poetic.

The choral parts and the ensembles are well made, and the orchestration is always rich in eloquent combinations of color, in which the harp provides the most uncommon tints, chiefly through its skillful employment as the foundation of the harmony in unexpected places. The vocal parts are written with the judgment of an experienced conductor, who might be expected to know what would sing well, and there are therefore numerous opportunities for the soloists to win that applause without which existence on the operatic stage would be but an idle waste of life. On the whole, the music, while not remarkable for invention, is pleasing, well made and creditable to the composer, and it has the singular merit of being always in keeping with the general character of the scene and the action.—New York Times.

HOW THE FILIPINOS FIGHT.

Their Treacherous Methods in Dealing With Our Sentries.

In a letter to friends in Wheeling, Private W. J. McKee of Company C, First Montana Volunteer infantry, now in service in the Philippines, writes of the methods of the insurgents. In course of his description he says:

"We are posted in the ricefields among the brush, and when night darkens the rebels put on citizen's clothing and approach our lines. When we challenge them, they shout 'Amigo!' and as they look like inoffensive civilians they are sometimes permitted to pass. In passing the sentry they watch their chance and jump on him with the long blades they carry beneath their white outer garments and attempt to slash him across the throat. Our outposts have been attacked every night, but the troopers have managed to escape without being killed, although many of them have been disfigured for life by the ugly knives carried by the insurgents. Orders have been issued to kill every native who attempts to pass the lines at night."

Private McKee relates the story of the brave fight of Private Fred Schmidt of Company F, South Dakota volunteers. The trooper was on outpost duty and was attacked by two Filipino warriors in citizens' clothing. One made a dash at Schmidt's throat, cutting away the muscles of one side of his jaw. Although bleeding and terribly slashed over the face the outpost loaded his rifle and shot one of his assailants. The other one ran, but a long distance shot by the wounded soldier brought him down, and his body was found in the rice grass the next morning pierced through. Schmidt will likely receive the military reward his brave conduct deserves.—New York Sun.

Weird Scene in a Trial.

The dramatic moment of the trial came when Mrs. Zerelda Samuels, grandmother of Jesse James, took the stand and was asked to take the oath at Kansas City recently. She could not put up her right hand, for that had been blown off years ago, when detectives surrounded her house and demanded the surrender of her son, Jesse James, Sr., and on her refusal, blew up the house with dynamite. When she took the oath, the old woman—she is 74—held up what remained of her right arm. She made a weird, almost uncanny, picture in the courtroom, and profound silence prevailed while the oath was administered.—St. Louis Republic.

The largest price ever asked and paid for a single pearl was $550,000, which was the value of the great Tavernier pearl. It is the largest and most perfect gem of its kind known. It is exactly two inches in length and oval shaped.

NEW POSTAGE STAMPS.

Designs of a Special Set Prepared For Cuba.

TO BE USED UNTIL ISLAND IS FREED

The Issue Will Consist of One, Two, Three, Five and Ten Cent Stamps. Cost of Plates and Printing the Stamps to Be Charged Against Cuban Revenues.

The postoffice department at Washington is preparing to issue a special set of stamps for Cuba, and the designs have been approved by the postmaster general. The issue will consist of 1, 2, 3, 5 and 10 cent stamps. Director Rathbone of the Cuban mail service wishes to have a few stamps of larger denominations, and the matter is held up pending further information from him.

The designs were prepared at the bureau of printing and engraving from pictures furnished by the postoffice department. The 1 cent, or 1 centavo, stamp has the word Cuba across the top, with a "1" in each of the lower corners. In the center is a picture of the statue of Columbus in the courtyard of the palace of the captain general in Havana. It will be printed in green. There are two designs for the 3 centavo stamp. The first has Cuba across the top, with a plantation scene in the center and "3 centavos" at the bottom. The other has the plantation scene in the upper left hand corner, with the word Cuba across the center, the figure 3 underneath and centavos at the bottom. The first gives more prominence to the plantation. This stamp will be in red.

The 5 cent stamp has the word Cuba across the top, and in the center is a representation of the allegorical figure of Cuba which stands in the plaza of Havana, a woman seated on a throne. It is called "La Cubana." On either side of the figure is the figure 5 and at the bottom the word centavos. The 10 cent stamp has the picture of a merchant steamer at full speed, typifying commerce. On the side is a wealth of palms and tropical foliage and at the top the word Cuba. Across the bottom is "10 centavos." On the 10 cent stamp is depicted a farming scene in Cuba. A Cuban is driving two oxen harnessed to the primitive plow in use in the island with the long upright stick by which it is guided. The word Cuba appears at the top, with the figures 10 on either side and centavos in a semicircle above the picture.

The plates will be prepared and the stamps printed at the bureau of engraving and printing, Washington, and their cost charged against the Cuban revenues. They will be used on the island until Cuba is declared free, when the Cuban government will be at liberty to continue their use or not as it sees fit. The use of the stamps will be another evidence of the intention of the government to free Cuba.

It is the first time in the history of the postoffice department that it has been called upon to prepare stamps for another country. At present two kinds of stamps are in use in Cuba, the regulation United States stamp and the same stamp with the word Cuba and the denomination in Spanish imprinted across the face in red, similar to the imprinted revenue stamps issued when the war act went into effect. The department prepared the imprinted stamps for the Cuba mail service, but finally consented to permit the use of the regular ordinary United States stamps to accommodate the soldiers, who had taken quantities of stamps with them to Cuba.

In Porto Rico the stamps now in use are the ordinary United States stamps, with the words "Porto Rico" and the value printed across the face in Spanish. The department does not contemplate at present making any issue of stamps for Porto Rico similar to the Cuban issue. Later stamps may be prepared for the island, but they will be the United States stamps, with simply the denominations in Spanish and possibly the words Porto Rico on them.

In the Philippines the United States stamp is used exclusively at present and without any imprint. A series of stamps may be prepared for them. No stamps except those for Cuba, however, will be prepared for the colonies until after the ratification of the treaty of peace is exchanged.—New York Sun.

TESTING A WIRE WOUND GUN

First of Fifty Under the Brown Patent Proves a Success.

The first of 50 of the Brown segmental tube wire guns was tested successfully at Birdsboro, the other day under official auspices for the government. The shots attained a velocity of 2,800 feet a second, 100 feet better than requirements, and the shot was light. These tests will continue for several days until at least 500 shots are fired.

The gun tested is 5 inch caliber and weighs 3½ tons. Its length is 19 feet. The company has a contract for 25 of the 5 inch and 25 of the 6 inch. The 6 inch weigh 10 tons and are 20 feet long. They are to cost $10,000 each, or $500,000 for the 50. The 10 inch gun of the same kind that is now being built at the Scott works in Reading weighs more than 30 tons and is nearly 40 feet long. It is expected that this gun will be tested in about four months.

The tests are under the supervision of Captain Ira MacNutt of the ordnance department. Edward M. Gage, government inspector, has been overlooking the work of building and firing. The highest pressure reached was more than 30,000 pounds.—New York Press.

BATHTUB STIRS BAD LANDS.

Cowboys Will Take No Action, as Its Buyer Is Popular.

C. K. Howard of Sioux Falls, S. D., president of the Western South Dakota Stock Growers' association, who owns a mammoth cattle ranch on the Cheyenne river, in the western part of the state, evidently aspires to be the Ward McAllister of South Dakota cattlemen. He has recently let a contract for the construction of a ranch house which when completed will be the finest of the kind in the state.

The structure will have all modern improvements and will contain seven rooms, among them a bathroom, with hot and cold water fixtures. This feature of the new dwelling will be scoffed at by the "cow punchers" in that locality who are themselves content to take their "dips" in the waters of the swift flowing Cheyenne.

Were it not for the fact that Howard is very popular with them they would show violent resentment to these evidences of effete eastern civilization. As it is, their feelings are deeply wounded at the invasion of their territory by a bathtub, which they pronounce the invention of a dude "tenderfoot"—Chicago Times-Herald.

American Locomotives For China.

The Baldwin locomotive works at Philadelphia recently closed a contract for the building of 81 locomotives, the largest single order ever received by that company. The locomotives are for use on new railroads now under construction in China. The contract was under consideration about a year ago, but the breaking out of the war with Spain opened up such an element of doubt regarding the safe delivery of the engines that the matter was dropped for the time. The negotiations were recently renewed and have just been brought to a conclusion and the contract signed. Over $800,000 is involved in the work, and the Baldwin company will rapidly push the construction of the engines. Shipment to China will begin probably in the course of a few weeks.—Baltimore American.

Dewey's Puzzling Request.

The navy department has received from Admiral Dewey a request for 3,000 steel coal baskets. The request has mystified the navy department officials. No such thing as steel coal baskets are used in the navy. It was said at the navy department the other night that Admiral Dewey had probably seen some steel coal baskets, which he thought would be of utility to his fleet, yet why he should need them at all, and especially why he should want such a great number of them, could not be conjectured. However, whatever Admiral Dewey wants "goes," and if any such thing as steel coal baskets can be found on the market or be manufactured in the United States, they will be sent to him.—Washington Cor. St. Louis Globe-Democrat.

Sam Sloan's Recipe For Success.

Samuel Sloan, who recently retired from the presidency of the Delaware, Lackawanna and Western railroad at the ripe old age of 82, began his remarkable career without a penny, and he retires with many millions. He explains his success in accumulating a fortune by saying that when he first went to work, no matter what his salary was, he saved some of it. The first $1,000 was the hardest to get, but it grew to $5,000, and then to higher figures. "Economy is one of the most important roads to wealth. When I say economy, I do not mean sordidness, but I do mean a proper appreciation of the value of money. Given proper economy, integrity, earnestness, application to detail, and you will win every time."—Kansas City Journal.

Rudyard Kipling.

[The newspapers reported that during the progress of the late blizzard on the Atlantic coast Mr. Kipling made anxious inquiries about the overdue steamships.]

The winds of the north had joined their force,
And a tempest swept the main,
And the ships were fighting their way to port
Through the wintry hurricane.

The air was white with the whirling snow,
And the sea was white with foam,
And the masts and the decks were sheeted in ice
As the ships were battling home.

"Are the ships all in?" said the poet of the sea
As he lay on his fever bed;
"Are the ships all in?" 'Twas his deepest heart
That spoke in the words he said.

"Are the ships all in?" said the man who loved
All the seven seas he had sung,
The laureate poet of the worldwide race
Who speak his English tongue.

You can always measure race of men
And tell are they truly brave,
If they master not only the solid shore,
But also the rolling wave.

The land is only one-half of the world,
And the other half is the sea,
And a nation must care for sailors and ships
If it would be great and free.

"Are the ships all in?" Let the winds blow high—
Let the angry billows roar!
Yet the ships are safe when a love like this
Waits and watches upon the shore.

FATAL ELECTION ROWS.

Five Men Killed and One Wounded at Hot Springs, Ark.—Two Killed in Missouri.

HOT SPRINGS, Ark., March 17.—A shooting occurred here which resulted in the death of five men and the serious wounding of one man. The killed are: Thomas Toler, chief of police. J. E. Hart, city detective. Thomas F. Goslee, police sergeant. John Williams, son of sheriff Williams.

Louis Hinkle, driver of a brewery wagon. Ed Spears was shot in the neck and may die.

The shooting grew out of the mayoralty campaign under way here. The sheriff was a warm supporter of the regular Democratic nominee, while Toler, Hart and Goslee were supporting an opposition candidate.

Early in the day shots were exchanged between Sheriff Williams and his son John on the one side and Sergeant Goslee on the other, but no one was injured. Toler, Hart and Goslee were walking south on Central avenue when they met Sheriff Williams' two sons, John and Coffey, and Ed Spears. There was soon a general fusillade in which 40 or 50 shots were exchanged. When it was over Toler, Hart, Goslee and Hinkle, a noncombatant, were dead and John Williams was mortally wounded. Williams died about an hour later. Louis Hinkle attempted to separate the combatants when the fight opened and was killed.

Order was easily restored. Saloons were closed. The sheriff and his son Coffey are under arrest, and no further trouble is anticipated.

Sheriff Williams said a policeman previously attempted to assassinate him. A bystander disarmed the policeman. The sheriff said he was not present when the fight occurred. He claimed he did not reach the scene until the shooting was over and that the policeman who had previously attempted to assassinate him began the trouble by shooting the sheriff's son, John.

About 20 minutes after the main battle another affray occurred nearby in which four or five shots were fired. In this fusillade Detective Jim Hart went down with the whole top of his skull blown off.

All of the dead men left large families.

ST. LOUIS, March 17.—In the fight over candidates at Grand avenue and Natural bridge road "Bud" Price, a negro, and Edward Osterhide were shot and almost instantly killed. It is alleged that ex-Detective Jack Williams did the shooting.

PRESIDENT GRATIFIED.

News That the Queen Would Sign the Peace Treaty Was Pleasing.

MADRID, March 17.—The queen regent will sign the ratification of the peace treaty to-day.

THOMASVILLE, Ga., March 17.—The news that the queen regent of Spain would sign the peace treaty ratification was telegraphed to President McKinley. The president was much gratified at the fact that this last step necessary to the end of hostile relations with Spain was assured, though never doubting such would be the outcome. Arrangements for exchange of ratifications and payment of the $20,000,000 are yet to be made, but no action by the president will be needed before he returns to Washington.

ROBERTS LIVING WITH THREE WIVES.

Minister in Philadelphia M. E. Conference Said Evidence Was Obtained.

PHILADELPHIA, March 17.—At the meeting of the M. E. conference in session at Zion church, Manayunk, a resolution was offered by Rev. Dr. Benjamin String of Manayunk, condemning the polygamous practices of Congressman Brigham H. Roberts of Utah, and asking for his expulsion from the halls of congress.

The resolution was referred to a committee for modification. Before this action was taken Rev. Dr. T. C. Iliff, presiding elder of the Utah district, and one of the committee of three appointed by the Evangelical Ministerial union of that state to prepare a formal protest to be presented to the Fifty-sixth congress against Roberts' admission, stated that the committee had secured satisfactory evidence that Roberts was at present living in polygamy with three wives.

Conference Acted Against Roberts.

HARRISBURG, March 17.—The Central Pennsylvania conference, composed of 273 ministers and having a constituency of over 60,000 members, adopted resolutions protesting against Congressman-elect B. H. Roberts of Utah being seated in the Fifty-sixth congress because of his views on the polygamy question. A copy of the resolution will be sent to Congressman Mahon of Chambersburg, to be presented by him at the opening of the next session of congress.

To Buy Bethlehem Works.

PHILADELPHIA, March 17.—There was being formed in this city a syndicate of prominent Philadelphia bankers who will furnish the capital for a corporation to be known as the Bethlehem Steel company, the purpose of the incorporators being to acquire the property and business of the famous Bethlehem Iron company, which was founded in 1857, at South Bethlehem, Pa.

Roosevelt's Electrocution Directions.

ALBANY, March 17.—Governor Roosevelt sent to Warden Sage of the Sing Sing prison a letter giving directions as to details for the execution of Mrs. Place to make it as unsensational as possible. He suggested that one woman attendant be provided and that one of the physicians be a woman.

BOARD SAW FLUID INJECTED.

But Omaha Packers Claimed It Was Salt Put in Hams.

OMAHA, March 17.—The army board of inquiry arrived in this city and started to work by looking through the packing plants at South Omaha. Particular attention was paid to the point brought in the testimony of the Philadelphia physician to the effect that he had seen meat chemically treated in the Swift plant here.

That company maintained that the operation the doctor saw was simply the injection of salt into the interior of hams for the purpose of producing an even cure. Some army officers examined said soldiers complained of the meat. Later the board left for Kansas City.

DID GREAT FIGHTING.

A Battalion of the Twentieth Routed Rebels.

FORTIFIED VILLAGE TAKEN.

Filipinos Had an Advantage and Poured in a Heavy Fire — Two of Our Men Killed and Some Wounded — Man Killed Near Caloocan.

MANILA, March 17.—The strongly fortified village of Cuitai, northwest of Pasig, was captured Thursday after a desperate fight by the Twentieth infantry.

The Americans lost 17 wounded, while the rebels' loss was heavy.

The insurgents at the outposts and in the trenches beyond Caloocan fired several volleys Wednesday night upon the Kansas volunteers and a part of the Fourth regulars, desiring, it is supposed, to discover if the American line had been thinned by the movement of General Wheaton's command. The Americans in the trenches replied warmly to the fire.

H. Y. Beecher of Company A of the Montana regiment was killed in the engagement.

A battalion of the Twentieth regular infantry routed a small band of Filipinos on the Laguna road and some sharpshooters who were firing from a house over which a French flag was flying were dislodged.

A gunboat entered the lake and silenced a small battery in the foothills.

The First battalion of the Twentieth infantry regiment advanced from Pasig Thursday, clearing the country to Cainta, a well defended village of 700 inhabitants five miles northwest of the foothills.

The troops first encountered the rebel outposts in the dense jungle on the banks of the river. The enemy was dislodged after about a half an hour's fighting. The Americans advanced in splendid order under a heavy fire until it was necessary to volley the rebels from the trenches. The latter had a great advantage and dropped a number of our men. The Americans charged across the rice fields, making four charges on the enemy, who numbered 1,000 men, 500 of whom were entrenched, and in the face of a crossfire.

Our troops, however, carried the town after four hours' fighting and burned the outskirts the rebels firing from the windows and keeping up a running fire in the streets. The Americans then withdrew in order to obtain more ammunition. The rebels lost about 100 men.

The following Americans were killed: Corporal Johnson of Co. C.

Private McAvoy of Co. L.

In addition the following Americans were wounded:

Sergeant Check, Co. L.

Corporal Households, Co. M.

Private Kelly, Co. C.

WASHINGTON, March 17.—The following from General Otis reached the war department:

"MANILA, March 16.

Cebu quiet; business progressing under United States protection; reports from Samar and Lyte indicate desire of inhabitants for United States troops; these islands occupied; insurgents' control confined to Luzon and the occupation of the Pasig river line with control of Laguna de Bay has cut the country occupied by the Tagalos in nearly two equal parts.

General Otis reported the following casualties:

"MANILA, March 16.

EDITOR MEDILL DEAD.

Once Practiced Law and Ran Newspapers in Ohio—Founded Cleveland Leader—Brought Out Lincoln.

SAN ANTONIO, March 17.—Joseph Medill, editor of the Chicago Tribune, died here of heart failure. He was conscious up to the moment of his death, which he met with calm placidity. He said to his physician, ten minutes before he died: "My last words shall be 'what is the news?'" He was born April 6, 1823.

In 1855 he opened a law office in New Philadelphia, O., having as a partner George W. McIlvane, who afterward became chief justice of the Ohio supreme court. In 1849 he gave up his practice and established the Coshooton Republican, which he conducted for three years as a Free Soil Whig paper. In 1852 he moved to Cleveland, where he founded The Daily Forest City. Later, he merged his paper with The True Democrat and thus became the founder of the Cleveland Leader of today.

In 1854 Mr. Medill sold the Cleveland Leader and went to Chicago with his associate, J. C. Vaughn. With Dr. C. H. Fay of Galena they bought the Chicago Tribune. Through the personal and editorial influence of Mr. Medill the name of Abraham Lincoln was brought before the people as a presidential possibility in the dark days foreshadowing the Civil war.

SHERMAN WAS BETTER.

The Cruiser Chicago Ordered to Bring the Sick Statesman Home.

WASHINGTON, March 17.—A cablegram received by General Miles from Martinique announced that the condition of ex-Secretary of State Sherman was better.

WASHINGTON, March 17.—Secretary Long ordered the warship Chicago to bring ex-Secretary Sherman back to Washington.

MGR. STEPHAN HIGHLY HONORED.

The Pope Recognizes His Great Work Among the Indians.

WASHINGTON, March 17.—By papal brief received by the apostolic delegate, Mgr. Joseph Stephan has been raised to the dignity of protonotary apostolic. This is the highest honor which is ever conferred on Catholic clergymen outside the city of Rome.

He becomes fully a prelate with all prelatical privilege. This distinguished honor has been conferred by the pope on Mgr. Stephan in recognition of his zealous services in promoting Catholic interests among the Indians of the United States. Mgr. Stephan has for many years been the head of the Catholic Indian bureau in this city, and is himself a practical Indian missionary, having labored among the Indian tribes for a long period. He was a chaplain in the civil war.

REGULARS WILL BE CARED FOR.

Volunteers Will Be Out of Cuba Likely Before Dangerous Season.

WASHINGTON, March 17.—Replying to an inquiry whether there was any apprehension for the health of the troops in Cuba on account of a possible outbreak of yellow fever, Surgeon General Sternberg said that the yellow fever season was some distance off. Most, if not all, of the volunteers would be brought from the island.

The utmost care had been taken of the troops and sanitation of the camps. For the regulars who would remain on the island there would be the same vigilance.

WAGES TO BE INCREASED.

In Consequence the Prices of Stoves Will Be Advanced.

CHICAGO, March 17.—Representatives of the Stove Founders' National Defense association and delegates from the Iron Molders' Union of North America held a conference here, and voted a raise of 10 per cent in wages, which directly increases the salary rolls of the big stove firms $43,000 per week.

A further increase of 10 per cent in the prices of stoves will follow the paying of higher wages, which takes effect on April 1.

Weather Forecast For Today.

Western Pennsylvania, Ohio and West Virginia—Fair; fresh north to east winds.

AGREED TO THE SCALE

Ohio Operators Accepted Pittsburgh Agreement.

THEY SIGNED UNDER PROTEST.

Threatened Strike Was Thus Averted. Operators Intimated They Might Participate in the Next Interstate National Mining Convention.

COLUMBUS, March 17.—The Ohio operators signed the Pittsburgh agreement under protest and the threatened strike has been averted. An all-day conference was held, at which the miners were represented by National President Mitchell, National Secretary Pearce and State President Harkins. The operators were represented by J. S. Morton, Thomas Johnson, C. L. Poston, S. A. McManigal, T. W. Guthrie and F. S. Brooks.

The miners held out firmly for the Pittsburgh agreement, and the operators were unable to gain the slightest concession.

The prices fixed for the next year in Ohio are 66 cents per ton for screened coal and 47 1/2 cents for run of mine. The fact that all local differences are, under the agreement, to be referred to the districts for settlement does not avert the possibility of local strikes, which are threatened in some sections of the state.

The Ohio operators intimated at the close of the conference that they would probably participate in the next interstate convention at Indianapolis.

MIGHT MAKE DISCLOSURES.

Secretary Squire's Reason For Not Producing Standard's Books.

COLUMBUS, March 17.—An answer was filed in the supreme court in the contempt case against F. B. Squire, secretary of the Standard Oil company. He declined to produce the books of the company, and the contempt proceedings are in that connection.

"TO ALL PEOPLE"

Read the article on our fifth page carefully. Be careful, Republicans, how you vote at the primaries of Saturday, March 18. Councilmen who voted for the "Dollar" clause of the gas company are the enemies of the people—the workingmen and the working women.

In his answer he says that it is an unreasonable search and seizure to demand the books; that they may disclose facts which may be used against the Standard Oil company and because they disclose facts which may render him personally liable.

The whole answer is based on his constitutional rights.

A DEWEY HOLIDAY.

The Pennsylvania Legislature Passed a Law For the Legal observance of May 1.

HARRISBURG, March 17.—A resolution was offered in the house by Mr. McWhinney, Allegheny, and adopted, that Governor Scovel be requested to name Monday, May 1, 1899, as Dewey day and designate the same as a legal holiday.

The preamble to the resolution recites that the victory of Admiral Dewey and his brave marines in the harbor of Manila on May 1 last was one of the greatest achievements in naval warfare the world has ever known and that it is proper that the great state of Pennsylvania should in a fitting manner commemorate the battle of Manila on the first anniversary of that glorious day by showing the appreciation of her people for the hero of that engagement and his brave men.

The house resolution making May 1 a legal holiday to be known as Dewey day was concurred in by the senate.

Balloted For U. S. Senator.

HARRISBURG, March 17.—The fifth joint ballot for United States senator taken was as follows: Quay, 86; Jenks, 71; Dalzell, 14; Stewart, 7; Stone, 4; Widener, 3; Rice, 2; Grow, 1; Riter, 1; Tubbs, 2; Smith, 4; Markle, 1; Irvin, 3; Huff, 4. Total, 203; necessary to a choice, 102; paired not voting, 48; absent and not voting, Hasson, Dem., W. D. Wilson, anti-Quay Rep.

Cuba Must Pay For Supplies.

HAVANA, March 17.—An order was issued by the United States military authorities to the effect that all rations distributed to the Cuban poor, after the supply now on hand is exhausted, shall be charged against the customs receipts of the province in which they are distributed.

EIGHT COFFINS EXPOSED.

The Face of the Cliff at the Old Cemetery is Again Slipping Away.

The recent slips at the west end of the old cemetery have exposed eight coffins. The slips during the next few weeks will probably be numerous, and before long double the number of boxes will be out.

This morning a reporter went to the scene, and upon careful investigation saw parts of seven coffins exposed, some to the extent of two feet. One box, a small one, is lying on the side of the hill and several small bones were seen on the slip a few feet below. The other coffins are rotting and small pieces of wood were seen falling from them.

At the foot of the hill an old man is sifting sand, and within a few days a lot of ground will fall, and not less than ten bodies will be exposed. They are said to be the remains of drowned men who were caught floating in the river at this place years ago and buried in the old cemetery.

GERMAN OBSTREPEROUS.

Consul Was Encouraging Some Samoans in Their Opposition to American and English Desires.

APIA, Samoa, March 10.—(via Auckland, N. Z.)—March 17.—The British and American consuls issued proclamations denying the rumors in circulation to the effect that Mataafa had been recognized and threatening strong action if the provisional government interfered with the loyalists.

The German consul refused to join with the British and American representatives and issued a proclamation upholding the provisional government, and denying that there had been any interference by the Mataafa party. He added to this document an extraordinary paragraph expressing the hope that the provisional government "would be able to encounter the danger caused anew to the peace of the country and the safety of the inhabitants by the English and American proclamation."

This has put more heart into the rebels, and, therefore, numbers of armed warriors are gathering.

The United States cruiser Philadelphia, Admiral Kautz commanding, has arrived here, and the admiral has had extended consultations with the various consuls, Chief Justice Chambers and Captain Sturdee of the Porpoise.

A COMPLIMENT TO BRYAN.

Stevenson Introduced Him as the Foremost Statesman of His Time.

BLOOMINGTON, Ill., March 17.—William J. Bryan addressed a large audience at the Coliseum. He had been invited to take part in the St. Patrick's day exercises under the auspices of the Ancient Order of Hibernians, but could not be here today, so the celebration was held last night. Bryan was introduced by ex-Vice President Stevenson as "the foremost statesman of the time."

"You've heard of him before, you will hear of him again," said Mr. Stevenson. This expression was received with great applause, which was redoubled as Mr. Bryan arose.

The greater portion of his address was an argument against imperialism.

THEY WERE MARRIED.

Squire Rose Performed the Ceremony Last Night.

Constable Miller arrived last evening from Akron bringing with him James Farrish, who was wanted in the city on a charge preferred by Miss Eliza Beatty.

When the constable arrived in Akron he went at once to the jail and secured Farrish, who was willing to return. They missed a train which caused the delay in reaching here. Miss Beatty, who was in Akron, came home with Constable Miller and his prisoner. A large crowd gathered at the 8 o'clock train in order to get a glimpse of the party, but they were disappointed, as they got off at Wellsville and took a street car to the office of Squire Rose.

Squire Rose at once telephoned to Lisbon and secured a license, and the couple were married in the presence of her mother and a brother of the groom.

OPERA BY MANCINELLI.

First Performance In America of
"Ero e Leandro."

HISTORY OF THE GREEK OPERA.

First Sung as a Cantata at the Norwich Festival of 1896 and as an opera the Next Year—Libretto Is by the Poet Arrigo Boito—Score Is of the Modern Italian School.

"Ero e Leandro," opera seria in three acts, words by Tobio Gorrio, music by Luigi Mancinelli, was performed at the Metropolitan Opera House in New York the other night for the first time in America.

Signor Mancinelli's opera was first sung as a cantata at the Norwich festival of 1896 and as an opera the following year. It may be noted here in passing that there is or was another opera of the same name, text by Arrigo Boito and music by Giovanni Bottesini, produced at Turin on Jan. 11, 1879. For the sake of the record it may be added that Signor Mancinelli conducted and that the cast was as follows:

Prologo.....Mme. Mantelli
Ero.....Mme. Eames
Leandro.....M. Saleza
Ariopharnes.....M. Plancou
Una Voce dal Mare.....Mr. Pringle

The first act takes place in the temple of Venus at Abydos. The chorus worships the goddess, and Ariopharnes, the high priest, arrives, accompanied by Hero, Leander and others. Leander has just achieved a triumph in the Aphrodisia, and Ariopharnes commands Hero to crown him. Leander, like a true poet, announces that he will respond in song. He strikes the lyre and declaims the first ode of Anacreon. Whether Signor Gorrio intended to identify Leander with Anacreon or only to take advantage of the fact that many of the poems attributed to Anacreon are of doubtful origin makes little difference. The period of the story of Hero and Leander is sufficiently uncertain to make the librettist's license as wide as he chooses to take. It may as well be said now that the first lyric of Leander, which immediately follows the declamatory passage just referred to, is the third ode of Anacreon—that which Moore begins thus in his translation:

Twice noon of night, when round the pole
The sullen Bear is seen to roll,
And mortals, wearied with the day,
Are slumbering all their cares away.

It will be remembered by lovers of Anacreon that Cupid came to call on the amatory old poet and sent a dart into his heart. Leander sings these words to the assembly, thereby letting the audience into the secret of his love for Hero. After the stage has been cleared of all the persons of the drama except Ariopharnes and Hero the priest proceeds to expose the plot of the opera by asking Hero if she has made her choice between his love and lifelong devotion to the goddess. Hero declares for the goddess, and Ariopharnes vows vengeance. Hero, left alone, communes with a seashell and hears in its murmurings a prophecy of the fate which is in store for her lover. Leander shortly afterward comes to visit Hero in the temple at a forbidden hour and is surprised by Ariopharnes, who dissembles and pretends to overlook the transgression. He leaves the two lovers alone, and they promptly sing a love duet. At the end of it Hero, becoming distrustful of the situation, appeals to the statue of Apollo to reveal her fate, and Ariopharnes, who has hidden himself behind the statue, says, "Death!"

In the second act Ariopharnes, in the Aphrodisium, announces that he has revived an old custom. A virgin, who has renounced all earthly love, is to watch at a lonely tower near the sea and to calm its fury by her smile or her sigh. Hero is to be that virgin. She must first, however, swear to renounce all earthly love. Leander, enraged at this proposition, attacks Ariopharnes and is overpowered by the guards. There is a good deal of confusion of a sort not unfamiliar in second acts of operas, but Hero swears the fatal oath, and Leander is dragged off by the faithful guards.

The third act takes place in the tower of the Virgin, in which Hero is keeping her vigil. Not unlike Isolde, she sets a torch in the window, and in a short time young Leander enters, having swum the Hellespont in accordance with the old story. The act is short and to the point. The lovers have a brief duet, which is interrupted by a storm. To this they unfortunately pay too little attention. Hero forgets her duty of stilling the waves, and the crafty Ariopharnes comes to find out what she is doing. To save her Leander leaps into the still raging sea, and presently the back of the tower conveniently falls out and shows the unhappy man lying drowned upon a rock.

The models which have been most congenial to the talent of Signor Mancinelli are those to be found in the modern Italian school. One has no great difficulty in recognizing the influence of both Verdi and Boito in various parts of the score. In some of the harmonic sequences and in the love duet of Act I, there are also evidences of the influence of Mascagni, though it must be said that the melodic qualities of the music do not show any traces of the control of this composer or of Leoncavallo, who might easily make himself dominant in the mind of any contemporary composer not gifted with marked individuality. The influence of the clever Meyerbeer, who has held his own in the traditions of operatic construction in both France and Italy up to the present time, is noticeable only in the ground plan of the second act, in which there are some of the spectacular features originally designed by that genius of theatrical effect for the delectation of the volatile Parisians.

If, however, any one composer is to be pointed out as Signor Mancinelli's model, it is Boito, for whom in his music he evinces a special partiality. This is to be found in the color of most of the solo parts, in the treatment of the harp and in the writing of the ensembles. To this, however, one exception must be made. The fugue in chorals at the close of the second act is the result undoubtedly of the composer's admiration for the splendid mastership shown in the score of Verdi's "Falstaff," which the music lover will remember ends with a piece of strict polyphonic composition. But, as already said, the voice of Boito has sung most woefully in the ear of Signor Mancinelli. Probably the experienced opera goer will most readily recognize it in the trumpet fanfare used to announce the approach of Ariopharnes, a passage which will easily call to mind the trumpet phrase heard in the prologue of "Medistofele." These strictures must not be construed as meaning that there is nothing in the score of the new work but thoughts taken from the operas of other men. The similarity is in the style only, the melodies are Signor Mancinelli's own, and most of them are graceful and poetic.

The choral parts and the ensembles are well made, and the orchestration is always rich in eloquent combinations of color, in which the harp provides the most uncommon tints, chiefly through its skillful employment as the foundation of the harmony in unexpected places. The vocal parts are written with the judgment of an experienced conductor, who might be expected to know what would sing well, and there are therefore numerous opportunities for the soloists to win that applause without which existence on the operatic stage would be but an idle waste of life. On the whole, the music, while not remarkable for invention, is pleasing, well made and creditable to the composer, and it has the singular merit of being always in keeping with the general character of the scene and the action.—New York Times.

HOW THE FILIPINOS FIGHT.

Their Treacherous Methods in Dealing With Our Sentries.

In a letter to friends in Wheeling, Private W. J. McKee of Company C, First Montana Volunteer Infantry, now in service in the Philippines, writes of the methods of the insurgents. In course of his description he says:

"We are posted in the ricefields among the brush, and when night darkens the rebels put on citizen's clothing and approach our lines. When we challenge them, they shout 'Amigo!' and as they look like inoffensive civilians they are sometimes permitted to pass. In passing the sentry they watch their chance and jump on him with the long blades they carry beneath their white outer garments and attempt to slash him across the throat. Our outposts have been attacked every night, but the troopers have managed to escape without being killed, although many of them have been disfigured for life by the ugly knives carried by the insurgents. Orders have been issued to kill every native who attempts to pass the lines at night."

Private McKee relates the story of the brave fight of Private Fred Schmidt of Company F, South Dakota volunteers. The trooper was on outpost duty and was attacked by two Filipino warriors in citizen's clothing. One made a dash at Schmidt's throat, cutting away the muscles of one side of his jaw. Although bleeding and terribly slashed over the face the outpost loaded his rifle and shot one of his assailants. The other one ran, but a long distance shot by the wounded soldier brought him down, and his body was found in the rice grass the next morning pierced through. Schmidt will likely receive the military reward his brave conduct deserves.—New York Sun.

Weird Scene in a Trial.

The dramatic moment of the trial came when Mrs. Zerelda Samuels, grandmother of Jesse James, took the stand and was asked to take the oath at Kansas City recently. She could not put up her right hand, for that had been blown off years ago, when detectives surrounded her house and demanded the surrender of her son, Jesse James, Sr., and on her refusal, blew up the house with dynamite. When she took the oath, the old woman—she is 74—held up what remained of her right arm. She made a weird, almost uncanny, picture in the courtroom, and profound silence prevailed while the oath was administered.—St. Louis Republic.

NEW POSTAGE STAMPS.

Designs of a Special Set Prepared For Cuba.

TO BE USED UNTIL ISLAND IS FREED

The Issue Will Consist of One, Two, Three, Five and Ten Cent Stamps. Cost of Plates and Printing the Stamps to Be Charged Against Cuban Revenues.

The postoffice department at Washington is preparing to issue a special set of stamps for Cuba, and the designs have been approved by the postmaster general. The issue will consist of 1, 2, 3, 5 and 10 cent stamps. Director Rathbone of the Cuban mail service wishes to have a few stamps of larger denominations, and the matter is held up pending further information from him.

The designs were prepared at the bureau of printing and engraving from pictures furnished by the postoffice department. The 1 cent, or 1 centavo, stamp has the word Cuba across the top, with a "1" in each of the lower corners. In the center is a picture of the statue of Columbus in the courtyard of the palace of the captain general in Havana. It will be printed in green. There are two designs for the 2 centavo stamp. The first has Cuba across the top, with a plantation scene in the center and "2 centavos" at the bottom. The other has the plantation scene in the upper left hand corner, with the word Cuba across the center, the figure 2 underneath and centavos at the bottom. The first gives more prominence to the plantation. This stamp will be in red.

The 3 cent stamp has the word Cuba across the top, and in the center is a representation of the allegorical figure of Cuba which stands in the plaza of Havana, a woman seated on a throne. It is called "La Cubana." On either side of the figure is the figure 3 and at the bottom the word centavos. The 5 cent stamp has the picture of a merchant steamer at full speed, typifying commerce. On the side is a wealth of palms and tropical foliage and at the top the word Cuba. Across the bottom is "5 centavos." On the 10 cent stamp is depicted a farming scene in Cuba. A Cuban is driving two oxen harnessed to the primitive plow in use in the island with the long upright stick by which it is guided. The word Cuba appears at the top, with the figures 10 on either side and centavos in a semicircle above the picture.

The plates will be prepared and the stamps printed at the bureau of engraving and printing, Washington, and their cost charged against the Cuban revenues. They will be used on the island until Cuba is declared free, when the Cuban government will be at liberty to continue their use or not as it sees fit. The use of the stamps will be another evidence of the intention of the government to free Cuba.

It is the first time in the history of the postoffice department that it has been called upon to prepare stamps for another country. At present two kinds of stamps are in use in Cuba, the regulation United States stamp and the same stamp with the word Cuba and the denomination in Spanish imprinted across the face in red, similar to the imprinted revenue stamps issued when the war act went into effect. The department prepared the imprinted stamps for the Cuba mail service, but finally consented to permit the use of the regular ordinary United States stamps to accommodate the soldiers, who had taken quantities of stamps with them to Cuba.

In Porto Rico the stamps now in use are the ordinary United States stamps, with the words "Porto Rico" and the value printed across the face in Spanish. The department does not contemplate at present making any issue of stamps for Porto Rico similar to the Cuban issue. Later stamps may be prepared for the island, but they will be the United States stamps, with simply the denominations in Spanish and possibly the words Porto Rico on them.

In the Philippines the United States stamp is used exclusively at present and without any imprint. A series of stamps may be prepared for them. No stamps except those for Cuba, however, will be prepared for the colonies until after the ratification of the treaty of peace is exchanged.—New York Sun.

TESTING A WIRE WOUND GUN

First of Fifty Under the Brown Patent Proves a Success.

The first of 50 of the Brown segmental tube wire guns was tested successfully at Birdsborg the other day under official auspices for the government. The shots attained a velocity of 2,800 feet a second, 100 feet better than requirements, and the shot was light. These tests will continue for several days until at least 500 shots are fired.

The gun tested is 5 inch caliber and weighs 3½ tons. Its length is 19 feet. The company has a contract for 25 of the 5 inch and 25 of the 6 inch. The 6 inch weigh 10 tons and are 20 feet long. They are to cost $10,000 each, or $500,000 for the 50. The 10 inch gun of the same kind that is now being built at the Scott works in Reading weighs more than 30 tons and is nearly 40 feet long. It is expected that this gun will be tested in about four months.

The tests are under the supervision of Captain Ira MacNutt of the ordnance department. Edward M. Gage, government inspector, has been overlooking the work of building and firing. The highest pressure reached was more than 30,000 pounds.—New York Press.

BATHTUB STIRS BAD LANDS.

Cowboys Will Take No Action, as Its Buyer Is Popular.

C. K. Howard of Sioux Falls, S. D., president of the Western South Dakota Stock Growers' association, who owns a mammoth cattle ranch on the Cheyenne river, in the western part of the state, evidently aspires to be the Ward McAllister of South Dakota cattlemen. He has recently let a contract for the construction of a ranch house which when completed will be the finest of the kind in the state.

The structure will have all modern improvements and will contain seven rooms, among them a bathroom, with hot and cold water fixtures. This feature of the new dwelling will be scoffed at by the "cow punchers" in that locality, who are themselves content to take their "dips" in the waters of the swift flowing Cheyenne.

Were it not for the fact that Howard is very popular with them they would show violent resentment to these evidences of effete eastern civilization. As it is, their feelings are deeply wounded at the invasion of their territory by a bathtub, which they pronounce the invention of a dude "tenderfoot."—Chicago Times-Herald.

American Locomotives For China.

The Baldwin locomotive works at Philadelphia recently closed a contract for the building of 81 locomotives, the largest single order ever received by that company. The locomotives are for use on new railroads now under construction in China. The contract was under consideration about a year ago, but the breaking out of the war with Spain opened up such an element of doubt regarding the safe delivery of the engines that the matter was dropped for the time. The negotiations were recently renewed and have just been brought to a conclusion and the contract signed. Over $800,000 is involved in the work, and the Baldwin company will rapidly push the construction of the engines. Shipment to China will begin probably in the course of a few weeks.—Baltimore American.

Dewey's Puzzling Request.

The navy department has received from Admiral Dewey a request for 3,000 steel coal baskets. The request has mystified the navy department officials. No such thing as steel coal baskets are used in the navy. It was said at the navy department the other night that Admiral Dewey had probably seen some steel coal baskets, which he thought would be of utility to his fleet, yet why he should need them at all, and especially why he should want such a great number of them, could not be conjectured. However, whatever Admiral Dewey wants "goes," and if any such thing as steel coal baskets can be found on the market or be manufactured in the United States, they will be sent to him.—Washington Cor. St. Louis Globe-Democrat.

Sam Sloan's Recipe For Success.

Samuel Sloan, who recently retired from the presidency of the Delaware, Lackawanna and Western railroad at the ripe old age of 82, began his remarkable career without a penny, and he retires with many millions. He explains his success in accumulating a fortune by saying that when he first went to work, no matter what his salary was, he saved some of it. The first $1,000 was the hardest to get, but it grew to $5,000, and then to higher figures. "Economy is one of the most important roads to wealth. When I say economy, I do not mean sordidness, but I do mean a proper appreciation of the value of money. Given proper economy, integrity, earnestness, application to detail, and you will win every time."—Kansas City Journal.

Rudyard Kipling.

[The newspapers reported that during the progress of the late blizzard on the Atlantic coast Mr. Kipling made anxious inquiries about the overdue steamships.]
The winds of the north had joined their force,
And a tempest swept the main,
And the ships were fighting their way to port
Through the wintry hurricane.

The air was white with the whirling snow,
And the sea was white with foam,
And the masts and the decks were sheeted in ice
As the ships were battling home.

"Are the ships all in?" said the poet of the sea
As he lay on his fever bed;
"Are the ships all in?" 'Twas his deepest heart
That spoke in the words he said.

"Are the ships all in?" said the man who loved
All the seven seas he had sung,
The laureate poet of the worldwide race
Who speak his English tongue.

You can always measure race of men
And tell are they truly brave,
If they master not only the solid shore,
But also the rolling wave.

The land is only one-half of the world,
And the other half is the sea,
And a nation must care for sailors and ships
If it would be great and free.

"Are the ships all in?" Let the winds blow high—
Let the angry billows roar!
Yet the ships are safe when a love like this
Waits and watches upon the shore.

Switch For the New Pottery Is In Sight.

New Company For Investment Purposes—Missionary Lecture—More Building—Secured a Contract—Brick Plant In Operation.

Yesterday afternoon surveyors of the Cleveland and Pittsburg railway company, with several officials and representatives of the Laughlin China company, staked out the switch to be laid after the new pottery is contracted. The switch will be laid out north from the main line, and just east of the lane dividing the Knowles, Taylor & Anderson property and that of the pottery company. When approached none of the gentlemen would talk, but from other sources it was learned work on the construction would begin early next week, and would be completed within three days after the commencement. Work on the pottery will be commenced soon, as stated in this paper last week.

A Stock Company.

A stock company is being formed in the East End for manufacturing purposes, but those who know of the matter and those who own stock in the new concern refuse, when questioned, to talk. It was first reported the company was after a bonus of $10,000 but one stockholder ventured to say this morning there was absolutely no truth in the statement as far as the bonus was concerned. It has been learned from good authority a meeting of the present stockholders will be held next week and officers selected.

The capital stock is to be $10,000, and most of it has been subscribed. The new company will erect a factory, for which land has already been donated, and enter the manufacturing field.

A New Mission.

Some time during the summer, the officials of St. Stephen's Episcopal church will commence the erection of a chapel in this part of the city. Rev. Edwin Weary, when asked about the matter, said that the mission was growing rapidly, and within a short time a new building would be needed, and it would be erected by the church officials. So far no ground has been selected but the matter has been reported favorably by the church members, and within a short time definite action will be taken.

Some of the Sick.

A small child of Alfred Marsh, of Elm street, is seriously ill. Last night it suffered several spasms, and its condition is thought to be critical.

The condition of Frederick Dotts continues encouraging, and, it is thought, his recovery is but a matter of a few weeks.

The child of Mr. and Mrs. Andrews, who has been ill for several weeks, is recovering rapidly, and will be out within a few weeks.

More Building.

Doctor Toot has commenced the erection of a residence near the Sebring pottery. Work was commenced Wednesday, and it is thought it will be completed in May.

Ground was broken this morning for the erection of a five room frame dwelling in St. George street by William Culbertson. Work on another house on the lot adjoining this will be started next week.

Gathering Ice.

Considerable ice is being hauled through this section and taken to the city where it is being stored. Each wagon is pulled by four horses, and as the roads are quite bad the teamsters are having troubles of their own. The ice is secured from a storage house near Smith's Ferry.

Salem Pottery Pay.

The Salem News says: "The frames were set today in the third story of the clay and slip rooms of the white ware pottery. The new plant when completed will employ about 200 hands, and have a pay roll of about $3,000 or $4,000 every two weeks."

Another Report.

It is said the Knowles, Taylor & Anderson plant will resume operations next Monday. At the office of the company nothing will be said, although the works is now being put in order.

Secured a Contract.

John Bell yesterday received the contract for hauling brick for the Ohio company's yards. He will give employment to six men.

Missionary Will Lecture.

George W. Chalfant, recently returned from the missionary field of China will give a lecture in the Second Presbyterian next Thursday evening. The lecture will be given under the auspices of the Ladies' Foreign Missionary society of that church.

Brick Works Resumed.

The brick works resumed operations this morning, giving employment to 10 men. It has been idle since December. Fires under the dry floor were started Wednesday night and all the machinery was put in condition yesterday.

Now They Can Talk.

Manager Swaney yesterday afternoon placed a telephone in the office of the Ohio Fire Clay company works. The telephone list in this part of the city is rapidly increasing.

CLEANING THE TOWN.

Work is Already Started, and Progress is Being Made.

The work of cleaning the streets and alleys of the city is already started, and progress is being made. The accumulated garbage of the winter is being hauled to the river bank, and in such quantities as to show that many persons are renovating their back yards. There are always a number of persons who must be stirred up by the authorities before they obey the order.

There is no truth in the story that J. H. Smith, of East End, does not reside in the city limits. Mr. Smith is a candidate for the board of education.

2---As a Sleeping Coach.

The "Excelsior" is unrivaled, and no Child's Carriage can be perfectly adapted to the various purposes it should serve, which cannot be readily converted into a "Sleeper." How often do we see children trundled along with heads nodding and pitching from one side to the other of the carriage, or sleeping in a most uncomfortable position? The "Excelsior" obviates all this. Whenever the child is inclined to sleep, the back can be let down in a moment, and the child at once placed in an easy position.

3---As an Invalid Carriage.

For sick or invalid children, nothing can be more complete than the "Excelsior Sleeping Coach."

4---As a Substitute for a Crib or Cradle.

For use in the house, the "Excelsior" will be found very satisfactory, and render the expense of such an article of furniture wholly unnecessary. The easy verticle motion which is given to the body of the carriage, mounted on our patent Star Gear, by a touch of the hand, will quiet the baby and put it to sleep.

5---The Adjustable Parasol or Canopy Holder,

By the use of which the child can be readily and perfectly protected from the sun or wind, in whatever position it may be. The holder has joints, so that the parasol may be carried upward or downward, or to either side, as may be required to suit any position desired.

New Horse Feed.

The German government is making an experiment in the feeding of artillery horses by dieting them on a patent food. This is composed of fresh blood from the slaughter houses, mixed with sugar refuse and the screenings of barley, wheat and the like. It is claimed that the albumen in the blood, aided by the other two ingredients, makes the new forage very strengthening. As the new production is comparatively cheap, the cost of maintenance will be sensibly decreased.

AS UNLUCKY AS USUAL

Thirteen Democrats at Last Night's Caucus.

Were Not Named, but the Remainder of the Ticket Was Filled—M. W. Elliott Announced That He Would Vote For a Republican, but He Was Nominated.

The Democrats last evening in city hall nominated a ticket.

Despite the fact that the unlucky number of 13 members were all that were at the meeting, the Democrats present had braved the storms of adversity on many occasions, and the unlucky combination did not strike terror to their hearts, and they proceeded with much difficulty to nominate a ticket.

Some time was spent in informal talks of how Bryan would carry the country in 1900, and some of the members thought they might elect a portion of the city ticket if certain Republicans were nominated.

After waiting in vain for James H. Tracy to put in an appearance, City Chairman R. J. Meakin called the 13 members to order and he was at once elected chairman of the meeting, and C. A. Leiter, secretary.

Chairman Meakin stated that the object of the convention was to elect a ticket to represent the Democrats at the coming municipal election, and the first office on the list was board of education. John Moore proceeded to state how it required a man of exceptional ability to fill the office and placed in nomination the name of R. J. Meakin, who at once declined the honor thrust upon him, but his protests fell by the wayside, and his name was put on the ticket. M. W. Elliott was the next man to be nominated, and he also did not care to have the chance of being defeated, but Chairman Meakin said kicks were of no avail in a Democratic meeting. Mr. Elliott then said that J. H. Smith was a candidate on the Republican ticket, and he would be compelled to vote for him even if he was placed on the Democratic ticket. He thought Mr. Smith would win with what votes he would get in East End, and was in favor of leaving the matter go over. Mr. Moore said there was no assurance Smith would win and Mr. Elliott was placed on the ticket. John Kerr, Jr., was not present at the session so he was selected without a dissenting voice.

For justice of the peace Martin McCune was decided upon as a splendid candidate, and he accepted the trust imposed upon him without a murmur. Township treasurer came next and Mr. Moore stated that Mr. Herbert, the Republican candidate, had served but one term, and he moved the office be passed and it carried unanimously. J. N. Willeson was nominated for constable very much against his will, and Mr. Moore said he was happy to place in nomination the name of George D. Culbertson for township trustee, a man who had been tried in the faith and never found wanting. Mr. Culbertson was very unwilling to serve but it was necessary that he become a martyr to the cause in order to fill out the ticket.

For the office of water works trustee the name of John Kerr was suggested, but it was finally decided to leave the office vacant as there were no reservoirs to build this year.

The convention then commenced to nominate councilman, and Harvey McHenry won the prize in the First ward, while J. M. McDole will attempt to run in the Second ward. G. S. Huston has a hard fight before him in the Third ward. None of the gentlemen were present and of course could not decline, but when an attempt was made to nominate F. L. Fisher, in the Fourth ward, Mr. Moore said he had been authorized to decline the office in behalf of Mr. Fisher and Isaac Jones was substituted.

The assessors came next, and much trouble was experienced in thinking of enough Democrats to fill the offices. J. P. Maley was chosen in the First ward, C. A. Leiter in the Second and Patrick McCullough in the Third. An attempt was made to nominate David O'Handlon in the Fourth ward, but it was discovered that he had moved to the country and the name of Edward O'Handlon was substituted.

This completed the ticket, and C. A. Leiter, George Culbertson, J. J. Weisend, R. J. Meakin and Colin McLane were selected to fill vacancies on the ticket.

Mr. Elliott said a meeting should be held after the Republican primaries were over, and the committee will assemble at city hall Saturday evening at 10 o'clock, and fix the ticket so that they think they can win at least some offices.

NO LONG TIMERS.

"One Who Is Interested" Speaks On His Mind.
[Communicated.]

EDITOR NEWS REVIEW: I have been interested to notice by some of the NEWS REVIEW reports (which we must receive as correct because not contradicted) of the acts of our council. By these reports we see that this council is becoming notorious for their illegal way of doing business, that even the city solicitor has had to call them down in their meetings and threaten them with injunctions. That's a nice council! No wonder we have $1.00 gas business and such like! Why not give Mr. Peach a life job, instead of the fourth term for which he is now running? Why not give Mr. Challis a life job instead of the third term for which he is now running? We who are in favor of clean rule and LEGAL WAYS of doing business, will surely say at the polls, "There must be something in it for these men, and if we re-elect them this time, it is likely that every other member of this peculiar council will run for the third or fourth or fifth terms." Look out for the "third and fourth terms." We could not be worse than we are now if we try anywhere else with our eyes shut. Let us have a clean, businesslike council.

CHANGED DATE AGAIN

The Brunt Trial Will Begin March 28.

CORNELIUS CASE WAS POSTPONED

Which Caused the Other Matter to Be Set For One Week From Next Tuesday. Liverpool Cases Also Given Another Day.

LISBON, March 17.—[Special]—Another day has been set for the trial of Geo. F. Brunt, of East Liverpool. The trial will begin one week from next Tuesday, and will probably occupy two days.

The change was brought about by the postponement of the trial of William Cornelius, of Wellsville, who is charged with shooting with intent to kill. That was listed as the first of the week, and when it was set aside the others were advanced by Clerk McNutt.

This also makes a change in the remainder of the assignment. William Morrow and Samuel Conkle will be tried on Thursday as will William Franks and Arthur Stanway, all East Liverpool men.

ANSWERING CHALLIS.

Why Does He Want a Third Term If He Has No Axe to Grind?
[Communicated.]

EDITOR NEWS REVIEW—I am pleased to see the noble stand you have taken in favor of a clean council. I, and many others, are also very much pleased to see in your paper of last night the clear straight forward statement of Mr. Morris. That is business of the right kind. I happen to know who are back of Mr. Morris and can say that those little articles in another paper have entirely missed the mark. I know to an absolute certainty that the writer of the article of last Saturday in your paper about Mr. Challis and the $1 gas, never heard before that of the 10c and 20c business charged to him in another paper as he did not then live here. In that they have missed it again, and they will miss it at the polls too. We don't want a man in council who has to be forced to change his vote and who admits in that way that he was wrong at first, or is doing this for policy and for votes. The articles in another paper about the election of councilman from the First ward seem to have lots of gas about them, I think they will almost burn if you touch a lighted match to them. Mr. Challis has not answered the question of "A Voter." Why does he want a third term if he has no axe to grind. Let us remember when we go the polls that Mr. Challis is a third term man and a $1 gas man. Moral: Vote for Morris. ONE WHO CAN'T AFFORD TO PAY FOR $1 GAS.

UNION PAPERS.

All Union papers of East Liverpool are known to the various craft and unions of the city by the printing of the above Union Labels at the head of their columns.

Don't forget the Republican primaries tomorrow afternoon. It is the duty of every Republican to vote.

There seems to be some truth in the story that Tom Johnson will be a Democratic candidate for governor. He will take part in the Cleveland municipal campaign.

The Republican who will neglect to go to the polls tomorrow will miss the opportunity of aiding in selecting the ticket he expects to vote at the April election. He will be doing his duty to neither his party nor himself.

If some of the boss ridden cities of Ohio can but relieve themselves of the thieving gangs who control all municipal action, the fierce campaigns now being fought will go down in history as events of unusual importance.

The conduct of the American troops in Luzon are praiseworthy in the extreme. Fighting and marching day after day they continue to press back the enemy with great loss. The campaign has been nothing but a continuous line of victories.

MARK THEM!

We have some cases in East Liverpool that require MARKING. It is for the good of the community and society at large that they should be MARKED and OSTRACISED. We have reference to both sexes—vile men and vile women. They are notorious—the topic of common conversation. Some are in the humble and poorer class. This class get the MARKING all right, as a rule. Money and influence are lacking with them. But the wealthier class carry on the nefarious practices with apparent impunity, the right hand of friendship being given them on account of the money and influence back of them. Wealth is desirable when accumulated by and through honorable channels. The wealthy have grand opportunities for the accomplishment of good. Capital is necessary to the development of grand and glorious enterprises. But when wealth attempts to force licentiousness, sin and shame into society, and the possessor of wealth, confident in the power of riches and the influence attached thereto, dares to indulge, almost openly, in abominable practices and measures, 'tis high time that such personages, men and women, should be taught a lasting lesson, and be MARKED and OSTRACISED, with the same abhorrence and avoidance as one would shun and avoid a leper, fresh from Honolulu or the Philippine islands. Sin is sin and shame is shame, and the leprosy of a foul life should be as abhorrent to the man and woman of clean and pure life, as is the leprosy of the person. Mark such characters, no matter in what class or grade of society they exist, and keep them at a distance until they show true proof of repentance and reform.

TO ALL PEOPLE

Do You Desire Clean Municipal Government?

YOU HAVE IT IN YOUR POWER

True Republicans Dread Disaster to Their Party by and Through the Nomination of Inefficient and Incompetent Candidates at the Primaries--Some Councilmen Now in Power Are Seeking Re-Election From Selfish Motives--Be Careful--The Position of the News Review.

The NEWS REVIEW is Republican. It has been a life-long member of the party. We are good citizens, backed by a multitude of good citizens. We love clean government. We love East Liverpool. We love law and order. We believe in the enforcement of existing laws and ordinances. We believe in placing men in council who cannot be bought and sold. We believe in placing men in council who will legislate for the people and not AGAINST them. As business men, we believe that a man or woman should have "value received" following all outlay of money or labor. We believe in councilmen who vote honestly and intelligently. We cannot be deceived by cheap clap-trap plays and changing of votes, in order that this certain councilman can, backed by councilmen like unto him, effect their bad work against the people, win out with the infamous "dollar" clause of the gas company, and at the same time draw votes to Mr. Challis and make his election possible. The WOLF under the SHEEP'S woolly coat is plain to the eyes of every honest and clear visioned voter. No thinking man, loving his party and loving clean government, will be deceived by such trickery and such change of vote. Mr. Challis voted in favor of the measure which enables the gas company to take MONEY out of the poor man's pocket and give NOTHING in return. Then, when he knew the company had affairs their own way, without the use of his vote, he enacted the part of the "wolf in sheep's clothing."

True Republicans will agree with the statement of the so-called leaders of local politics that at the primaries is the proper place to enter protest against the nomination of bad or unfit candidates; and right here, before the primaries, we warn the so-called leaders to be wise, and not aid in putting bad men in the front.

Every TRUE Republican in the First ward knows that Mr. Challis has no right to be in our city council. His vote AGAINST the working man, and in FAVOR of the gas company, is proof positive that he is an enemy of the masses--of the poor man and the poor woman, those who have a struggle to meet JUST demands made against them without being compelled, by Mr. Challis' vote, to pay a dollar each month for something which they did not receive--a clear case of robbery; "hands up," "stand and deliver," "might makes right, and Messrs. Challis, Seckerson, Cain, Olnhausen and Stewart, our councilmen, have given us the right to rob the people."

Will the people stand such nonsense, such injustice, such robbery, and such conduct on the part of these five councilmen? We think not.

The Ohio Valley Gas company has given East Liverpool splendid fuel, especially during the terribly cold weather which controlled a few weeks since, and the Ohio Valley Gas company has the right to expect and ought to have a liberal percentage upon their heavy investment. The officers of the Ohio Valley Gas company have always been courteous and clever in the extreme to the writer and to the NEWS REVIEW company, which pays full rates for fuel furnished and asks no special favors, as this company gets value received in the shape of plenty of good gas. But the "dollar" clause, in our judgment, is one of absolute injustice, and our only wonder is that a gas company, officered as is the Ohio Valley Gas company, would attempt to enforce the "dollar" clause. But a still greater wonder is that FIVE COUNCILMEN, Challis, Olnhausen, Seckerson, Cain and Stewart, could be PER-SUADED to cast their votes for such a measure--DIRECTLY AGAINST THE PEOPLE.

The councilman who works for Challis, or for any member of council who voted in favor of the "dollar" clause, is an enemy of the people and should be marked and defeated when the proper time arrives. Such councilmen have an "axe to grind," and they want to do the grinding at the expense of the people, and the people should see to it that such men, when they want axes ground, should do so at their own expense, as the masses desire no further burden of useless taxation, and further desire, and will carry the desire into effect at the proper time, that such selfish councilmen shall step down and out of office.

The NEWS REVIEW is Republican from center to circumference. But it is clean Republicanism we advocate and rejoice in. Not that class of Republicans who are in the party simply for the "spoils of office," and who have not, at heart, the lasting good of the grand old party, a party which has such a magnificent record in the past, is a mighty power in the present, and will continue to be a power just as long as it advocates and enforces pure principles of honest government, free as possible from trickery and chicanery.

And lastly. See to it that good men and true are placed in nomination tomorrow, Saturday, March 18, for positions in our local offices. A vote against the men who favored the "dollar" clause of the gas company, is a vote against the men who are the enemies of the people.

DR. MARSHALL'S TESTIMONY.

Mr. Peach is an Indefatigable Worker as a Councilman.

EDITOR NEWS REVIEW--The question has been asked me several times in the last few days, what I thought of Mr. Geo. Peach as a councilman, and I desire to say that, in my five years' experience as a councilman, I have never been associated with a councilman who is as indefatigable a worker and one who has devoted as much time to the interest of the city as has Mr. Peach.

A HOSPITAL

Has Been Opened In Wucherer Addition by the Trustees.

To the township trustees belong the credit of starting the first hospital.

When it became known that they would have to care for Joseph Heintz, who was ill with pneumonia, they rented a house in Wucherer's addition, had a couple of cots placed in it and employed George Buchheit to nurse him.

Last evening Heintz was removed to the temporary hospital and will be well cared for. It was deemed cheaper to rent a house than to secure a room. The infirmary directors were notified, and it is probable they will ratify the action taken by the trustees.

GOOD MORNING!

Have You Seen Our Spring Stock?

You certainly must admit that this is a progressive house, and keeping pace with the town.

Stock not completed yet, to be sure; much still in the hands of the tailors, but enough already displayed, to entitle us to your favors.

You never hear of selling goods below cost here, do you?

Somehow people sooner deal with a store claiming to take fair profits.

And yet our new goods cost you less by 25 to 33 per cent, than some of the old stocks said to be sold so much below price.

We are not going to give you reasons for this; we will let you do the reasoning.

When may we have the pleasure of showing you through the lines?

FATAL ELECTION ROWS.

Five Men Killed and One Wounded at Hot Springs, Ark.—Two Killed in Missouri.

HOT SPRINGS, Ark., March 17.—A shooting occurred here which resulted in the death of five men and the serious wounding of one man. The killed are: Thomas Toler, chief of police.

J. E. Hart, city detective.
Thomas F. Goslee, police sergeant.
John Williams, son of sheriff Williams.

Louis Hinkle, driver of a brewery wagon.
Ed Spears was shot in the neck and may die.

The shooting grew out of the mayoralty campaign under way here. The sheriff was a warm supporter of the regular Democratic nominee, while Toler, Hart and Goslee were supporting an opposition candidate.

Early in the day shots were exchanged between Sheriff Williams and his son John on the one side and Sergeant Goslee on the other, but no one was injured. Toler, Hart and Goslee were walking south on Central avenue when they met Sheriff Williams' two sons, John and Coffey, and Ed Spears. There was soon a general fusillade in which 40 or 50 shots were exchanged. When it was over Toler, Hart, Goslee and Hinkle, a noncombatant, were dead and John Williams was mortally wounded. Williams died about an hour later. Louis Hinkle attempted to separate the combatants when the fight opened and was killed.

Order was easily restored. Saloons were closed. The sheriff and his son Coffey are under arrest, and no further trouble is anticipated.

Sheriff Williams said a policeman previously attempted to assassinate him. A bystander disarmed the policeman. The sheriff said he was not present when the fight occurred. He claimed he did not reach the scene until the shooting was over and that the policeman who had previously attempted to assassinate him began the trouble by shooting the sheriff's son, John.

About 20 minutes after the main battle another affray occurred nearby in which four or five shots were fired. In this fusillade Detective Jim Hart went down with the whole top of his skull blown off.

All of the dead men left large families.

ST. LOUIS, March 17.—In the fight over candidates at Grand avenue and Natural bridge road "Bud" Price, a negro, and Edward Osterhede were shot and almost instantly killed. It is alleged that ex-Detective Jack Williams did the shooting.

PRESIDENT GRATIFIED.

News That the Queen Would Sign the Peace Treaty Was Pleasing.

MADRID, March 17.—The queen regent will sign the ratification of the peace treaty to-day.

THOMASVILLE, Ga., March 17.—The news that the queen regent of Spain would sign the peace treaty ratification was telegraphed to President McKinley. The president was much gratified at the fact that this last step necessary to the end of hostile relations with Spain was assured, though never doubting such would be the outcome. Arrangements for exchange of ratifications and payment of the $20,000,000 are yet to be made, but no action by the president will be needed before he returns to Washington.

ROBERTS LIVING WITH THREE WIVES.

Minister in Philadelphia M. E. Conference Said Evidence Was Obtained.

PHILADELPHIA, March 17.—At the meeting of the M. E. conference in session at Zion church, Manayunk, a resolution was offered by Rev. Dr. Benjamin String of Manayunk, condemning the polygamous practices of Congressman Brigham H. Roberts of Utah, and asking for his expulsion from the halls of congress.

The resolution was referred to a committee for modification. Before this action was taken Rev. Dr. T. C. Hiff, presiding elder of the Utah district, and one of the committee of three appointed by the Evangelical Ministerial union of that state to prepare a formal protest to be presented to the Fifty-sixth congress against Roberts' admission, stated that the committee had secured satisfactory evidence that Roberts was at present living in polygamy with three wives.

Conference Aged Against Roberts.

HARRISBURG, March 17.—The Central Pennsylvania conference, composed of 273 ministers and having a constituency of over 60,000 members, adopted resolutions protesting against Congressman-elect B. H. Roberts of Utah being seated in the Fifty-sixth congress because of his views on the polygamy question. A copy of the resolution will be sent to Congressman Mahon of Chambersburg, to be presented by him at the opening of the next session of congress.

To Buy Bethlehem Works.

PHILADELPHIA, March 17.—There was being formed in this city a syndicate of prominent Philadelphia bankers who will furnish the capital for a corporation to be known as the Bethlehem Steel company, the purpose of the incorporators being to acquire the property and business of the famous Bethlehem Iron company, which was founded in 1857, at South Bethlehem, Pa.

Roosevelt's Electrocution Directions.

ALBANY, March 17.—Governor Roosevelt sent to Warden Sage of the Sing Sing prison a letter giving directions as to details for the execution of Mrs. Place to make it as uneventful as possible. He suggested that one woman attendant be provided and that one of the physicians be a woman.

BOARD SAW FLUID INJECTED.

But Omaha Packers Claimed It Was Salt Put In Hams.

OMAHA, March 17.—The army board of inquiry arrived in this city and started to work by looking through the packing plants at South Omaha. Particular attention was paid to the point brought in the testimony of the Philadelphia physician to the effect that he had seen meat chemically treated in the Swift plant here.

That company maintained that the operation the doctor saw was simply the injection of salt into the interior of hams for the purpose of producing an even cure. Some army officers examined said soldiers complained of the meat. Later the board left for Kansas City.

Smallpox In a Legislature.

LITTLE ROCK, March 17.—Members of the legislature were panicking when it was announced that physicians had diagnosed the illness of Senator Lankford as smallpox. After an hour's debate the house voted to vaccinate all its members.

Bribery Investigation Postponed.

HARRISBURG, March 17.—The meeting of the bribery investigation committee, which was to have been held last evening, was postponed until next Monday evening.

Murder Committed by a Boy.

CINCINNATI, March 17.—The murderer of Mrs. Anthony Stiegler of Mount Lookout, whose dead body was found in her home by her son, has been found in Albert Luken, a boy of 16, living with his widowed mother in Clifton. Luken was arrested and made a full confession, saying his motive was robbery. He got about $70.

Resignation of Talmage Accepted.

WASHINGTON, March 17.—The resignation of Rev. Dr. T. DeWitt Talmage as pastor of the First Presbyterian church was accepted at a sparsely attended meeting of the congregation. No action was taken toward determining his successor.

OPERA BY MANCINELLI.

First Performance In America of
"Ero e Leandro."

HISTORY OF THE GREEK OPERA.

First Sung as a Cantata at the Norwich Festival of 1896 and as an Opera the Next Year—Libretto Is by the Poet Arrigo Boito—Score Is of the Modern Italian School.

"Ero e Leandro," opera seria in three acts, words by Tobio Gorrio, music by Luigi Mancinelli, was performed at the Metropolitan Opera House in New York the other night for the first time in America.

Signor Mancinelli's opera was first sung as a cantata at the Norwich festival of 1896 and as an opera the following year. It may be noted here in passing that there is or was another opera of the same name, text by Arrigo Boito and music by Giovanni Bottesini, produced at Turin on Jan. 11, 1879. For the sake of the record it may be added that Signor Mancinelli conducted and that the cast was as follows:

Prologo.....Mme. Mantelli
Ero.....Mme. Eames
Leandro.....M. Suleza
Ariopharnes.....M. Plancon
Una Voce dal Mare.....Mr. Pringle

The first act takes place in the temple of Venus at Abydos. The chorus worships the goddess, and Ariopharnes, the high priest, arrives, accompanied by Hero, Leandro and others. Leandro has just achieved a triumph in the Aphrodisia, and Ariopharnes commands Hero to crown him. Leandro, like a true poet, announces that he will respond in song. He strikes the lyre and declaims the first ode of Anacreon. Whether Signor Gorrio intended to identify Leandro with Anacreon or only to take advantage of the fact that many of the poems attributed to Anacreon are of doubtful origin makes little difference. The period of the story of Hero and Leandro is sufficiently uncertain to make the librettist's license as wide as he chooses to take. It may as well be said now that the first lyric of Leandro, which immediately follows the declamatory passage just referred to, is the third ode of Anacreon—that which Moore begins thus in his translation:

Twat noon of night, when round the pole
The sullen Bear is seen to roll,
And mortals, wearied with the day,
Are slumbering all their cares away.

It will be remembered by lovers of Anacreon that Cupid came to call on the amatory old poet and sent a dart into his heart. Leandro sings these words to the assembly, thereby letting the audience into the secret of his love for Hero. After the stage has been cleared of all the persons of the drama except Ariopharnes and Hero the priest proceeds to expose the plot of the opera by asking Hero if she has made her choice between his love and lifelong devotion to the goddess. Hero declares for the goddess, and Ariopharnes vows vengeance. Hero, left alone, communes with a seashell and hears in its murmurings a prophecy of the fate which is in store for her lover. Leandro shortly afterward comes to visit Hero in the temple at a forbidden hour and is surprised by Ariopharnes, who dissembles and pretends to overlook the transgression. He leaves the two lovers alone, and they promptly sing a love duet. At the end of it Hero, becoming distrustful of the situation, appeals to the statue of Apollo to reveal her fate, and Ariopharnes, who has hidden himself behind the statue, says, "Death!"

In the second act Ariopharnes, in the Aphrodisium, announces that he has revived an old custom. A virgin, who has renounced all earthly love, is to watch at a lonely tower near the sea and to calm its fury by her smile or her sigh. Hero is to be that virgin. She must first, however, swear to renounce all earthly love. Leandro, enraged at this proposition, attacks Ariopharnes and is overpowered by the guards. There is a good deal of confusion of a sort not unfamiliar in second acts of operas, but Hero swears the fatal oath, and Leandro is dragged off by the faithful guards.

The third act takes place in the tower of the Virgin, in which Hero is keeping her vigil. Not unlike Isolde, she sets a torch in the window, and in a short time young Leandro enters, having swum the Hellespont in accordance with the old story. The act is short and to the point. The lovers have a brief duet, which is interrupted by a storm. To this they unfortunately pay too little attention. Hero forgets her duty of stilling the waves, and the crafty Ariopharnes comes to find out what she is doing. To save her Leandro leaps into the still raging sea, and presently the back of the tower conveniently falls out and shows the unhappy man lying drowned upon a rock.

The models which have been most congenial to the talent of Signor Mancinelli are those to be found in the modern Italian school. One has no great difficulty in recognizing the influence of both Verdi and Boito in various parts of the score. In some of the harmonic sequences and in the love duet of Act I, there are also evidences of the influence of Mascagni, though it must be said that the melodic qualities of the music do not show any traces of the control of this composer or of Leoncavallo, who might easily make himself dominant in the mind of any contemporaneous composer not gifted with marked individuality. The influence of the clever Meyerbeer, who has held his own in the traditions of operatic construction in both France and Italy up to the present time, is noticeable only in the ground plan of the second act, in which there are some of the spectacular features originally designed by that genius of theatrical effect for the delectation of the volatile Parisians.

If, however, any one composer is to be pointed out as Signor Mancinelli's model, it is Boito, for whom in his music he avines a special partiality. This is to be found in the color of most of the solo parts, in the treatment of the harp and in the writing of the ensembles. To this, however, one exception must be made. The fugue in chorals at the close of the second act is the result undoubtedly of the composer's admiration for the splendid mastery shown in the score of Verdi's "Falstaff," which the music lover will remember ends with a piece of strict polyphonic composition. But, as already said, the voice of Boito has sung most woefully in the ear of Signor Mancinelli. Probably the experienced opera goer will most readily recognize it in the trumpet fanfare used to announce the approach of Ariopharnes, a passage which will easily call to mind the trumpet phrase heard in the prologue of "Mefistofele." These strictures must not be construed as meaning that there is nothing in the score of the new work but thoughts taken from the operas of other men. The similarity is in the style only, the melodies are Signor Mancinelli's own, and most of them are graceful and poetic.

The choral parts and the ensembles are well made, and the orchestration is always rich in eloquent combinations of color, in which the harp provides the most uncommon tints, chiefly through its skillful employment as the foundation of the harmony in unexpected places. The vocal parts are written with the judgment of an experienced conductor, who might be expected to know what would sing well, and there are therefore numerous opportunities for the soloists to win that applause without which existence on the operatic stage would be but an idle waste of life. On the whole, the music, while not remarkable for invention, is pleasing, well made and creditable to the composer, and it has the singular merit of being always in keeping with the general character of the scene and the action.—New York Times.

HOW THE FILIPINOS FIGHT.

Their Trencherous Methods In Dealing With Our Sentries.

In a letter to friends in Wheeling, Private W. J. McKee of Company C, First Montana Volunteer Infantry, now in service in the Philippines, writes of the methods of the insurgents. In course of his description he says:

"We are posted in the ricefields among the brush, and when night darkens the rebels put on citizen's clothing and approach our lines. When we challenge them, they shout 'Amigo!' and as they look like inoffensive civilians they are sometimes permitted to pass. In passing the sentry they watch their chance and jump on him with the long blades they carry beneath their white outer garments and attempt to slash him across the throat. Our outposts have been attacked every night, but the troopers have managed to escape without being killed, although many of them have been disfigured for life by the ugly knives carried by the insurgents. Orders have been issued to kill every native who attempts to pass the lines at night."

Private McKee relates the story of the brave fight of Private Fred Schmidt of Company F, South Dakota volunteers. The trooper was on outpost duty and was attacked by two Filipino warriors in citizen's clothing. One made a dash at Schmidt's throat, cutting away the muscles of one side of his jaw. Although bleeding and terribly slashed over the face the outpost loaded his rifle and shot one of his assailants. The other one ran, but a long distance shot by the wounded soldier brought him down, and his body was found in the rice grass the next morning pierced through. Schmidt will likely receive the military reward his brave conduct deserves.—New York Sun.

Weird Scene in a Trial.

The dramatic moment of the trial came when Mrs. Zerelda Samuels, grandmother of Jesse James, took the stand and was asked to take the oath at Kansas City recently. She could not put up her right hand, for that had been blown off years ago, when detectives surrounded her house and demanded the surrender of her son, Jesse James, Sr., and, on her refusal, blew up the house with dynamite. When she took the oath, the old woman—she is 74—held up what remained of her right arm. She made a weird, almost uncanny, picture in the courtroom, and profound silence prevailed while the oath was administered.—St. Louis Republic.

NEW POSTAGE STAMPS.

Designs of a Special Set Prepared For Cuba.

TO BE USED UNTIL ISLAND IS FREED

The Issue Will Consist of One, Two, Three, Five and Ten Cent Stamps. Cost of Plates and Printing the Stamps to Be Charged Against Cuban Revenues.

The postoffice department at Washington is preparing to issue a special set of stamps for Cuba, and the designs have been approved by the postmaster general. The issue will consist of 1, 2, 3, 5 and 10 cent stamps. Director Rathbone of the Cuban mail service wishes to have a few stamps of larger denominations, and the matter is held up pending further information from him.

The designs were prepared at the bureau of printing and engraving from pictures furnished by the postoffice department. The 1 cent, or 1 centavo, stamp has the word Cuba across the top, with a "1" in each of the lower corners. In the center is a picture of the statue of Columbus in the courtyard of the palace of the captain general in Havana. It will be printed in green. There are two designs for the 3 centavo stamp. The first has Cuba across the top, with a plantation scene in the center and "3 centavos" at the bottom. The other has the plantation scene in the upper left hand corner, with the word Cuba across the center, the figure 3 underneath and centavos at the bottom. The first gives more prominence to the plantation. This stamp will be in red.

The 3 cent stamp has the word Cuba across the top, and in the center is a representation of the allegorical figure of Cuba which stands in the plaza of Havana, a woman seated on a throne. It is called "La Cubana." On either side of the figure is the figure 3 and at the bottom the word centavos. The 5 cent stamp has the picture of a merchant steamer at full speed, typifying commerce. On the side is a wealth of palms and tropical foliage and at the top the word Cuba. Across the bottom is "5 centavos." On the 10 cent stamp is depicted a farming scene in Cuba. A Cuban is driving two oxen harnessed to the primitive plow in use in the island with the long upright stick by which it is guided. The word Cuba appears at the top, with the figures 10 on either side and centavos in a semicircle above the picture.

The plates will be prepared and the stamps printed at the bureau of engraving and printing, Washington, and their cost charged against the Cuban revenues. They will be used on the island until Cuba is declared free, when the Cuban government will be at liberty to continue their use or not as it sees fit. The use of the stamps will be another evidence of the intention of the government to free Cuba.

It is the first time in the history of the postoffice department that it has been called upon to prepare stamps for another country. At present two kinds of stamps are in use in Cuba, the regulation United States stamp and the same stamp with the word Cuba and the denomination in Spanish imprinted across the face in red, similar to the imprinted revenue stamps issued when the war act went into effect. The department prepared the imprinted stamps for the Cuba mail service, but finally consented to permit the use of the regular ordinary United States stamps to accommodate the soldiers, who had taken quantities of stamps with them to Cuba.

In Porto Rico the stamps now in use are the ordinary United States stamps, with the words "Porto Rico" and the value printed across the face in Spanish. The department does not contemplate at present making any issue of stamps for Porto Rico similar to the Cuban issue. Later stamps may be prepared for the island, but they will be the United States stamps, with simply the denominations in Spanish and possibly the words Porto Rico on them.

In the Philippines the United States stamp is used exclusively at present and without any imprint. A series of stamps may be prepared for them. No stamps except those for Cuba, however, will be prepared for the colonies until after the ratification of the treaty of peace is exchanged.—New York Sun.

TESTING A WIRE WOUND GUN

First of Fifty Under the Brown Patent Proves a Success.

The first of 50 of the Brown segmental tube wire guns was tested successfully at Birdsboro the other day under official auspices for the government. The shots attained a velocity of 2,800 feet a second, 100 feet better than requirements, and the shot was light. These tests will continue for several days until at least 500 shots are fired.

The gun tested is 5 inch caliber and weighs 3½ tons. Its length is 19 feet. The company has a contract for 25 of the 5 inch and 25 of the 6 inch. The 6 inch weigh 10 tons and are 20 feet long. They are to cost $10,000 each, or $500,000 for the 50. The 10 inch gun of the same kind that is now being built at the Scott works in Reading weighs more than 30 tons and is nearly 40 feet long. It is expected that this gun will be tested in about four months.

The tests are under the supervision of Captain Ira MacNutt of the ordnance department. Edward M. Gage, government inspector, has been overlooking the work of building and firing. The highest pressure reached was more than 30,000 pounds.—New York Press.

BATHTUB STIRS BAD LANDS.

Cowboys Will Take No Action, as Its Buyer Is Popular.

C. K. Howard of Sioux Falls, S. D., president of the Western South Dakota Stock Growers' association, who owns a mammoth cattle ranch on the Cheyenne river, in the western part of the state, evidently aspires to be the Ward McAllister of South Dakota cattlemen. He has recently let a contract for the construction of a ranch house which when completed will be the finest of the kind in the state.

The structure will have all modern improvements and will contain seven rooms, among them a bathroom, with hot and cold water fixtures. This feature of the new dwelling will be scoffed at by the "cow punchers" in that locality, who are themselves content to take their "dips" in the waters of the swift flowing Cheyenne.

Were it not for the fact that Howard is very popular with them they would show violent resentment to these evidences of effete eastern civilization. As it is, their feelings are deeply wounded at the invasion of their territory by a bathtub, which they pronounce the invention of a dude "tenderfoot."—Chicago Times-Herald.

American Locomotives For China.

The Baldwin locomotive works at Philadelphia recently closed a contract for the building of 81 locomotives, the largest single order ever received by that company. The locomotives are for use on new railroads now under construction in China. The contract was under consideration about a year ago, but the breaking out of the war with Spain opened up such an element of doubt regarding the safe delivery of the engines that the matter was dropped for the time. The negotiations were recently renewed and have just been brought to a conclusion and the contract signed. Over $800,000 is involved in the work, and the Baldwin company will rapidly push the construction of the engines. Shipment to China will begin probably in the course of a few weeks.—Baltimore American.

Dewey's Puzzling Request.

The navy department has received from Admiral Dewey a request for 3,000 steel coal baskets. The request has mystified the navy department officials. No such thing as steel coal baskets are used in the navy. It was said at the navy department the other night that Admiral Dewey had probably seen some steel coal baskets, which he thought would be of utility to his fleet, yet why he should need them at all, and especially why he should want such a great number of them, could not be conjectured. However, whatever Admiral Dewey wants "goes," and if any such thing as steel coal baskets can be found on the market or be manufactured in the United States, they will be sent to him.—Washington Cor. St. Louis Globe-Democrat.

Sam Sloan's Recipe For Success.

Samuel Sloan, who recently retired from the presidency of the Delaware, Lackawanna and Western railroad at the ripe old age of 82, began his remarkable career without a penny, and he retires with many millions. He explains his success in accumulating a fortune by saying that when he first went to work, no matter what his salary was, he saved some of it. The first $1,000 was the hardest to get, but it grew to $5,000, and then to higher figures. "Economy is one of the most important roads to wealth. When I say economy, I do not mean sordidness, but I do mean a proper appreciation of the value of money. Given proper economy, integrity, earnestness, application to detail, and you will win every time."—Kansas City Journal.

Rudyard Kipling.

[The newspapers reported that during the progress of the late blizzard on the Atlantic coast Mr. Kipling made anxious inquiries about the overdue steamships.]

The winds of the north had joined their force,
And a tempest swept the main,
And the ships were fighting their way to port
Through the wintry hurricane.

The air was white with the whirling snow,
And the sea was white with foam,
And the masts and the decks were sheeted in
Ice
As the ships were battling home.

"Are the ships all in?" said the poet of the sea
As he lay on his fever bed;
"Are the ships all in?" 'Twas his deepest heart
That spoke in the words he said.

"Are the ships all in?" said the man who loved
All the seven seas he had sung,
The laureate poet of the worldwide race
Who speak his English tongue.

You can always measure race of men
And tell are they truly brave,
If they master not only the solid shore,
But also the rolling wave.

The land is only one-half of the world,
And the other half is the sea,
And a nation must care for sailors and ships
If it would be great and free.

"Are the ships all in?" Let the winds blow high—
Let the angry billows roar!
Yet the ships are safe when a love like this Waits and watches upon the shore.
